ANOTHER SURGICAL TRIUMPH.

They sawed off his arms and legs. They took out his jugular vein; They put fancy frills on his lungs, And they deftly extracted his brain.

'Twas a triumph of surgical skill. Such as was never heard of till then; 'Twas the subject of lectures before Conventions of medical men.

The news of this wonderful thing Was heralded far and wide; But for the patient there's naught to say, Except, of course, that he died.

—Cleveland Leader.

BROKEN BUGGY.

That Was the Only Serious Damage From a Runaway Last Evening.

Colonel Dave Heehinger was driving leisurely along the banks of Bullcreek last evening, in company with Mrs. Heehinger.

After crossing the bridge near Stewart's Chapel his horse got too near the bank, the buggy tipped and Mr. Heehinger was thrown out, landing unhurt.

This prompted Mrs. H. to jump, and in alighting her elbow was slightly injured.

The unusual movement on the part of the occupants very naturally frightened the horse, and he brought up in the Sixth Ward with the shafts, harness and two front wheels in good shape.

Mr. and Mrs. Heehinger walked to the streetcar terminus and came home by that route.

VENERABLE WOMAN.

Death of Mrs. Frances Lashbrooke, in Her Ninety-Sixth Year.

Mrs. Frances Lashbrooke died about 9 o'clock last evening at her home near Lewisburg. She was born June 3d, 1803, and was consequently in her 96th year.

She was the widow of the late Peter Lashbrooke, a soldier of the War of 1812, who died a few years ago at an advanced age. Surviving are two sons and a daughter—Messrs. James and Thomas Lashbrooke and Mrs. John B. Peters.

The funeral will take place from the residence at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, with services by the Rev. Cleon Keyes, and the interment will be in the Lashbrooke Burying ground.

SATURDAY NIGHT SHOOTING.

Officer Barney Stockdale Wins Jimmie Hasson, Jr., With a Shotgun.

There was a dance on Wall street between Front and Second Saturday night with the usual outcome.

Soon as the drunks began to ripen clubs were handed out and the real fun commenced. Officer Wallace took some man he didn't know to Jail, and that practically ended the ball.

A little later, however, James Hasson, Jr., got into a war of words with Officer Barney Stockdale, during which it is alleged he promised to add a few more bullets to the half dozen or more which Barney already carries in his body.

Barney heard this; and he went straightway to a neighboring armory where he has long kept a trusty shotgun.

Thus armed he fired across the street at Hasson, the charge taking effect in his thigh. Hasson was removed to his home, where he is likely to be confined for some time. His wound is not considered dangerous.

THE YOUNG MEN.

What the Maysville Y. M. C. A. is Doing For Their Betterment.

The record of another year in the work of the Maysville Young Men's Christian Association has closed. To what extent the lives of young men have been influenced for good we cannot fully know.

At the union meeting last night at the Christian Church a large crowd was present.

The report of the work of the Association for the past year showed that the various branches had been pushed by those in charge.

The report showed that the work for the sixteen months ending October 1st, 1898, has been $2,340. This includes the salary of General Secretary, Janitor, rent, fuel and light, reading-room material, printing and stationery, gymnasium supplies, and all incidentals. The receipts in memberships and subscriptions amount to $2,040, thus leaving an indebtedness of $300. To carry on the work which should be done this year, and to provide for the indebtedness of $300, an expenditure of $1,475 will be required. Of this amount $735 will be obtained from membership dues from the young men, leaving $740 to be subscribed by citizens who realize the importance of this work.

Mr. James T. Kackley has been elected President of the Association, and he requests the members of the Ladies' Committee and all other ladies interested in the work of the Association to meet at the Association Parlor this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Board of Directors, as announced last night, begins a canvass this morning for $700 in subscriptions. This amount, together with the membership dues, will provide for the work up to the end of the year ending June 1st, 1899.

The Association will be in charge of an experienced, General Secretary, who has been called and it is hoped will accept.
