Still at His Old Tricks

Yesterday Colonel R. R. Lovel received a letter from a Richmond, Ky., firm stating that a check worker had passed a check in that city using the Colonel's good name to negotiate the worthless paper. This fellow is evidently a slick "Jim-the-Poorman," and should be headed off as quickly as possible.

HON. HENRY L. NEWELL

One of Maysville's Honored and Beloved Citizens Passes Away

After a well-spent life, loved and revered by the entire community, Hon. Henry L. Newell passed into eternal sleep last afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at his home in Limestone street, after a protracted illness, aged 75 years.

Henry L. Newell, son of Hans Newell and Elizabeth Loughridge Newell, was born in Maysville, Ky., September 27th, 1836. Hans Newell born at Belfast, Ireland, in the year 1803, and Elizabeth Loughridge, his wife, was born in Tyrone county, Ireland, in the year 1799. Three children born of this union—Sarah Jane, Henry L. and W. W. Newell. Sarah Jane married W. W. Pike, both of whom are now dead. The late W. W. Newell died several years ago.

Hans Newell came to Maysville about the year 1823 and lived here until his death in 1890. He married Elizabeth Loughridge in the year 1833. She died in the year 1851.

Henry L. Newell attended school at the Richeson Academy on Fourth street in this city and first began life in a printing office as typesetter on the old Maysville Eagle. On October 5th, 1858, he married Ella G. Spaulding. She preceded him to the grave, having died October 29th, 1881.

Five children survive this marriage: Miss Lizzie Newell, Hon. Charles D. Newell, Judge of the Mason Circuit Court, Mr. Ira E. Newell, Mrs. Ella Davis and Miss Nettie B. Newell.

He was twice married, his second wife, who survives him, being a Miss Thompson.

Henry L. Newell was Mayor of Maysville from 1874 to 1879. Both before and after his election as Mayor he was almost continuously a member of the Board of Council from the Fourth Ward. He became a member of Bingham Lodge, I. O. O. F., August 12th, 1858, and was its oldest member at his death. He became a member of the Neptuno Fire Co., when a boy and was its Treasurer at his death. He was a Director of the Maysville Cemetery Co., for some years past and was its President at his death. More than thirty years ago he was elected to the Presbyterian Church and was an Elder in the Central Presbyterian Church when he died.

The funeral services will be held at the Central Presbyterian Church Thursday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. E. L. Sams officiating. Burial under the auspices of the Oddfellows in the Maysville Cemetery.
