SPRINGDALE SPLITTERS.

A Writer Who Heeds to the Line, Regardless Where the Chips Fall.

A large crowd attended the baptizing near Bethany Sunday evening, where the young evangelist, Robert Tolle of Maysville, baptised eight converts.

Springdale was all excitement Saturday over an accidental shooting. W. H. Cobb while placing a pistol in a box let it fall. The ball took effect in the breast of his cousin, George Cobb. The ball entered near the lower edge of the breastbone, passing upward, lodged near the collarbone, and was extracted by Dr. Winder. The wound, though painful, is not considered dangerous.

FAIR NOTES.

Some of the Attractions The Maysville Fair Offers to Patrons.

The grounds are being cleaned, the buildings got ready, and everything will be in ship-shape for the opening day, Tuesday, September 21st, which is the preliminary arranging day as the shows and fair proper begin Wednesday morning at 10 a. m. Exhibitors please be prompt in entering their goods this day (Tuesday) with Superintendent of Floral Hall.

Mr. Harry C. Curran, Superintendent of the Floral Hall, will be on the grounds Tuesday morning at 8:30 for the purpose of receiving goods for the Floral Hall. Patrons will bear in mind and be prompt that everything may be in order and no delay occasioned.

Do not forget the delightful attractions already booked for Maysville's Fair,—a complete Wild West Show, a balloon ascension each day, and double balloon races, a high wire walker, and a hippodrome show, to say nothing of the baby racks, the cane racks, the merry-go-round, the peanuts, and the red lemonade, and other accessories found only in first-class exhibitions. Always keep in mind the date, September 22d to 25th.

Have you seen the catalogue? It is a capital book with high-class printing, but it contains a more liberal showing of premiums which it will pay you as a housekeeper or owner to examine. Write to Secretary William H. Fremont for one.

The chances are flattering for a visit from our neighboring City Bands. They have been invited to be guests of the Company, and it is hoped that nothing will interfere to have them accept.

The "Merchant's Bazaar" idea is a popular scheme and our Floral Hall will be a miniature exposition. Our local merchants take pride in doing whatever they do in the best manner, and the exhibit of boudoirs, parlor, dining-room, kitchen, china-closet and bath will be a flat complete, elegant and perfect in appointment. The Floral display will have some sharp competitors this year, and the domestic side will show more kinds of bread, cakes, jellies, pickles and fruits than very likely ever were assembled in Floral Hall.

The Kimball Co's exhibit promises a great deal of fine music, a pianist having been engaged to make sweet the air with choicest sounds.

A fact which cannot be too often emphasized relates to the admission fee. Remember town people and friends outside that the nominal cost of 25 cents admits you absolutely, no extra charge for grand-stand seats. Now we hope this emphatic statement will dispense any dubiousness, and that any past experience to the contrary may not be a judgment of the future.

Twelve men started in the road race from Lexington to Covington. Leo Langfelt of Covington won.

The Boston Woman's Rescue League adopted resolutions declaring that bachelors and politicians are not to be trusted, and should be held ineligible for public office.

On Thursday, September 16th, the C. and O. will run a grand excursion to Oligonunk at a rate of 75 cents for the round trip. This will be a grand opportunity to visit these noted caverns and to take a delightful trip over one of the grandest railroads in the country.

RIGHT KIND OF SENSE.

How a Rancher Took the Kinks Out of a Very "Smart" Fellow.

Denville Advocate.

Henry Miller, the well known rancher, was busily engaged in counting a "big herd of cattle as they were driven by him, says a Western paper, when an acquaintance approached with the greeting:

"Hello, Henry!"

Miller kept on counting, not daring to even turn his head for fear of losing his count.

"Hello, Henry," repeated his acquaintance, thinking he had not been heard.

Still Miller kept on with his count.

"Say, Miller, you needn't be so stuck up because you are worth a few dollars," remarked his friend angrily. "I knew you when you were peddling sausages on the street."

The rancher had just completed his count, and, turning on his acquaintance, said:

"Yes, by tam, and if I don't get any more sense as you I be selling sausage yet."
