THE Bourbon News will in a few weeks have all its eight pages printed at home—a sure index of well-deserved prosperity.

THE Court of Appeals has reversed the judgment of the Kenton Circuit Court in the case of the Covington and Cincinnati Bridge Company against JAMES T. GOONIGHT. The action grew out of the remodeling of the bridge of appellant in 1898. GOONIGHT was injured and sued for $10,000. He received judgment for $9,000. The reversal is because the verdict was not justified by the evidence. The late WILLIAM GOEBEL represented the appellee; and WILLIE was the lad to "fix" things when a corporation was on one side and he had a fee of 50 or 60% of the amount recovered on the other.

THE notorious Goebel Law, which has been directly responsible for all of Kentucky's political trouble during the past two years, passed out of existence Sunday, and the new law adopted at the special meeting of the Legislature last fall has taken its place.

Now that the hated Goebel Law is actually stricken from the statute books all Kentuckians will breathe easier. While the new law is a great improvement over it, there is still much left to be desired in the way of an honest election law for Kentucky.

From the passage of the Goebel Law to its final passing away, every recent act of political lawlessness committed in Kentucky is directly traceable to it.

Editor and Mrs. M. F. Marsh are happy over the arrival of a new daughter at their home on Forest avenue.

About 250 Union coal shovellers on the Chesapeake and Ohio piers at Newport News, Va., are out on a strike, having quit work because of dissatisfaction with the present scale of wages.

"This Creole Gal of Mine" is possibly the song that made John J. Welch popular in the big-league vaudeville theaters of the country. Mr. Welch is still singing this popular rag-time ditty with the "Two Merry Tramps Co."

The L. and N. Railroad has officially informed the Board of Trade that it will make a one fare for the round trip from all points on this division for the Tobacco Fair. Tickets good for regular trains arriving and for the special train which leaves Maysville at 4:30 returning that day, February 22d. The tobacco growers will appreciate this concession, and every assurance is had of a big attendance from Central Kentucky.

Don't forget the Promenade Concert at the residence of Colonel and Mrs. M. C. Russell tomorrow night at 7:30; admission 25 cents, with refreshments. All goes to help the Y. M. C. A. The membership will meet at the rooms at 7 to go in a body. Let every young fellow feel it his solemn duty to be there, because it is solely for his benefit and pleasure that the effort is made to continue the Y. M. C. A. A delightful program has been arranged and the best talent in the city has volunteered.

After La Grippe—What?

RAKINGS

SURE TO BE.
Edith—Chappie is wearing a look of importance.
Lena—Yes, and it's a horrible misfit.

A DEFINITION.
Athletic Globe.
When a woman has a corn trimmed these days it is referred to as a surgical operation.

AND HE LIES ABOUT IT.
Chicago Times-Herald.
"What foolish questions people ask."
"Yes. When I get home at night my wife always wants to know if I have been thinking of her all day."

THE KENTUCKY VIEW.
Philadelphia Press.
"We can accomplish nothing in this world," said the man who was given to moralizing, "until the crooked is made straight."
"Well," replied the other, who was of convivial habit, "of course you would except the corkscrew."

IN HIS MIND.
Yonkers Statesman.
"Thought you said you had plowed that ten-acre field?" said the first farmer.
"No; I only said I was thinking about plowing it," said the second farmer.
"Oh, I see; you merely turned it over in your mind."

A SKEPTIC.
Indianapolis Press.
"Do you think," remarked the caller, "that the moon really has any influence on humanity?"
"No," said Mrs. Lushforth, with a pathetic little sigh. "I do not. If he got full only at the same time the moon did I think I would find life much less of a burden."

KEEPING DOWN THE SCORE.
Town Topics.
"Doctor," said the student of medicine to his teacher, "what should I do to prevent a patient from dying on my hands."
"As soon as you are convinced that the case is hopeless, be sure to recommend a change of climate."

THEY "SAVED" IT.
Baltimore American.
Robbs—Too bad about Nobbs. Lost all of his furniture because of a false alarm of fire at his house.
Dobbs—But, if there was no fire, how could his furniture be destroyed?
Nobbs—Well, you see, Nobbs lives in a suburban town where they have a volunteer fire department.

LAGRIFFE COUGHS often continue for months and sometimes lead to fatal results after the patient is supposed to have passed the danger point. Foley's Honey and Tar affords positive protection and security from these coughs. J. Jas. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co.

Whoever has suffered from piles knows how painful and troublesome they are. Tabler's Buckeye Eye Ointment is guaranteed to cure piles. Price 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

The heirs of Cyrus Mannin, who was run over and killed by a passenger train near Morehead last week, have filed suit for $20,000 damages against the C. and O. Railroad Company. A warrant charging murder has been issued for the arrest of Engineer O. N. Garr, who was running the train. It is charged that a passerby discovered the man on the track, then ran ahead and signaled the engineer in time for him to stop the train, but he did not do so.

Lingering La Grippe Cough.
G. Vaehrer, 157 Ogden street, Chicago, says: "My wife had a very severe case of la grippe, and it left her with a very bad cough. She tried a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it gave immediate relief. A 50-cent bottle cured her cough entirely." Price 25c and 50c. J. Jas. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co.

Happenings in Kentucky

THE TRIENNIAL CONCLAVE.

President McKinley Will Be Invited to Attend the Grand Encampment at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 24.—Mayor Charles P. Weaver, Postmaster T. H. Baker and Harry T. Jefferson started for Washington Wednesday night to carry to President McKinley a message from the executive committee of the 28th triennial convocation, Knights Templar, inviting him to attend the grand encampment session in Louisville August 27-30. The invitation is handsomely engrossed on vellum and signed by Chairman C. C. Vogt and Secretary Thomas C. Timberlake, of the executive committee.

The committee hopes for the acceptance of the invitation on the part of the president because the celebration falls at a period generally in a measure free from official duties and because President McKinley is a mason and a Knight Templar. The entrance of Mr. McKinley into masonic circles was surrounded by details that make it unusual. He was an officer of the federal army at the time and was stationed at Winchester, Va. One day while he was passing through a regimental hospital at Winchester he noticed a federal surgeon carefully attending to some of the confederate wounded and also that there was an exchange of favors between certain of the federal soldiers and their southern foes. When it was later explained to him by the surgeon that the men were brother masons, Maj. McKinley is said to have expressed a desire to join the order.

The records of Hiram Lodge No. 21, A. F. and A. M., of Winchester, Va., show that he took his first degree on May 1, 1865, and became a master mason on May 3. Only three men are now living who were present at the time. They are: W. R. Denny, of Nashville, Tenn., and George D. and G. S. Jenkins, of Winchester, Va. The president is a member of Canton commandery No. 38, of Ohio, Knights Templar, which he joined December 23, 1884.

ANOTHER TRAGEDY.

Guided By His Opponent's Voice, He Fired and It is Alleged, Killed Chandler.

Williamsburg, Ky., Jan. 24.—Another tragedy has been enacted in this county in the killing of John Chandler at Pine Knot. Chandler, with Rhodie Phillips, a man named Young and several others, were in a "blind tiger" and quarreled. Chandler and friends retreated from the place, leaving Young and Phillips inside. Threats to kill were made, and Phillips called to Chandler to know where he was. The latter replied with an oath that he was waiting for Phillips to appear. Phillips did so, armed with a Winchester, which it is charged, he leveled at the spot from whence Chandler's voice came and fired, killing his man.

A fusillade followed, after which Phillips and Young fled to Tennessee. Both were indicted for murder.

Fuqua Claims Victory.

Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 24.—The next encampment of the Kentucky state guard will be held in this city in August and September, says J. A. Fuqua, who, with Capt. J. Tandy Ellis, of Company C, has returned from Frankfort. Mr. Fuqua says the governor gave no positive promise, but that this city will get the encampment. Each of the three regiments will be here for two weeks.

Wedded His Stepmother.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 24.—William Graddy, an Adair county farmer, married his stepmother. One year ago Wednesday his father was kicked to death by a mule, and the handsome widow set the time for her second marriage on this date on that account.

All Clocks Stopped.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 24.—All the clocks and watches in the central part of the city stopped running at 7 o'clock Tuesday night. The cause of the phenomena has not been explained, though it is thought a slight earthquake shock caused it.

A New Colonel.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—The governor Wednesday afternoon appointed Harry G. Tandy a quartermaster on his staff, with the rank of colonel. Col. Tandy is from Paducah, and is at present assistant secretary of state.

Ended in Murder.

Taylorville, Ky., Jan. 24.—Presley Walker, jr., died Wednesday morning near Waterford from a wound received in a fight with Tom Hunter on January 5. Hunter was under bond, and Wednesday morning surrendered.

Lebanon Fire.

Lebanon, Ky., Jan. 24.—An early morning fire almost destroyed the big flouring mill of W. E. Markley & Sons. The loss is $25,000; insurance, $16,000.

Given Six Years.

Williamsburg, Ky., Jan. 24.—Jesse Cotton, charged with killing a Negro named Cunningham, was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary on Wednesday.

Deadlock Broken.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 24.—The democrats broke the deadlock in the board of councilmen Wednesday afternoon by electing Thomas A. Condit to the presidency on the 161st ballot.

CONVINCING PROOF.

The Average Maysville Citizen Must Accept the Following Proof.

The great Sir Isaac Newton, one of the most profound reasoners the world ever produced, once cut a large hole in board fence to allow a favorite cat access to two gardens and out a smaller hole to allow her kitten to follow her. The weakness manifested in Sir Isaac's action was due to want of thought. Any reader who mentally debates the proof offered here about Doan's Kidney Pills and arrives at any other conclusion is as short of reasoning powers as the philosopher when he turned carpenter:

Mr. John H. Fansler of 209 East Fourth street says:

"It is most pleasing to learn of a remedy which does all that is claimed for it when there are so many whose merits exist only on paper. I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a valuable and reliable kidney remedy and this fact is substantiated by ample proof by their personal use. I procured the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. FOSTER-MILBURN Co., Buffalo, N. Y., Sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.
