NEWAY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Virginia will pass down tonight from Pittsburgh.

There was a slight rise in the Kanawha, but the Ohio is about stationary.

The W. J. Cummins passed down from Pittsburgh yesterday and will return tonight for that point.

The Henry M. Stanley will pass up tonight for Pomeroy and the W. F. Nibbet will pass down from that point.

There was a good rain at Pittsburgh Saturday, and as it will take only a slight amount of water to keep the river at a good boating stage, rivermen predict that much good luck.

The Queen City on her last trip down had three bridal parties aboard. Captain Agnew states that he hasn't made a trip with the boat so far this season without having at least two couples aboard.

THE DEAD PHILANTHROPIST.

The Last Tribute Paid to the Late Emile Bourcier at Louisville—There Was No Funeral Sermon.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—Christ Church cathedral was crowded Sunday afternoon with people of all classes who gathered there to pay a last tribute of respect to Emile Bourcier, the friend and benefactor of the rich as well as the poor. Services began at 3 o'clock, and were conducted by Rev. Charles E. Craik, D. D., dean of the cathedral. After the church services had ended the Knight Templar burial service was conducted. Col. Thomas H. Sherley was in charge of the service and was assisted by Dr. Craik, who is himself a templar. There was no funeral sermon, and the services were concluded with prayer by Dr. Craik. The procession which followed the body to the grave was a long one.

Half an Hour Afterward Switchman Brown Was Instantly Killed While Coupling Cars.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—Richard Brown, of this city, switchman for the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railroad, was almost instantly killed shortly after 10 o'clock Sunday night while coupling cars.

There is a peculiar incident connected with Brown's death. Shortly after going to work he entered the office at the yards and said to a number of fellow-workmen: "Boys, I want you all to be careful to-night, as I feel that somebody is going to be hurt, and I have a premonition that that somebody will be myself."

His death occurred about half an hour after the remark.

This, the primal chapter, has been named Henry Clay camp, No. 1. The following officers were elected for the first year: Commander, Col. Leonard; vice commander, Lieut. Col. Banks; adjutant and chief-of-staff, Capt. Davenny; treasurer, Col. Gunder. A ritual and regulations will be drafted at once.

Weights One Pound.

RICHMOND, Ky., Nov. 7.—The tiniest bit of humanity that ever saw light of day in this city is a girl baby just born to the wife of George Summa, who is employed at D. H. Myer's planing mill. RICHMOND, Ky., Nov. 7.—Florida Frazier, the three-year-old daughter of Lum Frazier, living with Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Porto Rico Publishers' Complaint.

SAN JUAN DE PORTO RICO, Nov. 7.—The recent ruling at Washington, refusing to local newspapers the right to pass in the mails as second-class matter, renders the tariff on the delivery of papers in the island so heavy that the subscription lists have been practically suspended.
