CHANGES AT C. AND O.

The Freight Department Undergoes Another Transformation Today.

Mr. R. B. Cross, after a short stay as Cashier and Chief Clerk in the freight department of the C. and O. at this point, left this morning for the position he held before he came to Maysville—Agent at Springdale.

Mr. Cross, during his brief stay in our midst, has proven himself a thorough gentleman and has won for himself many friends, and his leaving will be a source of regret to them. He has been ill ever since he came to this city, and he came to the conclusion that the Maysville atmosphere was not made for his health, hence his departure.

Mr. Thomas Darnall, who for five years held a clerkship with the L. and N. in this city and who proved himself an efficient and capable officer, takes the position made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Cross.

Mr. Tuce Willett will go from the St. Charles ticket office to the freight office again, while the ticket office at the St. Charles has not as yet been supplied.

Mr. T. W. Pinckard, Superintendent of the Pumps along the line from Huntington to Covington, and whose shops have been stationed here for some time, has been moved to Covington where he will resume the same work. His family will move there next week.

The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

A CHANGE

In the Management of the Institution for Feeble-Minded Children May Be Made.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 24.—Inspector Lester has investigated the Institution for Feeble-Minded Children located here. The commissioners agree with Col. Lester that a change of the superintendent is necessary. It is understood that the commissioners have been trying to get rid of Superintendent Huff for some time, and have practically taken the management of the asylum out of his hands.

Mrs. Huff has been removed from the position of matron and the son-in-law of Dr. Huff has been removed as supervisor of the institution. Several other officials of minor importance have been removed within the past few weeks, and there is some talk of the grand jury investigating the affairs of the asylum.

Inspector Lester has not yet filed a report, but will do so in a few days, and it is said he will recommend the appointment of an entire new set of officers for the institution.

Kills His Son by Mistake.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 24.—Richard Bacon, a prominent farmer residing on Todd's road, six miles from town, Monday night at 10 o'clock mistook his son Willie, aged 16, for a burglar and shot him through the left breast with a 44-caliber pistol, fatally wounding him. The boy had brought home some fresh meat and had been in the cellar, where he put it away. The father was awakened by the noise and getting out of bed reached the back porch just as the son emerged from the cellar and fired on him.

Both Killed in a Combat.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., Aug. 24.—It is reported here that Geo. H. Steel, ex-sheriff, and Sam Young, deputy sheriff of Leslie county, were both killed in a combat at Hyden Monday. Both men fought to desperation, and both fell dead by the fifth round. Young had three bullets through him and lived two hours. Both were prominent. Steel was a Democratic leader and Young a Republican leader, and they quarreled over politics.

The Southern Pacific Files a Brief.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 24.—Attorneys for the Southern Pacific have filed a brief to their demurrer to the state's suit for several hundred thousand dollars due for franchise tax and penalties for failure to make annual reports. It holds that theirs is not a Kentucky corporation in so far as exercising any of its corporate franchise in this state is concerned, that they owe no franchise tax, and that any punishable failure to report has been barred by limitation.

Louisville Diamond Mystery.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 24.—The residence of Mrs. Mary Tyler, Third street, in the aristocratic part of the city, was looted Sunday and 20 diamonds stolen. The stolen property is valued at $3,000. Detectives recovered two of the jewels in a package in an express office. Chief Hanger has attempted to suppress the affair, and refuses to talk.

Judge's Assault Fined.

CORINTH, Ky., Aug. 24.—S. D. Neale was Monday acquitted of the charge of "carrying concealed weapons." It was decided that he carried his revolver openly. Neale's wife was fined $75 for assaulting Judge Alcake with a buggy whip while her husband was in court August 21.

Staty Thousand Bushels at One Dollar.

DANVILLE, Ky., Aug. 24.—Cogar & Co. and Anderson & Spilman, of Danville, have bought 60,000 bushels of wheat since Saturday noon at $1 per bushel, immediate delivery, and were offering the same price Monday morning.

McKee Cleared of Murder.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ky., Aug. 24.—Buckner McKee was cleared at examining trial Monday of the killing of James Travis Sunday. The killing occurred over a dog belonging to Travis, that McKee's son had killed.

Halfstones Ruin the Tobacco Crop.

JOHNSON, Ky., Aug. 24.—One of the most severe hailstorms ever witnessed in this section passed over a portion of Fleming and Mason counties, literally ruining the tobacco crop and greatly damaging corn.

A Monster Gar Captured.

PADUCAH, Ky., Aug. 24.—Joe Waggoner captured a monster garfish in the Ohio river. It was six feet in length, eight inches across the back and had teeth an inch long.

Warren New Disappears.

MAYFIELD, Ky., Aug. 24.—Warren New, a contractor, disappeared from this place, leaving a large family. He had just begun the construction of a fine residence.

Teacher's Tragic Death.

STANFORD, Ky., Aug. 24.—Miss Jennie Bradshaw, a school teacher, aged 22 years, was thrown from her buggy by a runaway horse and instantly killed.

Uncle Sam's Claim on Spain.

MADRID, Aug. 24.—The duke of Teuan, the minister of foreign affairs, declares that the only claim presented by the United States in connection with Cuba is a demand for the payment of indemnity to the family of Dr. Ricardo Ruiz, the American citizen, who met his death in the jail of Guanabacoa, under suspicious circumstances, and is couched in pacific language. Capt. Gen. Weyler, it is further announced, has not resigned; but the government will shortly consider the results obtained by the campaign in Cuba.

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

A HANDKERCHIEF BARGAIN!

Maker's samples—three thousand in all and nearly two hundred styles. It's this way: The smallest frame for successful handkerchief making holds twenty-two handkerchiefs, and it is as cheap to make a frame full as fewer. So, when the very careful work of sample making is in progress the maker simply has to produce more than are really needed for samples. This surplus of most perfect goods we bought and saved 40 per cent. in the buying. So may you.

Sale Begins Thursday at 8 a. m., WILL CLOSE SATURDAY NIGHT.

No credit extended—all sales strictly cash. The goods are sold on the closest margin and cannot be charged. Tomorrow's paper and each succeeding issue will give interesting details. Should you have no handkerchief needs call upon us anyhow and see what we are doing. Our house will be more than an attraction—it will be an emporium of economy. If you fail to visit us we wish to emphasize the loss will be yours quite as much as ours. We are going to do the handkerchief business of this store's history Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
