

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

Thomas J. Chenoweth, the present Postmaster of this city, who was appointed by President Cleveland, recommended the removal of W. H. Davis, a Letter Carrier, and his brother, Charles B. Davis, a Substitute Carrier, for the reason that the first was "untidy, so much so that his person was offensive," and that Charles B. Davis was "rough, noisy and untidy, and that his mind was given to baseball and other matters not connected with his business."

THE BOARD OF HEALTH has taken no action in regard to the Sixth Ward Sewer. There can be no question that the residents of that section are entitled to relief. They have been patient, and have long endured the pond which this sewer will effectually drain.

THE DIFFERENCE, however, was that when Mr. Davis took charge of the office it was a very primitive affair; its fixtures would have been a discredit to a town of 500 people; there were no Letter Carriers; the annual receipts of the office were barely $8,000; and Civil Service had not been extended to it.
