Miss Janie Fleming is able to be out after several weeks illness.

You can't help things by going over to the enemy. Vote for Bennett.

Mrs. A. A. Wheeler has moved into Prof. W. T. Berry's property in West Fourth street.

By direction of United States District Attorney Tinsley capias will be issued for Messrs. C. B. and B. B. Poyntz, who were indicted at Covington by the last Federal Grand Jury.

At Ewing the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gray died of diphtheria Friday night. This makes the fifth death from that disease, and the neighborhood schools are nearly all closed.

We are showing a new line of back combs, barrettes, brooches and pins, hat pins, scarf pins, cuffbuttons, etc. With every dollar's worth of goods we give a ticket on the elegant "Diamond Ring."

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

In the Mayor's office Saturday night Councilman Russell dispensed among the city's employes $1,540.80. If the weather continues favorable this week a large force of hands will be employed and the pay roll next Saturday is likely to be equally as large. The work is being vigorously pushed.

What promises to be the most sensational suit in many years was filed at Paris Saturday by Mrs. Daisy Boone Botts of Lexington against Sarah and Louis Woolstein of Paris for $25,000 damages. The Woolsteins accused Mrs. Botts of stealing a lot of diamonds while she was a guest at their house.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The happy home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Busby was the scene of a most enjoyable affair on last Friday evening, it being the occasion of Mrs. Busby's and her charming little daughter Nannie's birthday. Those present from a distance were Rev. and Mrs. Roseberry of Sardis, Miss Hill of Germantown, Mr. Arsmith of Flemingsburg, Rev. and Mrs. Lee, Pastor of Second M. E. Church, South, of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wells, Mrs. James Pollitt, Mrs. August Hauck and sisters, Misses May and Maggie Fristoe, Miss Lizzie Fleming, Mrs. George Bierley, Miss Mabel Davis, Mr. Harry Bradley and 33 children.

Delicious refreshments were served and all departed wishing them many happy returns of the day.

HARVEST HOME

Beautiful Services Yesterday at the Third Street M. E. Church

The Harvest Home services at the Third Street M. E. Church yesterday were a decided success in every particular.

The members and friends of this Church regard Harvest Home as one of the best services of the year, and each year seems to improve on the one previous.

This being an especially fruitful year, the decorating committee were able to make a profuse display of the fruit of the field, garden and orchard, and the scheme of decoration was carried out in a very tasteful manner, so that the old Church presented an appearance that would bring a song of joy and praise into the heart of anyone who looked upon it.

To Mr. John Walsh, Chairman of the Committee on Decorations, much praise is due for the plan and success of the decorations.

The services, both morning and evening, were largely attended, by not only the local congregation, but by members from other Churches.

The Pastor, Rev. G. W. Bunton, was at his best, and delivered two of the best sermons of his ministry at these services. The sermons were in harmony with the occasion, and by his earnestness and eloquence he impressed his hearers with many practical points on the law of the harvest and the surety that "whatsoever we sow that shall we also reap."

The chorus choir was at its best and very effectively rendered the beautiful anthems of Praise and Thanksgiving.

Altogether, it was a day that will live in joyful remembrance and every one will be able to more fully appreciate the wonderful and lavish manner with which the Heavenly Father bestows his blessings.

Personal

Mr. Albert Perrault of Minerva Sundayed as usual in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Roberts spent yesterday in Manchester.

Mr. Charles Kennedy and Miss Lillie Mingua of Kennard were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. James Breeze of East Fourth street.

Mrs. Lester Wilson, who, owing to the illness of her mother, has spent the past several months in St. Louis, returned home this morning.

CLARENCE HOMER STOCKDALE.

Clarence Homer Stockdale died Saturday evening at 8:45 o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Harney, in East Second street, Sixth Ward, of consumption, aged 36 years and 7 months.

The funeral will take place from the home this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with services by the Rev. G. W. Bunton of the Third Street M. E. Church.

Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

SLICK TRICK

How a Colored Man Attempted to "Work" a Grocer

Something new in the way of beating the unwary out of their hard earned cash turns up every day. The latest development in that line is a dandy, and is liable to work successfully in nine cases out of ten. It is a regular get-rich-quick scheme, and provided you can do the flim-flam act and avoid detection your fortune is in sight.

Some of the great modern inventions of the day have been the result of pure accident, and in this case the fellow who perpetrated the act of "now you see it and now you don't," avows by all that is good that he had no evil intent and that the queer result following the transaction was as much a mystery to him as to the gentleman upon whom it was worked.

One day last week a colored man entered P. Gantley's store in Plum street, walked up to the counter and laying down a paper dollar bill, bought five cents worth of pears, receiving in change ninety-five cents. In a few minutes he called for five cents worth of cigars, at same time offering a silver dollar and requesting Mr. Gantley to return him the paper dollar as he wished to send it away in a letter, and to take the change out of the silver dollar.

After the transaction had been completed and the colored financier gone his way the manipulator of weights and measures began evolving the matter over in his mind. After scratching his head a dozen times and playing a financial game of checkers with his brain his eyes opened to the fact that he had been hoodooed out of ninety cents in cash.

He was not long in hunting up the Napoleon of finance and demanding the return of his money. At first he denied that there was a mistake in the change received, but when threatened with arrest he dug down in his jeans and forked over the difference. He protested his innocence of any evil design, however.

Halloween Novelties at Traxel's.

Miss Lisle Collics, formerly of this city, is now a member of the Delta Sigma Chi at Norwood, Cincinnati.

Jacob Mitchell, colored, who was charged with the murder of Engineer Thomas Fleming at Latonia some time ago, and whose arrest was instigated by officers in this city, was tried last week in the Covington Court and given seven years in the Penitentiary. Mitchell was ably defended by Lawyer John E. Shepard, formerly a student in the Maysville High School and a son of Rev. E. L. Shepard, who at the time was Pastor of the Third Street M. E. Church. The young barrister was complimented by the older members of the Bar for the capable manner in which he handled his case. Mr. Shepard's schoolmates and friends here are very much pleased to note his success in his chosen profession.

LEADERSHIP IN ALL FLOUR

MARTIN HANLEY.

Bennett and Business. Vote for both.

Mrs. M. Archdeacon has just returned from Cincinnati, where she selected a new line of the latest conceptions in Millinery—the most stylish shown this season. Call and see the new hats, veils, etc.

Mr. Cy Waite, the clever, genial gentleman in charge of the office at the American Tobacco plant in the East End, has been transferred from this city to a more important and lucrative position at Carrollton. His departure will be much regretted by a wide circle of friends here. He will leave about the 15th of November.

LAST NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

All those who have not paid their taxes by October 31st, 1906, are hereby notified that a penalty of 6% will be added, and your name and amount of taxes due will be reported to the County Clerk, and your property advertised and sold to pay taxes, penalty, interest and costs.

Dr. E. L. Poewell of Louisville begins a protracted meeting this evening at the Christian Church in Cynthiana.

In St. Louis eight grandsons were pallbearers at the funeral of Mrs. Rebecca C. Botts, a native of Greenup, and member of the well-known Krump family of Kentucky. She left 20 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

The first test of the Federal Eight Hour Day Law ended in a victory for the Government. After being out only fifteen minutes a Jury in the United States Court at Cincinnati found the Sheridan-Kirk Contracting Company guilty of violating the law in the construction of the big Ohio River Dam at Fernbank. The law provides for a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Your Kind of Suits.
The new Wooltex Suits are natty in the extreme, and yet distinctly "lady" clothes—the clothes for women of taste and fashion-judgment. There are models to suit every individual taste and figure. You can make a selection from our stock—with the certainty that the suit will be absolutely right style and right price at any figure on the list from $10 to $40.

Coats for Girls.
Look where you will you cannot find more attractive garments for your little girls than in this splendid line of Wooltex Coats. The fabrics are tested chemically for any adulteration or impurity. Every garment is examined minutely, that no defect in workmanship may pass unnoticed. And when the garment bears the Wooltex label, we guarantee it fully—its style—its material—its trimming and its tailoring. All prices between $5 and $15. Alterations as carefully made as in women's coats.

Some Popular Dress Goods
Seasonable, serviceable, highly desirable is this French Serge in black and colors; all wool, 45 inches wide and only 75c yard.

Roosevelt Bears!

TEDDY B. and TEDDY G.

The greatest book for boys and girls that has ever been written. Edited by Seymour Eaton, the man that created the idea of the Booklovers' Library. We have the Maysville agency, and we show it today, possibly the first place it has been shown in the State of Kentucky. It is profusely illustrated, and will make the finest Christmas gift you can give the young people. Worth $1.50.

OUR PRICE $1.10.
Bring the little folks to see the bears.

KINGS OF LOW PRICES. MERZ BROS. PROPS. BEE HIVE.

Two Roosevelt Bears had a home out West in a big ravine near a mountain crest. Where they ate their meals and took their rest, and gathered strength and sunshine and cheer and welcomed friends from far and near. They chopped down trees and hunters dared, and bossed their ranch and panthers scared, and preached to goats and big horned sheep, and ordered that they the laws should keep. They boxed with chums and umpired strife and generally led a strenuous life. One bear was black and one was gray. Each was good, and neither would say A swear word loud either night or day. In love and learning they were both alike; They could run a motor or hike a bike, Or drive a hansom as good as Mike, Or sit at dinner with the smartest set, Or talk in a 'phone or dance or bet, Or send wireless messages from tree to tree, Or copy the styles like you and me. These things they learned from papers lost By weary travelers as the hills they crossed.
