

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.

WHAT HE WANTS.
She flees lots of fancy dishes
For the table. Yes,
That she is skilled in this respect
He's willing to confess.
But when he sits him down to eat,
Good food is what he wishes,
And not the fancy flowers and things
She painted on the dishes.
—Philadelphia Bulletin.

IF YOU have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

THE SMALLPOX SIT.

Two Cases Reported Yesterday—Remaining Ones Improving.

There were two new cases reported yesterday—Sallie Robinson, colored, living on Hord's Hill, and Mrs. Carter, white, whose home is at Third and Commerce.

The former was taken to the County Pest-house.

All of those heretofore reported are improving.

KNOCKED HIM OUT.

Colonel John Jenkins "Bothered" His Man Once Too Often.

J. D. Turner is employed by Long, West & Co. caring for their stock at the cattle pens attached to the Pogue Distillery.

Several days ago, according to Mr. Turner's statement, John Jenkins annoyed him, and he told him to keep away from the premises in the future.

Yesterday Jenkins put in his appearance again, armed with a jag and a rock and challenged Turner for battle.

The latter picked up a piece of brick and struck Jenkins in the face, putting him temporarily out of business.

His injuries are not thought to be serious.

Mr. Turner at once came to town and surrendered to Sheriff Roberson.

The trial was announced for 10 o'clock this morning before Squire Grant.

THAT'S THE LEDGER.

The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage says—
"A newspaper whose columns overflow with the advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as newspapers well patronized, and this power should be appreciated."

On next Tuesday the body of the late Superintendent Philip Deitsch will be taken from the vault and buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati, the Masonic Orders and the Police Department being represented during the final ceremonies.

It Is a Wonderful Array of Spring Garments We Place Before You This Season.

Most of them the productions of Rochester's best manufacturers. Every line of them confined to us. The quantities we yearly handle of these goods enable us to buy them at prices that afford us to sell them at perhaps a shade cheaper than you have to pay for clothing that does not compare with ours. You owe it to yourself to look at our clothing before you buy your spring outfit.

Our Shirt Stock will be found a revelation. Look in our West window. Said a gentleman a day or two since who bought them with privilege of returning them if they did not fit, "Mr. Hechinger, I usually have my shirts made to order, but never was as well fitted as in these." We have such confidence in our Shirts that we sell them on approval. If fit unsatisfactory return them and get your money back.

YOU SOON WILL DISCARD YOUR WINTER SHOES.

Try a pair of our new Douglas or Hanan Shoes. Our stock is now at its best in both lines. You know we guarantee every pair.

Have you seen Stetson's newest designs in Spring Hats? If you have not come in and let us show them to you. They range from $3 to $5.

Let us show you the very newest fads in Fancy Vests. They are going to be very popular. Your wardrobe is not complete without one.

THE HOME STORE. D. HECHINGER & CO.

An Early Spring!

Has brought the new shoe styles sooner than usual. They are here in ample variety for men, women and children, and come in snappy spring styles from the world's leading makers at prices to suit everybody. Seasonable display of the most exclusive lines, among which are the following:

FOR WOMEN. Dorothy Dodd, John Kelley, Smaltz Goodwin, Julian & Kokenge, Duttenhofer.	FOR MEN. Walk-Over, Nettleton, Tilt's.
FOR MISSES. Moloney Bros. of Rochester.	FOR THE LITTLE FELLOWS. "Good for Bad Boys."
