MISS LOU POWLING.

Her Death Occurred This Morning at Her Home in This City.

The death of Miss Lou Powling occurred at 8 o'clock this morning at her home on West Second street.

Miss Powling had been failing in health for a period of seven years, the past six months being confined to her bed.

Deceased was the daughter of one of the pioneers of Maysville, and surviving is an only sister, Mrs. Rebecca Oridge.

Miss Powling was one of the best known ladies of this city, of a lovely Christian character, and her death will be deeply regretted.

The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the M. E. Church, South, with services by the Rev. J. W. Mitchell of Covington, assisted by the Rev. W. F. Taylor and the Rev. Howard T. Cree.

Interment private in the Maysville Cemetery, and by request of Miss Powling there will be no flowers.

THE BOARD OF COUNCIL Monthly Meeting of the City's Chosen Guardians.

Council met in regular session last evening, Mayor Stallcup in the chair.

The Mayor reported that he had collected during the past month $36.50 for licenses issued.

The report of the Police Judge was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Fines paid, Replevied, Worked out, Working out, F. B., Total fines assessed, and following are the number of arrests made by each Policeman during the past month.

The Wharfmaster reported net collections for the past month $41.72.

The report of the City Treasurer totals as below:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Balance, Receipts, Total, Expenses, Balance on hand, and report of the Claims and Accounts Committee.

Accounts to the amount of $73.80 were also allowed, and a bill of $12 for 12 trees from Mr. Elias Scudder was referred to Claims and Accounts Committee to act.

Mr. F. Devine asked that a reduction be made in the taxes on the property at Third and Limestone on account of the removal of the buildings. Referred to Proposition and Grievance Committee.

Mr. G. W. Sulser asked that Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson be exonerated from payment of taxes on the property lately purchased from Mr. George M. Clinger in the Sixth Ward. Referred to Mayor and City Attorney for investigation.

Building permits were granted as follows: Mr. A. R. Glascock, Third Ward, ice-house and warehouse in rear of Traxel property.

Mrs. A. Agnew, Fifth Ward, stable in rear of property. Ohio Valley Pulley Works, Sixth Ward, one-story frame warehouse.

Undah de Fawms ob Law

GIVEN THEIR OWN MEDICINE

And the Goebelites Don't Like the Dose Worth a Cent.

On October 2d last 'Squire W. H. Rice made a regular "killing" among the Lewisburg darkies.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Ad. Owens, Joe Price, John Henry Williams, Thomas Stockton, James Henry Tibbs, Ad. Edwards, William Thomas, Walter Stockton, Charles Lee, William Eton, Paris Jones, Charles Hathaway, Elzi Edwards, Ben Pleasant and Sam Parker were lined up before his Magisterial Majesty, one on a charge of "gambling" and fourteen for "shooting craps for money."

"Undah de fawms ob law!" 'Squire Rice is a clever fellow; and he didn't want the cool breezes of election day to toy with the chin whiskers of this sable gang; so he fined them $50 each, with $5 added for costs in each case—$825 in all! As none of the chaps had a contract under Tammany Hall, $825 was more than they could pay, and as a matter of $55 would keep them in Jail at public expense for 55 days, or until long after the election, it was decided to let it go at that!

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Everything went serenely until yesterday afternoon, when Attorneys A. E. Cole & Son, L. W. Galbraith and W. Henry Wadsworth sued out a writ of habeas corpus for the prisoners, returnable before County Judge Newell at 1:30—Circuit Judge Harbeson not being in the county.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" It was considerably after the appointed time when Judge Newell took the Bench and wanted to know what it all meant.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" County Attorney O'Donnell, 8 big lawbooks, Tom Wood, Judge Wall and John Whitaker appeared for the Comand-wealth, while the Attorneys before named represented the fifteen crappers.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" The latter Attorneys submitted a joint affidavit from their clients, setting forth that they didn't believe they could get a fair deal at the hands of Judge Newell; claiming that this was all that was necessary to cause his retirement from the Bench.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Thereupon Mr. O'Donnell and 1 of his 8 big lawbooks unlimbered to support his contention that the affidavit was insufficient, in that it didn't specify any whys, wherefores, nevertheless, notwithstanding, etc., &c., why they couldn't get a big chunk of justice in the Judge's Court—John Whitaker in the meantime, and Tom Wood and Judge Wall between times,—searching 4 more of the 8 big lawbooks for proof to prove that you can prove anything you want to prove from lawbooks.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" And John Whitaker and Tom Wood spoke, too.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" After chewing and rechewing the rag until it was ragged, the Attorneys for the crappists filed an amended joint affidavit, in which the essential whys, etc., was specified; and then Judge Newell exploded a cannon cracker which was heard clear down in the Police Judge's office.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" He demanded a separate affidavit in each case—fifteen of 'em—and he was relentless, yea, obdurate!

"Undah de fawms ob law!" It hadn't up to this time dawned on the Attorneys for the boneshakers that there was a scheme in the incubator to bunco them; but when Circuit Judge Harbeson came waltzing down the aisle and took his seat within the Bar, it was patent to all that the windy lawyers of the opposition had been playing a clever game.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Soon after Judge Harbeson entered the Courtroom Judge Newell made a regular Oily Jim McCreary speech—one of Jim Cantrill's "stump speeches"—to the colored crappies, in which he told 'em how they had mismeasured him, through their lawyers; and then he stepped down and out, with notice to the officer who returned the writ to him to return it now to the proper Judge—meaning Judge Harbeson—who would hear the case.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" But by direction of the Attorneys for the crappists, and in spite of Judge Newell's warning, Officer Harry Ori made return to Police Judge Wadsworth—who was sitting alongside Judge Harbeson—when Judge Wadsworth arose and said:

"Gentlemen, this is not my Forum; please come down stairs!"

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Judge Harbeson was among the first to get out of the Courtroom; and lawyers, clients and lookers-on followed thick and fast.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Soon Judge Wadsworth was on the Bench in the Police Court;

"Undah de fawms ob law!" And then came County Attorney O'Donnell with a "protest" and his 8 big lawbooks and John Whitaker some more.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Mr. O'Donnell read from the Code to show that Judge Wadsworth had no jurisdiction; and then he read from the Code.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Judge Wadsworth told him he was perfectly familiar with what he had read, and didn't want to hear it read again.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Mr. O'Donnell then read from the Code, and Judge Wadsworth again told him he didn't want him to read it some more.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" "Now, your Honor," said Mr. O'Donnell, "I want to acquaint you with the law;" and he began reading from the Code.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Just here Judge Wadsworth swiped the municipal desk with a baseball bat, knocking the feather-edge off the latter and a hole in the former.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" And Mr. O'Donnell sat down in disgust and a chair.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Then John Whitaker took a whack at things, and he split hairs and the atmosphere as though he was expecting the millennium to sail in on the tail end of his argument; but he said nothing, and finally he took a seat, and the crowd took relief.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" At the suggestion of the Attorneys for the 7-um-blers Jailor McIlvaine presented to the Court the mittimuses on which he held the prisoners, and also his response to the writ of habeas corpus;

"Undah de fawms ob law!" Whereupon Mr. Galbraith made a motion that the men be discharged from custody, as they were not held under a statutory offense.

"Undah de fawms ob law!" And Judge Wadsworth spake unto them—

"The prisoners are discharged." And everything was done "Under the forms of law!"

When Judge Harbeson, who was brought here post haste from his home at Flemingsburg, was asked why he didn't take charge of the case, he replied, with his well known frankness, that he had no jurisdiction under the circumstances, the writ having been issued and originally returned when he was absent from the county; and Judge Harbeson can give the jackleg lawyers of Maysville cards and spades and beat them to it every time.

AN IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE. To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a positive condition is easily cured by using Green's Fig Syrup. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all druggists.

WORDS OF WARNING!

What Green R. Keller, Democratic Editor, Says About Fraud.

The Hon. Green R. Keller, Editor of The Carlisle Mercury, and a leading Democratic politician of the state, in a letter from Frankfort to his paper under date of October 25th, 1900, gives this advice to those who attempt fraud at the coming election—

"There are a few words I want to say to my friends, if I have any. Keep your hands clean at the coming election. If you wish to enjoy the society of your family for the next four or five years. I cannot enter into a long explanation of what I mean, but if you fail to take my advice you will, in all probability, find out the full meaning to your sorrow. Now, don't misunderstand that I am going to interest myself in getting you into trouble, but I know there is going to be trouble if any wrong is done.

"I am just like a father who knows, having his son not to eat too many green apples on an empty stomach. Oftentime the boy thinks the father is an old, meddling fool, but when the pains strike him good and hard about the middle of the anatomy he has other ideas about things. No Democrat need fear to work for his party; but working for one's party does not mean doing wrong."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. The Difference in Cost!

Of thoroughly good, fashionable and serviceable clothes and shoes, such as bear "our" label, and inferior goods is not large enough to warrant you taking the risk attached to buying ordinary goods. The kind of clothes we sell are tailored by the same class of journeymen tailors as are employed by high-priced merchant tailors. Not a yard of fabric is used in these garments that has not been thoroughly tested for its textile strength and color fastness; therefore, we thoroughly endorse and guarantee all goods we sell, and say "money refunded" without argument if for any reason you are dissatisfied with your purchase.

Our Experience as Well as Yours!

Has proven that the kind of merchandise we sell is as near perfection as can be, and though they cost a little more than the other kinds, they are really the cheapest kind in the end. Our leaders in clothes are Stein-Bloch Co., Adler Bros. & Co., the best brands in the country.

In Shirts the Manhattan, Hanan Shoes Stetson Hats

All of these are the highest class of merchandise in their respective lines. THE HOME STORE. HECHINGER & CO.

Underwear... THE KIND YOU WANT

Whether you feel able to pay 25c or $1.50 per garment. Underwear in natural wool, camel's hair and a full stock of sanitary underwear—the latter very comfortable, fleece-lined and serviceable. It is none too soon to buy winter wear—it is to your advantage as stocks are unbroken. They will never be cheaper here—they cannot be cheaper elsewhere.

FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN!

Best values and a weight suitable for this climate. The prices are right for we bought early to secure ante-season discounts. And another thing—every garment was made in 1900—there is a freshness about them that careful ladies appreciate. Prevailing style of dress seems to demand close fitting under garments. Hence larger readiness with Union Suits (25c to $1.50) and Equestrian Tights ($1, $1.25). Women's Vests and Drawers, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1 each. Children's Union Suits, 15c to 50c, according to size.
