TWO VERDICTS. She was a woman, worn and thin. Whom the world condemned for a single sin: They cast her out on the King's highway And passed her by as they went to pray.

He was a man, and more to blame. But the world spared him a breath of shame. Beneath his feet he saw her lie, But raised his head and passed her by.

They were the people who went to pray At the Temple of God on a holy day. They scorned the woman, forgave the man, It were even thus since the world began.

Time passed on and the woman died. On the Cross of Shame she was crucified; But the world was stern and would not yield, And they buried her in potter's field.

The man died, too, and they buried him In a casket of cloth with a silver rim. And said, as they turned from his grave away, "We have buried an honest man today."

Two mortals knocking at Heaven's gate, Stood face to face to inquire their fate: He carried a passport with earthly sign, But she had a pardon from Love Divine.

O! ye who judge 'twixt virtue and vice, Which, think you, entered to Paradise? Not he who the world had said would win, For the woman alone was ushered in.

At the delightful home of J. R. Roberson of Mayslick Tuesday night was given a musical soiree, which was much enjoyed by a large gathering of their friends from the town and neighborhood. Miss Anna Martin of Maysville was the genius who directed the members, while Miss Kate Young and Miss Nora Clinger and Mr. Will Austin assisted in interpreting same. The home was beautifully decorated and at a stated hour delicious refreshments were served and conversation indulged in. The arrangement of the numbers, the ability of the artists and the blending tones of mandolin, guitar and piano gave a combination of harmonies which fairly entranced the audience and brought forth plenteous applause which made the scores many. It will long remain a pleasant memory and adds but another triumph to Miss Martin's genius.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
