Congressman Kehoe Now Has No Opposition For Renomination

One of the results of the recent Democratic Convention at Louisville is the withdrawal of Judge L. E. Mann of Morehead as an aspirant for Congressional honors in this District.

This leaves Mr. Kehoe without opposition for the nomination. It will be recalled that the Convention named Judge Mann as one of the Alternates from this District to the St. Louis Convention.

A CONTINUAL STRAIN.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mr. Maurice Kirk entertained in a delightful manner Saturday night at the hospitable and elegant home of his sister, Mrs. W. N. Steckton, in West Third street.

The large double parlors were thrown open and about forty of the younger set tripped the light fantastic to the enchanting music furnished by Professor Bullett and Miss Berry.

Miss Ellen Kirk entertained with a hayride, chaperoned by Miss Fanny Frazee and Mr. Gordon Sulser, and at 8 o'clock joined the party given by her brother, where refreshments were served.

The yard presented a beautiful appearance with the variegated Japanese lanterns that lighted up the spacious grounds.
