THERE are a number of able Democratic lawyers in this Appellate District who have not been bitten by the Goebel Mad Dog, either of whom would make a good Judge.

THE practice of raising $5 bills to the $20 denomination is reported throughout this section of the country, and business men are being warned of these operations—Ashland Independent.

Ah—er—may I ask where you get the “fives” to work on?

DEAR old Louisville is now wrestling vigorously with her municipally owned Waterworks, having commissioned a lot of experts to find out what the matter is with them. Of such is the kingdom of the political pull.

WHEN a young millionaire killed a man in New York a few days ago, the police actually placed handcuffs on him, and he was carted off to prison just as though he had been a poor Editor. Such an oversight calls for the severest reproof.

THE fact that from March 21st to April 16th Governor PATTISON was delirious is being made the basis of a claim that the legislation enacted between March 21st and April 2d, the date the Ohio Legislature adjourned, is null and void. This is another instance of Ohio's fool luck. How much better off every state would be if something would only happen to nullify about eleven-tenths of the silly and unnecessary laws that are passed by hayseed Legislators and scheming politicians.

THE way of the Contractor has gone to join the way of the other transgressor. No man should undertake work about which he knows nothing; but if he does know how to do it, and doesn't do it right, he should get all that is coming to him in the way of penalty.

ORGANIZED labor has succeeded in its requests of the present session of Congress to the extent of securing the enactment of what is known as the Employers' Liability Bill. This enactment will make it possible for an employe to secure damages for his injury, notwithstanding his own negligence may have been in part responsible for that injury. And yet that piece of legislation isn't any more lop-sided than the Kentucky Court of Appeals, which made an Electric Light Company pay for the death of a boy who monkeyed with a live wire belonging to a Streetcar Company, simply because the Streetcar Company bought the electric power from the Electric Light Company.

BUT THEY NEVER CAME BACK.

In a rural town in an adjoining jurisdiction there lives an old lady who is the possessor of an economical disposition and two prepossessing daughters, who are belles of the town, says a writer in The Buffalo Times. Not long ago, on a Sunday afternoon, two youths with a decided liking for pretty girls drove out to see these two fair damsels. They were cordially received, delightfully entertained, and when supper time came invited to partake of the evening meal.

Supper over, they still lingered. Bed time came, they still tarried. The old lady, used to early hours, went to bed at 9 o'clock, but the two young men found no fault with that.

Waking from a sleep of several hours, and seeing a light still burning, the old lady called:

“Matilda!”
“Yes, mother.”
“Have the boys gone?”
The boys, with nods and pantomime, besought Matilda to answer in the affirmative, so the daughter answered again:
“Yes, mother.”
“Matilda!”
“Well, mother?”
“Wasn't them two boys hogs for butter?”

Frank Jones and wife are now snugly domiciled at their old home, corner Second and Union streets.

EMMONS—ZIMMERMAN; COLLIVER—ZIMMERMAN.

The parlor of the Kentucky Hotel yesterday afternoon was the scene of a double wedding, and by the way, it seems very popular with up country folks matrimonially bent, as this is the third couple married there in the last three weeks.

The contracting parties were Mr. Herman Emmons, aged 20, and Miss Lucille Zimmerman, aged 16; Morton Colliver, aged 28, and Miss Maude Zimmerman, aged 21, of Poplar Plains, Fleming county. They were accompanied by Mr. Earl Colliver and Miss Stella Walton. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. A. Cave of the Christian Church.

After taking in the sights of the city they visited Aberdeen, the former Gretna Green of America, in lieu of a bridal trip to the seashore; They left this morning for home.

SORRIES—SMALL.

The marriage of Mr. Augustus Sorries and Miss Gertrude Small was solemnized in the parlor of the Rev. Father P. M. Jones, the officiating clergyman, yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Miss Anna O'Harran was bridesmaid, while Mr. Augustus Kuepferle served the groom as best man. The impressive and solemn ceremony was witnessed by a few intimate friends, who joined the Minister in extending congratulations and best wishes for a happy married life. Owing to the illness of the bride's sister an extended bridal trip is postponed. They will reside in Aberdeen in a home already prepared by the groom.

GOLE—WRIGHT.

Mr. Julius Cole of Johnson Junction and Miss Lizzie Wright of East Fourth street were married in Covington yesterday.

Mr. Cole is a prosperous merchant and a clever gentleman, while the bride is one of this city's most popular and worthy young ladies.

Ex-Governor Morrill of Kansas is part owner of an 800-acre orchard in Wallula, where 50,000 trees are expected to bear this year, and he expects to make about $1 net from each tree in case the season is good.

Mt. Vernon, the home of George Washington, was built (of wood) by his brother, Lawrence Washington, in 1743, but was enlarged and improved by George Washington. The property was finally inherited by Bushrod Washington, nephew of George Washington, and later by John A. Washington, son of Bushrod, who sold the property in 1858 to the Mt. Vernon Ladies Association, who now holds it in trust for the people of the Nation. John A. Washington was a Lieutenant-Colonel on the staff of General Robert E. Lee and was killed at the battle of Rich Mountain in 1861.
