RARE OLD COAT

Mr. B. D. Strode Has Valuable Garment in His Possession

Lexington Leader.

A rare old coat, which belongs to Mr. B. D. Strode of Mayville, is now on exhibition in the show-window of C. E. Davis Tailoring Company at 116 East Main street and will be left there for a week or ten days.

The coat was first worn by Samuel S. Strode, who was Mr. B. D. Strode's great grandfather and one of the first men who settled in Kentucky, at his wedding, which took place 100 years ago at Mayville, Ky. The coat is a dark blue and contains the family coat of arms on each side and is a rare relic.

Mr. Strode said the State has offered a goodly sum of money for the coat, but he does not care to part with it.

Navajo Indian Gives Reason for Savagery at Cincinnati Depot

Angered at not receiving any satisfaction from the Great White Father at Washington, to whom he had gone to confer on Tribal matters, and brooding over the theft of his overcoat and $100 on the train, were the reasons assigned by Chief Egwodi, the Navajo Indian, for stabbing three white people in the Central Union Station at Cincinnati Sunday week to Father Juvenile of the Mount Airy Monastery, who called to see the Red Man at the County Jail in Cincinnati.

Father Juvenile, who has lived among the Indians of New Mexico for twenty years, had a hard time understanding the Indian's story, but managed to learn some of his tale.

The Chief said his name is Hastqui Egwodi, and not Beoddy. He said he had remained silent because he thought he was among enemies.

Mrs. Devord, who was stabbed by the Indian, has had a turn for the worse and her physicians entertain fears for her recovery. Martinus Mayor, the other victim, is improving.

DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Advice

Never neglect your kidneys.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stubborn cases in this vicinity.

Can Mayville residents demand further proof than that contained in the following testimonial?

Mrs. Mary C. Evans, Vanceburg, Ky., says: "I had troubles by disordered kidneys for fifteen years. My back was very lame and I suffered from a great many other symptoms of kidney trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me more than anything I had previously used and I am therefore pleased to recommend this medicine to other sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
