

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes.

Hechinger & Co., Headquarters For Fair Visitors.

It has always been our custom to make our large, commodious store-rooms headquarters for visitors to our Fair. If you have anything with you you want taken care of bring it in.

The Court of Appeals resumed its sittings Monday. There are 775 submitted cases on the docket and 807 cases not submitted--altogether 1582.

Murphy the Jeweler carries the largest stock of Diamonds and Gold Watches to be found in the city. His prices are the lowest. If you want first-class goods call on him.

Mr. William A. Bramel, aged 20, of Mason county, and Miss Carrie A. Davenport, aged 21, of Woodford county were married at the County Clerk's office yesterday by the Rev. F. W. Harrop of the M. E. Church.

Some fellow whose name could not be learned tried yesterday to batter down Henry Dieterich's bell with his head. He was one of the "smart alecks" who insist on swinging onto the streetcars. He is now nursing a splendid gash in his forehead.

The largest audience of the week assembled at the Opera house last evening and witnessed one of the best and cleanest vaudeville entertainments ever furnished a Maysville audience. There was snap and vim to the performance from the rise to the fall of the curtain. In fact it was an ideal "continuous performance," which is now the prevailing fad of the country. Cyrene, the phenomenal dancer, scored her usual success and was warmly received. A change of bill tonight.

BLACK DIAMOND BOOM.

Indiana Alive to the Importance of Boone's Great Railway System.

Colonel Albert E. Boone, Hon. William Kirby and General J. C. J. Williams of Knoxville are now in Indiana in the interest of the Black Diamond System of Railways, and the following special to The Courier-Journal tells how the work is progressing there:

PAUL, IND., September 22d.—An enthusiastic meeting of capitalists interested in the building of the Springfield, Ohio River and South Atlantic Railroad was held in this city today.

A promotion fund of $125,000 was provided for and an organization was perfected. Articles of incorporation will be filed with the Secretary of State at Indianapolis to-morrow.

BEANS AND BEAUTY.

That's What Attracted the Crowd to Electric Park Last Evening.

The Campfire of Heiser Post, G. A. R., began at Electric Park last night with a splendid attendance.

The exercises opened with a speech from Dr. William Bowman, Past Department Commander, whose anecdotes of the War put everybody in jolly humor and everything in good running shape.

There was plenty of bean soup of the best, with as many trimmings as a spring bonnet, and a large platform in the big tent afforded opportunity for all who wished to keep step to the enlivening music of the orchestra.

The weather was just right, and the young folk enjoyed the dance till a late hour.

The Campfire will continue the rest of the week, and you'll miss a pleasant evening if you don't go.

KICKERS' CORNER

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything of any kind, here's the place to say his say. The door is open--walk right in and help yourself, free gratis and for nothing--but don't make your "kicks" too long--it's the short, quick fellows that count--and cut.

Well, yes; they've taken the knot out of the step to the Esplanade at the Southeast corner, but the "bowl" still remains on the surface at the Southwest ditto.

And the holes--by the great horned spoon, there's millions of 'em.

The question is, "What are the City Dads gwine ter do 'er about it?"

Hon. W. W. Dickerson, Sound Money Democrat, is announced to speak in this city October 26th.

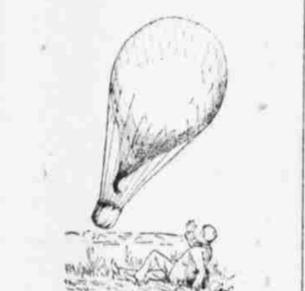

Rev. S. D. Dutcher will close his first year with the Christian Church here next Sunday, and will at the morning service, 10:30, give a short summary of the work.

A thing giving the name of F. M. Champ, and its home as Sherburne, was arrested on the Fairgrounds yesterday for crawling under the amphitheater like other reptiles. It had a hearing in Court this morning and was fined $1 and costs.

FROM THE FAIR

There Was a Good Crowd and Much Sport Yesterday.

YOU OUGHT TO BE THERE TODAY

The second day of the Fair was marked by a very large attendance.

And today and tomorrow give promise of the biggest crowds ever seen on the grounds.

CLAY PIGEON SHOOT.

There was only one event, with ten entries at 50 cents each, the Fair Company adding $10.

Each contestant was given fifteen birds, and the purse was divided into three parts--60, 30 and 10.

The entries and the score were--

Table with names and scores: W. P. Woodcock...10, Dr. H. M. Marsh...12, W. H. Wadsworth...7, John McRoberts...15, W. D. Gushman...6, A. A. Wadsworth...10, M. F. Marsh...2, C. F. Ball...8, Elijah Kirk...11, James Lashbrook...11

AROUND THE GROUNDS.

In one of the big tents Messrs. McClanahan & Shea have a fine exhibit of Gasoline Stoves, covering such excellent brands as the "Quick Meal," "Insurance" and "Dangler." These superior kitchen adjuncts may be found in stock at the store of this enterprising firm, No. 41 West Second street.

The "Wild West" show was on the grounds in its wildest form, and many of the feats of horsemanship were quite thrilling.

As on the previous day the balloon ascensions were all that could be asked.

All in all, the person who can't get a quarter's worth on the Maysville Fairgrounds this year is hard to please.

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

Crayon portraits of Robert A. Cochran, F. H. Traxel, Miss Lizzie Sadler, Joseph Cheesman, S. A. Piper, Mrs. L. Roser, Col. Fred Schatzmann, Mrs. Fred Schatzmann, M. C. Russell, A. J. Calvert, James Smith and George T. Wood have been completed by the Watters Party of Artists, and are placed on exhibition at the Floral Hall at the Fair this week.

The portraits, without an exception, are excellent, and are the best recommendations for the skill of these people. A water color of Miss Pauline Anderson, also among the display, is another fine piece of their work. The Watters Party have their studio at the St. Charles Hotel, and work entrusted to their care will receive prompt attention, and satisfaction guaranteed.

It Saves the Croupy Children. SEAVIEW, VA.—We have a splendid sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and our customers coming from far and near speak of it in the highest terms. Many have said that their children would have died of croup if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had not been given.
