Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

FROM THE FAIR

What Was Done Yesterday-- Premiums Awarded.

THE WILD WEST HERE TODAY.

It's on. And it's a go!

The weather was all that could be desired, and the Maysville Fair opened yesterday to a small but appreciative attendance.

By way of introduction, it may be said with safety of 18-karat degree that the seeker for entertainment can get "more for his money" on the Fairgrounds during the present meeting than at any time within the history of Maysville Fairs.

If you don't believe it, just make the rounds.

Yesterday there were some good mules and horses in the rings, with the following premium takers:

- Mule 3 years old and over, regardless of sex, T. W. Ray, Mason county, $3.
- Mule 2 years old, E. R. Burns, Johnson, $6.
- Mule 1 year old and under 2, E. R. Davis, Mason county, $5.
- Mule under 1 year, E. R. Davis, Mason county, $5.
- Mule any age, T. W. Ray, Mason county, $10.
- Saddle Stallion, 4 years and over, G. K. Winter, Mason county, $10.
- Harness Mare, 4 years and over, Everett Poe, Bracken county, $10.
- Harness Mare, under 4 years, Carpenter & Hunter, Millersburg, $10.
- Slow Mule Race, John Fischer, Mason county, $5.
- Adams and Brown county race, C. B. Stroud, $25.

All the above sums were paid in cash as soon as the awards were made.

CLAY PIGEON SHOOT.

One of the afternoon attractions was a clay pigeon shoot, there being two events, ten birds in each, with 50 cents entry fee:

The entries and scores in the first shoot were--

- W. P. Woodcock.....10
- Dr. H. M. Marsh.....7
- W. D. Cushman.....7
- R. S. Waddell.....7

And in the second--

- W. P. Woodcock.....9
- Dr. H. M. Marsh.....7
- R. S. Waddell.....7
- W. D. Cushman.....7

Mr. Woodcock is a "crack shot" from Danville, Dr. Marsh is a Mason county boy as is Mr. Cushman, and Mr. Waddell represents the DuPont Powder Co. at Cincinnati.

After these there was some practice shooting; but today there is promise of an interesting tourney.

The performance by the great Cyrene was alone worth the admission price; the two balloon ascensions were all right, and if anything was lacking yesterday it will be made up today.

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

- Trio Turkeys, J. P. Hodson; $2.
- Best Display Poultry owned by one exhibitor, J. P. Hodson; $5.

In the class of articles entered for exhibition but for no competition, there are several departments worthy of special mention.

Messrs. C. D. Russell & Co., our well-known Chinamen, have quite a large space showing some of the very elegant goods they carry. The display contains some exceedingly handsome china sets, and the room occupied by this firm is one of the most attractive in the entire hall.

A most beautiful exhibit is the work of the Watters Factory, now stationed in this city. Artistically placed are portraits of a number of the foremost citizens of this city, some now deceased, and the faithfulness of execution attests the ability of these people in their profession. The display will be increased today by several crayons.

Mr. George H. Traxel, representing the plumbing trade of Maysville, has a very handsome bathroom set exhibited. Lack of space prevented Mr. Traxel from making further display of his stock, but judging from this one set, first class goods are his speciality.

Another space is occupied by Mr. W. H. Ryder, dealer in paints, wall paper, etc. Mr. Ryder is always represented in the business enterprises, and his display at the Hall tends to keep up his reputation in this respect and at the same time to let the people know he is still in business.

Another display attracting much attention is the art work executed by the pupils of the city Public Schools. At the close of school in June this work was on exhibition at the High School Building and was inspected by many people of the city who are interested in the advancement of the pupils of our schools. The clay modeling and paper cutting done at the primary department are indeed excellent, attesting the true ideas of the little folks, while some of the more difficult specimens by the seniors are highly complimented by visitors. The drawings are very good, and many of the pieces displayed here have been on exhibition in the Art School in St. Louis.

H. C. Barkley & Co. have a very excellent display of their shoes. The high quality and variety of their footwear are known to every buyer in this and adjoining counties, and their exhibit at the Hall marks the enterprise of the firm and its pride in the goods handled.

The Maysville Cotton Mills also have a very good showing of the output of their factory. The Maysville Mills are already famous for their high class work, and the display of the yarn, cotton, carpet chains, etc., is a most pleasing sight in the business portion of the Hall.

Kilpp & Brown shows saddlery and harness, F. Gerbrich pianos, W. F. Power stoves and E. S. Conrad pianos and organs.

The Pastry Department is the most complete of any ever seen here, while all sorts of fruits have been gathered in by the Managers.

Anchor Flour is good. M. C. R. The Maysville Assembly entertained last evening at Neptune Hall.

Teeth extracted without pain. Dr. J. W. Cartmell, over Harry Taylor's, Phone 69.

Books are now open for the Second Suit Club of Mr. H. T. Clinkinbeard. Come quick in order to get in.

FRIDAY'S CASH SALE.

Money's Saved When Spent at Hunt's

Everybody sells the best Underwear. But have you seen ours? Everybody offers lowest prices. But have you got ours? A plain statement is all we wish to make. Underwear is our hobby. We carry the largest and best selected stock in Maysville. We buy only what we know to be good and what we can recommend. If any one ever had an underwear dissatisfaction through a purchase from us it was an accident. Even the best regulated stocks will occasionally have a misfit or an inferior quality, where there are dozens of dozen high grade garments on the shelves. But at all times it is our cheerful pleasure to correct mistakes. Tell us of them; that is all we ask. Friday we will introduce to your attention two special values in Women's Underwear.

Vests and Drawers Cream or gray, fleece-lined, French-ribbed, pearl buttons, silk taped and lace edged neck on vest, yoke band of strong coutil on drawers. These are values worth looking into. If you availed of our Underwear sale last fall, we want to insure you that we have improved on the unusual values of that occasion. Vests and Drawers 25c. each, worth double.

Oneita Combination Suits One-piece suits have advantages that womankind need not be told of twice. But we may have to tell a second time the price of our Oneita Suits, so great will be your surprise to learn it is Only 50c. This price for Friday's sale, solely, of course. The Suits are fleece-lined, ribbed, silk-finished. Selling is the easiest part of the business--it takes planning to give such values.
