We All Know

There is a popular belief that eyes cannot be properly fitted outside of an oculist's office, but we are constantly proving the incorrectness of that belief. If you have a dull pain about the eyeball, or if, when reading, the letters seem to run together, call and be relieved. We charge nothing for examination, and guarantee satisfaction in every case.

State Convention of Y. M. C. A. in Annual Session.

PROGRAM OF THE DAY'S DOINGS

The Seventeenth Annual State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association convened in this city yesterday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church with an average attendance of Delegates and quite a large audience of our townspeople.

The "Opening Service" was conducted by Mr. C. R. Boucher of Covington, Railroad Secretary, and it was of only a half hour's length.

At 3 o'clock the "Quiet Session" was begun, and at that hour the doors were closed and no one admitted until 4 o'clock.

Rev. Frank M. Thomas of Bowling Green had charge of this meeting.

LADIES' RECEPTION.

That the ladies of Maysville never do things in a half-hearted way was strikingly manifest from the delightful reception tendered the visitors and a few local guests in the Sunday-school rooms of the First Presbyterian Church from 6 to 7:30 o'clock last evening.

The rooms were tastefully decorated, the tables handsomely trimmed with natural flowers and many hued candles, and a splendid orchestra furnished music. There were covers laid for 112, and every one was there to discuss the menu—

AROUND THE TABLE.

"We Shall Do Nothing But Eat and Make Good Cheer." Escalloped Oysters. Cold Ham. Escalloped Oysters. Bosten Biscuit.

Crimped Bread. Saratoga Chips. Coffee. Pickles. Cheese. Lettuce Salad. Ice Cream. Cake.

State Secretary Rosevear was Master of Ceremonies, and first following the banquet was an exhibition of club swinging by Miss Carrie Hays, who was roundly applauded at the conclusion of the beautiful exercise.

The Rev. F. W. Harrop of the M. E. Church, who is always happy in such efforts, bade the visitors a most cordial welcome to our city, expressing the hope that their coming would be of mutual and lasting benefit.

The response on behalf of the visitors was made by Mr. B. B. Wilcox of Frankfort.

The reception closed with several toasts, "The United Work in Our State" being treated by Secretary Loos of the Covington Association.

"Our Brotherhood" met a hearty response from Mr. G. N. Bierce, one of Dayton's most prominent manufacturers and a leader in Christian Association work in Ohio.

Mr. J. A. Johnson of Covington was especially happy in his treatment of the last toast, "The Ladies," and it was the very climax of "Good Cheer" following the feast.

After singing the banqueters adjourned to the auditorium above to resume the Association program.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Convention was opened with a beautiful song service, led by Mr. John P. Hillis and at 7:15 the first business of the Convention was the report of the Nominating Committee, and Mr. James A. Curry of Lexington was chosen President, and in a few well-chosen remarks thanked the Convention for thus honoring him and proceeded to business by calling for the State Executive Committee's report, which was read by State Secretary Henry E. Rosevear. It was quite lengthy, and showed the committee had not been idle throughout the entire year just closed. They had started in with a deficit of over $900 and still had a deficit of that amount, showing that the State Committee had not gone beyond its means. There were several recommendations by Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

PERCALES.

About twenty-five patterns marked from 12c. to 84c. All light colors cool and for cool-looking summer wear. The calendar points to rapidly advancing spring, and cotton sewing cannot have too early a completion now. Fashion does not dictate to cottons with the relentlessness with which she governs high-priced stuffs. Last year's Percales are as pretty as this season's, but storage has marred their freshness, hence the sacrifice. Our later 12c. Percales are no better in any way except their freshness, but water will soon cure every hurt of these cottons.

PILLOW CASES.

Ready-made helpfulness. Muslin of carefully selected quality, sewing neatly done. Both fabric and stitching in these will prove their worthiness by their wear. Prices at less than the cost of the raw material. Pillow Cases 36x45, deep hem, Utica muslin, 7c. each. We wish to emphasize that the 45 years policy of this store has been always to remember prices get customers but quality keeps them.
