A YALLER hand-bill flung around,
Is meant to plainly say,
A la Maysville Trotting Club,
Miss Burke will ride to-day.
The hope fulfilled, no longer need,
The public heart be sick,
For lest another hand-bill comes
The race this time will stick.

The river is falling.

JUDGE STANTON's carriage horse died of colic yesterday.

FLOWER bonnets and parasols painted with flowers are the fashion.

MR. SAM HALL's new Phaeton is one of the handsomest turnouts in town.

THERE was more than the usual amount of gambling at the race course yesterday.

THE St. Lawrence, one day this week, passed down with three hundred passengers.

THE Chronicle says Augusta has no bar rooms and as a consequence no loafers, and is besides the prettiest town on the Ohio river.

WE hav'nt heard anything about starting a newspaper here for some time past. That sort of periodical enterprise seem to be languishing.

IF any of the Maysville papers are found at the trotting track to-day the race club must attribute it to a faulty stopping of the cracks in the fences.

THE recent rains have proven of much benefit to the young tobacco plants and the farmers seem generally imbued with the idea of a propitious season.

THE excellent reports of the race which have appeared in the Cincinnati Commercial and Louisville Commercial have been furnished by Mr. W. P. Larew and Mr. Robert Blaine respectively.

ONE thousand copies of the DAILY BULLETIN have been printed to-day and although they will not be distributed on the trotting grounds, they will be circulated mighty close to the edge.

THE committee appointed by the Kentucky conference of the M. E. Church, South, to fix the time for holding the High Bridge Camp-meeting, have appointed the same to open July 13th.

WE'LL bet a picayune that the Maysville fair next fall will not be run on Trotting Association principles. We will venture to say that the "sale of indulgences" will be on an entirely different basis.

AS some people are in the habit of filling punched coin, which they have taken by mistake, it will be well enough for them to know that it is a criminal offense, technically forgery, and is punishable by a fine of not more than $3,000, or by imprisonment for not more than five years or both.

THE RACES.

Red Cross and Commander Winners in the 2:26 and 2:50 Classes Respectively.

The Great Eastern Specialty Combination.

Manager Gabriel is not meeting with the success at the opera house this week that he deserves. The programme is faithfully carried out at every performance, whether the spectators are few or many. The audience last night was not very large, yet they were enthusiastic in their applause of the principal characters. The Crawford Bros., Charles and Eddie, certainly excel in the art of high-kicking, Miss Jennie Montague, the leading vocalist, won repeated applause.

Elviro in his trapeze acting certainly surpasses any one who has ever exhibited in this city. Little Frankie Jones well deserves the title of the greatest child artist in America. He won repeated applause last night whenever he made his appearance. Go and see for yourself. You will certainly enjoy it.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mr. Will Daugherty, one of the leading Democrats of Bath county and an esteemed friend of the BULLETIN is in Maysville this week.

Mr. A. T. Thompson with his wife and daughter, of Owingsville, Ky., are visiting Mrs. Carrie Davis, of East Maysville.

The following marriage licenses have been issued in Brown county, Ohio, since our last report:

W. R. Johnson and Mollie D. C. Coffman.
Wm. Withers and Parnellia Williams.
Peter Jackson and Anna Lawson.
Hecen A. Smith and Maggie A. Day.
John G. Garrison and Mary A. Martin.
Jefferson Howell and Sarah Jane Davis.

The old reliable steamer Handy, commanded by Capt. Redden, one of the cleverest men on the river, makes trips to the race track every half hour at 25 cents for the round trip. You will find it a pleasure to go by the Handy.

We are informed that the secretary of the Trotting Association, who has a printing office in this city, is peculiarly interested in the profits arising from the sale of the little advertising card sold at the track, for the benefit of which all the other advertising of the city has been excluded from the grounds. Is this true? If it is, the officers of the association are permitting their secretary to engage in a very little business, and one that will demand explanation.

THE steamer Laura L. Davis is advertised to leave the wharf this evening after the races for Cincinnati, and will take passengers and stock at reasonable prices. The lower deck is arranged for the accommodation of stock. The silly report that there has been been smallpox on board the Davis recently is denounced by Capt. Woodburn as "a campaign lie."

The profits accumulated on the Tontine savings fund plan of the Equitable Life has exceeded those of any other company by far. Jos. F. Brodrick, agt., Maysville, Ky.

MARRIED.

In Lewis county, Ky., May 18, 1882, Miss MAMIE B. Hord to Dr. ROBERT N. TAYLOR. Ceremony by Rev. M. W. Harkins.

WAR DECLARED.

Since 'tis the fashion to advertise,
Physic's law, and merchandise,
And all mechanics of their kind,
Why should a tailor lag behind?

Therefore, J. H. Wedding, is on the spot,
And hopes by his friends not to be forgot,
He will then wait upon those there,
Who wish a garment to prepare.

Thankful for favors, even the least,
Which he does hope will be increased,
Then call as mentioned in the place,
There he'll meet you face to face.

Give him a call, he'll satisfy
The most discerning eye;
He cuts his garments by the square,
With exquisite neatness, taste and care,
