

EVENING BULLETIN.

"HEW TO THE LINE, LET THE CHIPS FALL WHERE THEY MAY."

VOLUME 1.

MAYSVILLE, WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 22, 1882.

NUMBER 79.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

Published every afternoon and delivered in this city, the suburbs and Aberdeen by our carriers, at 6 CENTS a week.

It is welcomed in the households of men of both political parties, for the reason that it is more of a newspaper than a political journal.

Its wide circulation therefore makes it a valuable vehicle for business announcements, which we respectfully invite to our columns.

Mrs. Clifton, teacher of phonography, plain and ornamental penmanship, has opened a school at this place.

Hr. Charles Norris, returned Monday, from Chicago, where he has been attending the College of Homeopathy.

We have some scientific and tenderhearted boys, in our town, especially some of our school boys. On Monday, seeing a cow in the school house yard they concluded to give her a shelter, or some academic instruction, (we didn't learn which) as they drove her into the hall of the Academy.

An entertainment, consisting of declamations, pantomimes, dialogues and etc., will be given Thursday, February 23d, at the Hillsdale Academy. This neighborhood consists of an enlightened people lovers of literary work in general. They have often expressed this feeling by attending the literary entertainments given by our town. We should retaliate as we now have an opportunity, by favoring them with our presence. Dor.

From Another Correspondent.

Miss Mattie Cord, of Millwood, is visiting Miss Fannie Walton.

Misses Murry and Hardin, two handsome and intelligent young lady teachers have engaged to conduct a private school at this place soon.

Mrs. Clifton, has opened a writing school at this place with good success.

Elders J. B. Briney and J. I. West, begun a protracted meeting at the Christian Church Sunday, February 19th.

Several crops of tobacco were sold in this neighborhood within the past week, at fair prices. James Mingua, sold his crop of tobacco to E. Williams for $16 per hundred pounds. Luther Henson sold to same party for $15 per hundred pounds. J. W. Thomas sold to same party for $14 per hundred pounds all round.

Our M. D. (mighty dry) correspondent of the Bracken Chronicle is rather inclined to be facetious in regard to his laborious duties as school trustee of the Germantown Abnormal academy, he wants the school marm sent straight to heaven in a hand-basket to be furnished with a passport from the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, as a suitable reward for their faithful and efficient labors, M. D., himself deserves to be tucked away in one corner and is willing to be twisted in a double bow knot and utilized as a footstool. Like Josh Billings, in this respect, we have the most profound respect and sympathy for that class of professionals. We never fail to take off our hat to the district school teacher. CLAUDIUS.

MURPHYSVILLE.

Willis Gault, has returned from a visit to Ohio.

W. S. Clift, bought a buggy horse last week, for which he paid $150.

The public school at this place closed on the 10th inst., Miss Prather will, probably teach a spring term here.

R. L. Gault, reached home on last Saturday, having been out West for more than a year.

Jake Worthington has returned to Minerva, he having left there a week or two ago, on account of scarlet fever.

The measles have been prevalent in this vicinity, but at this writing they have about disappeared from among us.

The new turnpike road that is to be built from Murphysville to intersect the Sardis pike was surveyed on last Friday.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, Rev. Thomas Handford failed to preach here at his last regular appointment, which was quite a disappointment to many persons.

Died, on the 17th, inst the bright little babe of Scott and Pearl Stevenson. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. Handford at the Presbyterian church on the 18th inst., after which the remains of the dear little one were followed to the Shannon cemetery by a large concourse of relatives and friends of the family, and it was there laid to rest to await the resurrection morn. "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, and blessed be the name of the Lord." For has he not said "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." P. E. M.

TOLLESBORO.

Miss Mattie Gillespie, an exceedingly interesting young lady of Cabin Creek, is the guest of the family of her uncle, R. L. Gillespie Esq.

Samuel A. Agnew a quondam citizen of the "Athens of Lewis" has become one of the "fixtures" of Tollesboro. Sam is connected with the "house of Gillespie" and has more friends to the square inch than any man in this "ballwick."
