Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

BROKE HIS NECK.

Ben Moran Falls From a Buggy and is Killed Near Shannon.

Yesterday Ben Moran and Tone Tucker left this city for home, each having about a quart on the inside and a gallon on the outside.

They were in a buggy, and when just beyond Shannon Tucker's hat fell off.

He got out to get it, when Moran hit the horse and went on.

He was so drunk he couldn't manage the horse, and the buggy ran over a bank, throwing him out and breaking his neck.

Squire Howe, acting as Coroner, held an inquest, the verdict being in accordance with above facts.

Moran was 23 years old and lived between Germantown and Lowell.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you cannot get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by J. Jas. Wood, Druggist.

A few afternoons ago, while the outgoing L. and N. train was ascending the Maysville hill, the engine and baggage-car broke loose and ran away from the passenger coaches. Fortunately the brakes were applied, preventing the latter from coming down the steep grade.

One thing that attracts many people to Cincinnati to buy goods is the bargains that Cincinnati merchants advertise in the Cincinnati papers. Maybe Maysville merchants might keep some of this trade in Maysville if they would advertise bargains in the Maysville papers. Suppose you try THE LEDGER.

CHANGE OF FIRM.

Mayor-Elect W. E. Stallcup Retires From the Firm of Smith & Co.

Messrs. John T. Smith and W. E. Stallcup, two practical and enterprising young gentlemen, engaged in cigar manufacture in this city August 8th, 1881, under the firm name of Smith & Co.

From that day to December 27th, 1897,—a period of more than sixteen years—they have applied themselves diligently and intelligently to the business; and it is not surprising that their efforts were rewarded with a degree of success such as true merit always brings.

In all their business relations never a dissension arose; and when these ties were severed on Monday last the final settlement and business separation were as pleasant as any event in the previous history of the firm.

Mr. Stallcup is the Mayor-elect; and that he might give his entire attention to his new duties he sold his interest in the firm to his associate, Mr. John T. Smith, who will continue business under the old style of Smith & Co.

THE LEDGER wishes for Mayor Stallcup a successful official term, and for Mr. Smith that substantial recompense which his energy deserves.

GENTEEL POVERTY IN WASHINGTON.

Many Fashionable Men of the Capital's "400" are Poor Department Clerks.

"I never saw so much genteel poverty before as exists in Washington, D. C.," writes a Cabinet member's wife in the January Ladies' Home Journal. "You have no idea how many of these Department clerks tremble in their boots for fear of losing their positions with a change of Administration and enforcement of the Civil Service rules. The Departments unfit both men and women for any other occupation. You would be surprised to know how many of the fashionable society men are Department clerks. Some of the most attractive among them get a majority of their meals out of society. They rent a room for a small amount, and dine out every night, frequently getting a lunch or a breakfast from a friend. In return, they make it their business to be entertaining and always in a good humor, ready to be of service and to initiate new people into the etiquette of the place."

NEWSY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Bonanza passed up last night for Pomeroy.

The elegant Queen City will pass down from Pittsburgh tomorrow evening.

The Keystone State from Pittsburgh passed down last evening and returns tonight.

The Henry M. Stanley passed down last night from Pomeroy, and will pass up tonight for Kanawha river and way points.

The river continues to fall all along the line, and unless there is rain at headwaters soon navigation will have to be suspended.

Captain John Barrett, one of the oldest river captains on the Ohio, died at his home, near Dayton Ky., Wednesday morning, after an illness of three months. Captain Barrett was 58. He was born in Lewis county. His father and grandfather were steamboat and shipyard men. Before going to Cincinnati he operated a shipyard at Antiquity, O. He went to Cincinnati 32 years ago and engaged in the business of coal, wreckage and transportation and amassed a fortune. The firm of Barrett & Sons operated large coal elevators at Frankfort, and towboats for heavy transportation.

Ice is making lots of trouble for the towboats. All the boats that have gone to Pittsburgh within the last few days have been compelled to string out their barges and "tow behind," as the tugs do in lake navigation and in most other places. The Allegheny River continues putting out considerable ice, which is quite heavy, and it cuts the barges. The Youghiogheny River is frozen, and there is some ice in the Monongahela River. The wickets of the dam at Davis Island have been lowered for the season until the danger of ice is past.

WILLIAM DAVIS WILL SELL YOU SEMI-CANNEL AND KANAWHA COAL AT THE SAME PRICE OTHER PEOPLE ASK FOR POMEROY COAL. TRIAL SOLICITED. Docks East of Limestone Bridge.
