

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

SATURDAY EVE., MARCH 4, 1882.

THE war on temperance in Henry county is becoming popular and aggressive.

OWING to the crop failure, nearly one hundred Spencer-county families are in a starving condition.

THE court martial of Sergeant Mason at Washington has ended, but the finding has not yet been made public.

DURING the recent flood Green river has been within five feet of the '67 rise. Several towns in McLean county have been completely inundated.

THE Disappointed Office Seeker's Party, that endeavored to organize at Louisville a few days ago, for the purpose of reforming the Democratic party in Kentucky has captured a valliant recruit in the person of the editor of the Maysville republican. His experience as a reformer will, no doubt, be of vast service to his new friends.

THE Republicans are giving the cold shoulder to the McHenry party. A largely attended meeting was held at Louisville, Thursday, and resolutions were adopted condemning the proposed coalition with the disappointed Democratic office seekers. It was decided to support a straight Republican nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

A COMMITTEE of the Kentucky Legislature is investigating the charges of inhuman treatment of state convicts on the Big Sandy Railroad. It has been pretty well established that they have been fed on the worst kind of food and several have died from the severe punishment inflicted, because of their inability to work while sick. The investigation should be a thorough one and the responsible parties, if guilty, made to answer for their cruelty and inhumanity.

THIS year will be an important one from a political standpoint. There is an entirely new House of Representatives to be chosen, with thirty-two additional members. Besides this, the following nineteen states elect governors and state officers: Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas. The legislatures to be chosen will elect one-third of the next Senate of the United States.

THE testimony of Ex-Custodian Pitney given before the committee on investigation of the expenditures of the contingent fund of the Treasury, and which was suppressed by Secretary Windom, is at last laid before the public, and makes a very interesting story. It shows that Mr. Sherman's "Presidential Headquarters" at Washington, were furnished while he was the Secretary of the Treasury at the government's expense, and that lemonades, lunches, serenades, etc, were paid for in the same way. A large quantity of stationery used by the committee representing Mr. Sherman's interest, was charged to the government as official file-holders and paid for with public money. When the investigation began, and Pitney and his accomplices found themselves pushed to the wall on account of these stealings, they paid back into the Treasury the greater part of the money, two hundred and fifty dollars of which was furnished by Mr. Sherman himself. Pitney in his testimony relates an interview with Honest John concerning the matter that is highly entertaining.

Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters.

Frazier's Root Bitters are not a dram-shop whisky beverage, but are strictly medicinal in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity.

For dizziness, rush of blood to the head tending to apoplexy, dyspepsia, fever and ague, dropsy, pimples and blotches, scrofulous humors and sores, tetter, ring worm, white swelling, erysipelas, sore eyes and for young men suffering from weakness or debility caused from imprudence, and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for dyspepsia, dizziness, weakness and kidney disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as I ever did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest blessings.
