We have our place full of Granite and Marble Monuments and must make room for spring stock. So buy now and get our reduced prices. Murray & Thomas, 108 West Second street.

Mr. Noble Wrenchy is in the city trying to find a few old schoolmates and acquaintances. He left here forty-one years ago and has been making his home in late years at Charlotte, N. C.

R. W. Carpenter, a farmer and stock trader of Wallingford, Fleming county, has made an assignment. His liabilities are about $1,000, with assets less than the amount of exemption allowed by law.

Mr. E. J. Carpenter's production of "Quo Vadis" comes heralded by the press as the greatest scenic success on the road, and it has played to packed houses nightly. Washington Opera-house Tuesday evening, one night only.

The Merz Bros., having taken possession of the Bee Hive, will tomorrow begin one of the most sweeping sales of this drygoods house. As noted in their big ad in another space great reductions have been made on their present stock, and goods will be sold at prices never before made in this city. The new proprietors have taken hold of the business under very favorable auspices and doubtless have a successful career before them.

Special Request.

In answering advertisements appearing in the columns of this paper, or when buying goods from a merchant whose advertisement appears in this paper, our readers are especially requested to state that they saw the advertisement in THE PUBLIC LEDGER. This will not cost you anything, and it will be gratefully appreciated by both the advertiser and the Editor.

THE PIES THAT MOTHER MADE.

The apple pies that mother made, When I was but a boy, Their memory dear shall never fade, But live to give me joy. I see her now with paring steel And wooden rolling pin, I see her by the oven kneel And place them in a tin; And when she placed them out to cool, Ah, they were dear to me; They meant six days away from school, Besides the doctor's fee. -Chicago News.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Mr. Bishop has for years traveled for a New York dry goods firm and is one of the oldest and best known drummers on the road.

False Economy

Ask the Merchant who does not use the columns of "THE LEDGER" why he does not advertise, and nine times out of ten he will tell you that he can't afford it. Foolish man! Let him try the experiment; and unless all experience fail he will get his money back fourfold. Suppose you try it!

The marriage of Mr. J. A. Girvin of Helena and Miss Luta Willette of Johnson was solemnized yesterday at the residence of Rev. Stratton of the M. E. Church.

Mr. Girvin formerly resided in this city and is an industrious and popular young man. He is a brother of Mrs. J. Wesley Lee.

The bride is a highly respected and cultured lady of Fleming county. This worthy young couple have the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends.

The Best Promoter. The carefully prepared and well displayed advertisement is the most successful "promoter." It "sees" more people in one day than the average human promoter can interview in the whole of his professional career. It appeals to the reader directly and convincingly, and catches trade that could not be influenced by the most eloquent talker. The wise business man employs the most potential agent to strengthen and increase his business.

MISS ANNA MARTIN. Her Death Occurred Yesterday at Her Home in Clifton.

The news of the death of Miss Anna Martin, the well-known musician, which occurred about 1 o'clock yesterday, was a surprise to her many friends. Miss Martin had been ill only since Monday, suffering from nervous prostration.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Joseph Martin, and resided with her mother, Mrs. Henrietta Martin, in Clifton.

A brother, Mr. Joseph Martin, the furniture man, and one sister, Mrs. Bettie Yockey of Newport, survive. The funeral will occur from her late home at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with services by the Rev. F. W. Harrop of the M. E. Church. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

WANDERED FROM INFIRMARY

George Anderson, Colored, Picked Up Near the Tower-House.

George Anderson, colored, who has been an inmate of the County Infirmary for a week, wandered from his room last midnight, clad only in his underclothes.

He was found this morning by Superintendent Slattery at Wells & Coughlin's livery stable.

The crew of the C. and O. yard engine had found him near the Fairground Tower and taking him in charge brought him to the above-named stable.

The man was thought at first to be badly frozen but is now getting along all right.

Anderson was sent to the Infirmary from the Mayslick vicinity.

'Twas NIP AND TUCK.

Tigers and the Cyclones Each Took a Game Last Night.

The Fourth and Second Ward boys toed the line last night, and barring the head-and-tail of the respective sides there was a fine display of lobsterism. A game went to each side by these scores:

Table with 2 columns: Team Name and Score. Second Ward Cyclones: Judge C. D. Newell (150), J. C. Kackley (111), Thomas A. Davis (111), J. O. Pickersell (109), T. M. Russell (708).

Table with 2 columns: Team Name and Score. Fourth Ward Tigers: W. M. Archdewell (173), W. C. Watkins (158), Robert Ficklin (104), William Kinister (198), C. E. Fitt (254).

Table with 4 columns: Club Name, P, R, L, A. Standing of the Clubs: Fourth Ward (9, 9, 1, 77), Sixth Ward (3, 2, 3, 96), Second Ward (11, 2, 5, 545), Third Ward (9, 4, 3, 351), First Ward (7, 1, 0, 296).

STRIKES AND SPARES. In the ladies' games a day or so since Miss Johnson made a score of 153.

The ice has thinned out considerably in the Ohio below Pomeroy.

There are about 2,000,000 bushels of coal loaded and ready for shipment out of the Kanawha.

A Bridge Company wants to erect a 650-foot channel span bridge at Iron-ton, and rivermen object to it. Iron-ton is one of the worst places on the Ohio river for smoke.

There is a general scarcity of coal for steamboat purposes at Cincinnati and considerable anxiety is manifested by boat owners as to a future supply unless an unexpected rise comes sufficient to permit of new coal shipments.

It is unofficially stated that the Kanawha and Ohio Coal Company gave out a contract to a Marietta firm for the construction of a towboat to cost $25,000. It is to be completed in four months, and will be 150 feet long, 30 foot beam with 16-inch cylinders and 6-foot stroke. She will be modeled after the old Vulcan.

Beware of Quinines For Cataract That Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Cataract Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Cataract Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.
