GENE FROM RILEY.
He was warned against the woman,
She was warned against the man,
And if that won't make a wedding
Why there's nothing else that can.

The sweetest things we ever know
Are plagiarized from Long Ago.

Now love is as cunning a little thing
As a humming bird upon the wing,
And as liable to poke his nose
Just where folks would least suppose.

And it's the man who does his best
What gets more kicks than all the rest.

With the idea that all coal is alike, it isn't by a great deal. For instance, our coal is clean and entirely free from stones or slate. Every lump of it means a lump of good heat. Doesn't clog up your range or furnace. Doesn't take all day to get burning, either. You ought to have some.

A smile is a beautiful boomerang. It goes out and cheers the folks around you and then comes back and helps you forty times as much as all the others put together.

MARRIAGES

JOHNSON-SHIELDS; M'KENNIE SHIELDS.
There was a double wedding last evening at the Montgomery Hotel in West Second street, the contracting parties being Mr. Roy Johnson and Miss Iis Shields and Mr. Thomas McKennie and Miss Hattie Shields of Robertson county. The brides were sisters. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. F. Chatham, Pastor of the First M. E. Church, South.

The war of wealth is acute when a woman attempts to outdress her neighbor.

Snow covers the Virginias to a depth of from 2 to 5 feet. Conditions are favorable for tremendous flood in Ohio river next month.

Traffic over the C. and O. and the L. and N. was greatly retarded by the heavy snow. No. 1 or 6:10, on the C. and O., was five hours late yesterday. All railway schedules were knocked out.

The will of J. H. Rice, deceased, was produced in Court yesterday and the handwriting of the same proved by the testimony of H. C. Sharp and William Luttrell and admitted to probate. The will was in the handwriting of the deceased and was dated February 15 h, 1896.

Last night Mr. Thomas Brannon's family in Plum street was aroused by several gunshot reports, and Mr. Brannon going to the window, raising the sash and looking out, discovered several men in his yard, armed with shot guns, which they pointed up at the windows. The men then left. What did it mean?
