

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising notices free any more than a merchant can take over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers

excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc., THE LEDGER will charge five cents a line, and hereafter this will be the unvariable rule. This, however,

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Locals in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. "But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—52 times—the bill is $13.50. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "will forget" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

We Must Make Room

In anticipation of a big fall trade, and realizing that goods pertaining to our lines will advance, (a great many have already,) we bought early and largely. We are already beginning to receive shipments. Moreover it will not be long before our great line of Men's Shoes will come in, so you see we must make room. Now, if you will look in our windows and see the line of Suits we are offering at $10 you will assist us in making room. All of our Fancy Cheviot Suits, in Checks, Plaids, Stripes, etc., Suits that we sold at $18, $16.50 and $15, go in this sale.

No house in the state ever did or ever will offer a line of Suits like these for the price,

:-: $10.00!

It is the greatest sacrifice sale ever made, but as our patrons will be benefited, and it secures us room and money, we will only be too glad to have you take advantage of this sale. We have no room to quote prices on our more medium grades, but the entire stock will be sold at proportionate prices.

Please bear in mind this: No Suit will be sent out on approval. No Suit will be charged. Only :-: CASH!

Will buy the goods during this sale. Money, however, will be cheerfully returned if goods don't suit upon home examination.

A BRUTAL KING.

He Struck Mollie McMillan in the Face, Badly Bruising It.

Mollie McMillan and Robert King were up before Judge Wadsworth yesterday afternoon, Mollie with a terrible looking face and King charged with smashing it.

The trouble grew out of King's sister going to the Electric Park Theater the night before with Mollie, King accusing the McMillan girl of coaxing his sister to go against the will of her mother.

It was proven that this was untrue; the King girl went willingly.

Mollie went to the King residence yesterday morning, and Robert was there with his fighting clothes on. As soon as he saw the McMillan girl he began to abuse her with all kinds of ugly language, and the more he talked the madder he became, until he finally ordered the girl to leave house, which she started to do, but didn't go fast enough to suit the King, and he grabbed her and pushed her out, striking her in the face. After reaching the alley he stooped down, picked up a rock and hit her above the eye and then struck her below the same eye with his fist, bruising that portion of her face in a terrible manner.

After hearing the evidence Judge Wadsworth assessed a fine of $20 and costs against Bobby, which will keep him in jail about thirty days.

Mollie was fined $1 and costs, and the Judge remitted the costs, the fine was paid and Mollie left with the sympathy of the Court and crowd.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so. "There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey, physician and pharmacist, of Olney, Mo.; and as he has used the Remedy in his own family and sold it in his drug store for six years, he should certainly know. For sale by J. Jas. Wood, Druggist.

DIED AT LEXINGTON.

Mrs. Amanda Rand Smith, wife of Mr. J. Warren Smith, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock of congestion of the brain, aged 45.

Deceased was the daughter of Rev. Joseph Rand, who in 1867-8 was Pastor of the M. E. Church, South, of this city, and was a very gifted and noble woman.

The funeral services will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, interment in the Lexington Cemetery.

HELD FOR MURDER

E. H. Robinson Must Go Before Circuit Court For Killing John Jones.

THE $3,500 BAIL QUICKLY GIVEN

Yesterday in the Circuit Court room, before County Judge M. C. Hutchins sitting as an examining Court, the trial of Edward H. Robinson, charged with murder, was heard.

The state was represented by County Attorney George W. Adair and the defense by Hon. A. M. J. Cochran.

About thirty witnesses were heard, and the trial attracted a large crowd of spectators.

A synopsis of the evidence as adduced showed a mingled state, in which at the close the verdict of the Judge was one pleasing many, while a large number were dissatisfied.

The leading line followed by the state was one showing the malicious intention which prompted Robinson in shooting Jones, and the hiding in ambush awaiting the approach of his victim.

While the point was somewhat substantiated by corroborating witnesses, yet to say it was conclusively drawn or fully sustained would be far from the truth.

The line of evidence pursued by Attorney Cochran was one well sustained by his witnesses, and the evidence showed an oft repeated threat by Jones against Robinson, and his alarm at his personal safety led him to arm himself for an attack.

Succinct arguments were made by the attorneys, after which his honor Judge Hutchins announced his decision, which was holding the defendant to the November term of the Circuit Court on the charge of wilful murder without bond.

This last order was withdrawn, however, upon motion of County Attorney Adair, and the Court fixed the bail at $2,500, which was quickly given by Mr. Robinson, and he returned to his home, accompanied by his family, Mr. Lash Moran and some other gentleman whose name we could not learn going on his bond.

Thus ends the first bout in this unfortunate tragedy.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J.
