Mrs. John Gleason of Front street will entertain this evening in honor of her guest, Miss Katherine McDonough of Cincinnati.

A crowd of about twenty-five surprised Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ort at their home in West Fourth street last evening.

It was the tenth anniversary of their wedding and their friends came to happily observe the event. Nothing was left undone to make the evening a pleasant social affair, and the guests, as well as host and hostess, thoroughly enjoyed the informal anniversary celebration.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

An adjourned meeting of Council was held last evening, all members being present and Mayor Stalleup presiding.

George Schroeder was refunded $1.65 erroneously assessed as head tax in the Sixth Ward.

The report of the Ways and Means Committee was adopted as read, placing Banks and franchise tax at 80c on the $100.

The following is the increased tax above that as returned by the Assessor—

Banks and Union Trust Co.	$114,825 00
Franchises	65,224 00
Unassessed property	6,200 00
C. and O. and L. and N. tangible property tax	73,500 00
Total	$259,749 00

The above increase at $1.25 per hundred produces $3,245.61, which will form a basis upon which the Sixth Ward Sewer can be constructed.

LOCAL FREIGHTS

Change of Terminals on the Cincinnati Division of C. and O.

Beginning this morning an important change was made in the schedule of local freights on this Division of the C. and O.

Hitherto Maysville and Russell have been terminals for these trains, but now no more locals will be sent out from this city.

The runs will be from Covington to Garrison, from which point freight will be transferred to Eastern places on trains which will make connection with the locals there.

Maysville loses by this change the two local freight crews who have made this place their home.

Cincinnati Banks will furnish about $15,000,000 of the money which will go into the pockets of the farmers in Southern Ohio and vicinity for their crops.

AMONG the SILKS

Have you seen the Silks you can buy here for 35c yd? They represent thorough-going economies, the kind to delight thrifty women, and the silks are as desirable in pattern and color as though they commanded full price. Now is clearly the time to pay attention to the weak spots in one's wardrobe, rather than later when these savings are no longer possible. An infrequent opportunity are 69c, 75c AND $1 SILKS FOR 39c.

PRETTY WRIST BAGS for $1. In smart new shapes, well finished, made of grain walrus, in black, gray, tan, brown, nicely lined, inside pocket, double frames and catches. You will find them handsomer than the bags usually priced at $1.

FOR SCHOOL DRESSES. Brightly colored, cheerful, attractive all wool checks and mixtures, firm and sturdy, and just right for making enduring school frocks for the little Miss. They are 40 in. wide and in a dozen pretty color combinations. Just unboxed, newest fall goods only 50c yard.
