First went the front fence, and now the grandstand's gone; and soon the East End Ball Park will be but a memory. Thus Maysville progresses backward.

Mr. William G. Heiser and family left Thursday morning for Greensburg, Ind., where Mr. Heiser has engaged in the wholesale grocery business. Will's friends here wish him success in his new home.

Too many goods induces us to make a great reduction in price on lines of gold and gold filled watches, diamonds, sterling silver spoons and forks, cut glass, etc.

MURPHY, the Jeweler.

John Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wadsworth, was a few days ago accidentally cut on the cheek by a scythe in the hands of a workman engaged in cutting grass on his father's place. We are pleased to state that the little fellow's injury was only slight.

The premiums in every department of the Maysville Elks Fair, August 19th to 23d, have been increased and many new ones added. The premiums offered amount to nearly $1,500, and include several rings for a premium of $100 and a number of $25 rings. This should attract the best of Kentucky's thoroughbreds.

The real estate belonging to W. W. Thomas, near the corner of Elberston and Purcell avenues, Price Hill, Cincinnati, was sold Wednesday to satisfy the judgments obtained against him by the insurance companies. There were two pieces of land appraised at $400 and $150, respectively, and they were bid in two-thirds of that amount.

Miss Katherine Mendell entertained Wednesday with a picnic in Burgoyne's woods in honor of Miss Carrie Knapp of Newark, N. J., who is the charming guest of Miss Katherine Schwartz. Among those present were Mrs. Charles Young, Mrs. James Childs, Miss Carrie Knapp, Katherine Schwartz, Katherine Mendell, Edna Linn Bandal, Albert Helmer, Viola Helmer, Nona Alberton Miller and Bertha Spott.

Mr. Stone of Carthage, Mo., now in our city, has in his possession two pieces of antiquity in the form of two Continental bills, one $3 of 1777 date and a $3 bill of 1776. They are 3 1/2 x 5 1/2 in size, and were secured from an old citizen of Salisbury, N. C., who said they were heirlooms handed down by his fore-parents. One is stained, said to be blood of a Continental soldier. They bear the imprint of Hall and Sellers, printers. The printing is dimmed by age, but it states that it is redeemable in Mexican silver.

Cartnell extracts teeth without pain.

Mrs. Sallie Baldwin and daughter, Mrs. Fannie Geisel, Miss Edith Berry, Miss Florence Darnall, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Tilton and Miss Lottie Kirk are Maysville's campers at Parks Hill.

There have been some marked improvements at the Fairgrounds, made by the Elks. That old eyesore of a judge's stand, which was an obstruction, destroying the view from the Amphitheater to the track, has been removed, the bandstand has been more than doubled in size, a new ticket office has been provided, and the Secretary's office has been fitted up under a portion of the grandstand.

HAVE COME TO TERMS!

The Famous Marshall Will Case Compromised at Augusta.

At the end of one expensive lawsuit to break the will of the late Hon. Thornton F. Marshall of Augusta, the case has been compromised.

Of the estate of about $105,000, the daughter, Mrs. Lou Marshall, receives $67,500.

The beneficiaries of the will get the remaining $37,500, to be prorated.

Of the latter sum, the city of Augusta will get about $10,000, and the Augusta Public School District $1,200.

SUDDENLY CALLED!

Mrs. Charlotte Lewis Died Yesterday at Her Hord's Hill Home.

Charlotte, wife of Edward Lewis, died suddenly at her home on Hord's Hill last evening at 7:30 o'clock.

She was in good health, and was finishing a day's washing. She had just completed the last piece and was hanging it on the line when she fell to the ground, and was carried to a couch, where she expired in a few minutes.

She was 24 years old, and leaves a husband and one child, aged 2 years.

She was much liked by her neighbors, who speak well of her as a good woman.

ROUSING RECEPTION!

The Rev. Howard T. Cree Had a Warm Welcome Yesterday.

If numbers and enthusiasm count, then the Rev. Howard T. Cree, wife and baby must have been highly gratified at the reception tendered them yesterday at the C. and O. Station on their arrival here on a visit to friends—and that includes everybody.

Not the least important personage was the baby, which was taken charge of by Major Means, but whether it was to protect it from the kisses and hugs that all seemed willing to bestow or to act as wet nurse the Scribe was unable to find out. The Major filled the bill in taking care of the baby, however.

BITTEN BY BULLDOG!

Inoffensive Colored Boy Attacked and Injured Last Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon about half-past 1 o'clock William Jimmeson, a colored boy aged 15 years, living in the Fifth Ward, was sitting on the steps of the First National Bank fondling Colonel George S. Rosser's pet dog.

A number of the Murray Comedy Company passed, and following them was a bulldog that attacked the colored boy, biting and lacerating his hand in a fearful manner.

They passed on to the Opera-house where they are rehearsing for the opening during week of Elks Fair.

Their attention being called to the condition of the boy's hand they had him sent to the office of Dr. Yazel who gave it proper treatment.

MORGAN'S MEN.

Will Hold a Reunion at Parks Hill August 18th, 19th, 20th.

The reunion of Morgan's Men, to be held at Parks Hill on August 18th, 19th and 20th, will be an occasion of great interest to all who wore the gray.

Among the Committee of Arrangements we note the name of our fellow-townsmen John W. Boulden of the First National Bank.

Eminent speakers will be present, such as the silver-tongued orator, W. C. P. Breckinridge, whose power as a speaker is well known to our citizens, Basil W. Duke and John B. Castleman.

Joseph E. Johnston Camp No. 442 of this city will probably go as a body, the members of which are as follows—

The report that Mr. J. C. Cablish, Jr., of Market street had purchased a grocery and would move to Portsmouth was incorrect. Mr. Cablish intends to remain in Maysville and to continue business at his old stand.

MURRAY & THOMAS.

Dr. James Butchart, a former well known practitioner of Dover, was married Saturday, July 11th, at Shanghai, China, to Miss Nellie Daugherty, a Missionary in that country. Dr. Butchart has also been doing mission work there for the past twelve years.

Captain C. C. Calhoun, who is in Washington representing the state of Kentucky in the prosecution of war claims, has taken an appeal to the Controller of the Treasury on the Fourth Kentucky Regiment claim for pay from date of enrollment to the date of muster in, involving between $50,000 and $60,000.

CORSETS...

Summer ease and comfort are represented by these corsets and in no article of dress is comfort more essential than in corsets. In the past fastidious women shunned 50c corsets and one or two models fully supplied the demand. Now we have fifteen different styles at that price. Economical women find them best for summer wear. Thin gowns demand spotless corsets and when use or perspiration dims the freshness, it is easier to replace a 50c corset than a higher priced one. The models, workmanship and materials have wonderfully improved. The old-fashioned net is entirely superseded by thin batiste and all the popular models for full and slender figures can be found among 50c corsets. Some have hose supporters attached.

Women's Silk Gloves at 50c.

These are pure silk Kayser tipped gloves made to sell at one dollar and now reduced to 50c. They are elbow length in two styles, two colors, black and white and all sizes. They launder without the least shrinkage, without getting sleazy—and the white gloves do not "yellow." This is not hearsay—we have tested a pair of gloves with soap and water and speak by the light of experience.

The very texture of the cloth suggests kimonas and matinees and wrappers and house gowns and all the easy garments that help make life lazy and "comfy" and worth living in hot weather.
