SPRING CIRCULATION
LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Here!

Is a Chance for Those Who Did Not Take Advantage of Our 1-3 Off Sale!

By reason of the unprecedented large sale of Suits and Overcoats in this sale it left us quite a lot of our finest Suits and Overcoats in broken sizes; also quite a number of elegant Coats and Vests in Imported Clays, Cheviots and Unfinished Worsteds from which the Pants never sold. If you can find your size in any of these lots

You can buy the garments for less money than the material in them costs.

We are going to close them out. First come, first choice. Don't miss this opportunity.

Look in our windows and you will see the

They were returned to Lewis county, where they will be tried for malicious shooting.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

Colonel James B. Thomas Sends $5 Toward Rebuilding the Opera-House.

Colonel James B. Thomas, one of Nature's noblemen, who makes frequent visits to Maysville, has sent from his Philadelphia home a contribution in aid of the Opera-house fund, with the following letter:

PHILADELPHIA, March 4th, 1898.
Messrs. George Cox & Sons—Dear Friends: I inclose $5, which make as cash contribution to the Fire Company fund. Trust the Company will soon have sufficient money to rebuild not only quarters for themselves but an Opera house for the city. Yours truly,
JAMES B. THOMAS.

Senator Deboe still believes that L. N. Cardwell of Winchester will be appointed Pension Agent, and Sam Roberts is so confident that Combs will be that he has gone to New York to spend a few days.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could bear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—JOHN EDGAR, Germantown, Cal. For sale by J. Jas. Wood, Druggist.

ABE LINCOLN'S WAY.

How the Great Wag Replied to an Inquiry About a Neighbor.

A New York firm applied to Abraham Lincoln, some time before he became President, for information as to the financial standing of one of his neighbors.

Mr. Lincoln replied as follows:

Yours of the 10th inst. received. I am well acquainted with Mr. X., and know his circumstances. First of all, he has wife and baby; together, they ought to be worth $50,000. Secondly, he has an office, in which there are a table worth $1 50 and three chairs, worth say, $1. Last of all, there is in one corner a large rat hole which will bear looking into. Respectfully,
A. LINCOLN.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
This Remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by J. Jas. Wood, Druggist.

SPRING ASSEMBLY OF FABRICS!

Not often you enjoy the satisfaction of making your selections from such a complete up-to-date stock. Here's a half dozen items, snatched at random from the multitude:

DRESS STUFFS, 25c. Fifty different weaves of Novelty Dress Goods at this price, any one of which would have been a "snap" at 50c. not so long ago. Piscatorial Novelties. Have a weave resembling the vertebra of small fish with snarls of color tangled in the bones. Checks, unlike Shepherd plaids. These are irregular in shape, with threads of color insinuating themselves all through the fabric.

STORM SERGES, 29c. to $1.25. You count the goodness of Serge by width, weight, fineness and yarn, and Serge goodness never cost so little as now. A Serge dress is a necessity for outers and home stayers. Maybe the most popular numbers are these at 35c., 45c., 50c., but you may decide: there's not a dear one in the lot. Widths run from 38 to 45 inches.

APRIL SKY MOTTLES, 50c. That isn't its real name; we adopted it because the goods suggest the thought of April skies. Six coloring, zig zag mixtures of wool. Very stylish stuffs.

D. HUNT & SON.
