In all the Northern land to-day,
Unto their memory true,
Will flower garlands deck the graves,
Of those who wore the blue.
And they must feel who mourn their brave
This Decoration Day,
Hearts there are that ache as well,
For those who wore the grey.

CATLETTSBURG is to have a National Bank.

The Episcopal Diocesan Convention will be held next year at Louisville.

DECORATION Day will be observed at Aberdeen to-day. The band will be out.

MR. EDWARD COOPER, a well-known citizen of Germantown, died of apoplexy on Friday last.

The graves of the Federal soldiers who fell in the late war will be decorated with flowers to-day.

The East Maysville Reed and Brass Band will go to Cincinnati, June 11th, to take part in the band tournament which begins that day.

A FULL attendance of the members of the Amazon Fire Company is requested at the meeting next Friday evening, as business of importance is to be considered.

The remains of Fannie Cheek, colored, who died suddenly at Manchester on Saturday, were brought to Aberdeen, by the steamer Thompson, on Sunday and buried there Monday.

DR. JOHN A. MITCHELL, Monday afternoon, was seized with a sudden attack of vertigo, and was at one time considered in a critical condition, but at this writing he is, we are pleased to say, better.

On Monday, Charles Ellis, who lives about four miles above Aberdeen, had his arm broken between the wrist and elbow by the kick of a horse. Dr. Heaton set the broken limb and Mr. Ellis is now doing well.

A YOUNG man named William Thomas, lately from Bracken county, this morning, while working at one of the machines in the Kentucky Planing Mill had one of his hands very nearly cut off. The injured member was dressed by Dr. H. K. Adamson.

WHILE our older citizens do not appear to have much interest in the exhibition of antique and curious articles by the Public Library, the young folks show a contrary feeling. The rooms are often crowded with them. Mrs. Riddick's school in a body spent last evening there.

WM. YATES, colored, will be examined before the mayor this afternoon, on the charge of assaulting Charles Dempsey, also colored, with intent to kill. Dempsey was at work, Monday morning, at Brooks & Parker's stable when Yates came in and struck him in the back of the head with a hatchet. It is alleged the assault was without provocation on the part of Dempsey.

Literary Inquiry.

FERN LEAF, Ky., May 29, 1882.

Editor Bulletin: Will you please inform me through the columns of your valuable paper the names of the authors of the novel letters, "Lights and shadows," and "Whom Did She Marry?"

GERTRUDE.

The productions referred to appeared as serials in the late Mason County Journal. The first is supposed to have been written by Mr. William Willocks, of this city, and the latter is attributed to the prolific pen of Mr. G. W. Adair, also of Maysville. They have never appeared in book form but many of the friends of the writers would doubtless be gratified to see them printed in that shape. There is a chance for some enterprising publisher.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mr. William Stalcup, of East Maysville, is very ill.

Mr. Frank Newton, of Covington, is here to-day.

Mrs. Mollie Horton, of Cincinnati, is visiting her father, Mr. T. C. Campbell.

Mr. Charles Calvert, a Mason county boy, who was for several years in business at Waco, Texas, has removed to San Antonio, in the same state, and is now one of the proprietors of a leading hotel there.

MR. GEO. M. HORD, of Chicago, who has been visiting his friends in Maysville returned home Monday. He took with him "Moonshine Dick," a very promising trotter he had bought from Mr. Jas. Rankins, of this city.

Ox Friday last. Mrs. Walker, widow of Robert Walker, received the snug little sum of $3,000. Mrs. Walker lives in Flemingsburg, and her husband was a member of R. class in the endowment rank of the Order of K. of P. This amount of money was taken to Flemingsburg, by Mr. Joseph Cheesman, of Aberdeen, Ohio, Secretary of the rank at said town, and by him delivered into the hands of the bereaved wife. We knew well it must have swelled kindly Joe's heart almost to bursting to witness the wife's gratitude and to have been himself the messenger that caused it. The endowment rank of the order aforesaid has quite a number of members residing in this city, who attest the merits of this method of bestowing benefits.

It is our painful duty to announce the death of another well-known and esteemed citizen, Mrs. Arthur Berry. She expired Monday evening about six o'clock at the home of her husband in this city, after a painful illness, in the sixty-fourth year of her age. Mrs. Berry was the daughter of Capt. Thomas Nicholson and was born in Maysville in 1818 and has resided here all of her life. She was a sincere christian, a faithful wife, a kind and indulgent mother and a firm friend. Her death will be widely lamented. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at ten o'clock from the Christian Church, after services by the pastor, Elder J. B. Briney.

ELDER T. M. MYERL will begin a protracted meeting at Tollesboro on Saturday June 3rd. After Monday June 5th he will be assisted by Elder William Sweeny of Dubuque, Iowa.

SOME beautiful Sun Flowers on easels will be given away at the well known drug store of J. C. Pecor & Co., on Friday, June 2d, between 3 and 4 o'clock, p. m. To lady adults only. Call and get one. By Dr. C. W. Benson, proprietor of Celery and Chamonile, Pills and Skin Cure. m30d&w

MR. VENNOR, the weather seer, telegraphs to the Cincinnati Commercial that there will be sharp frosts in the Upper Mississippi region between the 5th and 8th of June and possibly about the 25th and 26th of the month. He says that there will be a great deal of rain in Missouri and Ohio during the month of June, with brief, hot and muggy periods.

THE talk that there is an aching void here, gaping wide for "another democratic newspaper," translated into English means that there is a seat in congress that some one's little base is aching to fill. A true-blue, Jeffersonian, dyed-in-the-wool, bluehen's-chicken sort of a newspaper is supposed to be what is needed as a stepping-stone to the place. Go ahead, we will try and find time to drop in at the funeral.

SENATOR ALLISON, in the North American Review, says there are $550,000,000 in round numbers of the government bonds now payable at the pleasure of the government, yet there are $150,000,000 surplus funds in the treasury which the people have been villainously taxed to pay. Why not redeem with this surplus, $150,000,000 of the $550,000,000 bonds and save the country the interest on that much? The reason is plain. Without the surplus the grand army of pilferers in the congressional lobby would be disbanded and to that extent the power of the Stalwarts to extend their sway would be taken from them. One-half of the iniquitous means by which the republicans manage to maintain their grip on the public teat are unknown by the people, because the people take but little pains to acquaint themselves with the facts.

State of Lewis at Large.

The croaking about frost killing wheat has turned into thanksgiving. Several stalks have come up where one was cut down, the heads larger and very plump. If the curing corresponds with the present show, we have prospects of large returns in this staple.

The political look out in this county is a dead lock. If the democrats had a bold leader the victory is within their reach. Unfortunately for both parties the money influence controls great and small.

Congressman Plister's card declining opens a way for Judge James Harberson of Flemingsburg, who has a host of friends here.

Our old countyman Bill Ireland, of Ashland, would be the only competitor Judge Harberson would have here.

The steamer Return has laid up for two weeks at Vanceburg, undergoing repairs, painting and repairing.

Capt Thomas Redden, the elder Redden brother, has gone back to his silver mines and promises to send the BULLETIN man a chunk of pure glittering metal.

A select hop comes off at the Hisey House, Concord, Friday June 2nd. The BULLETIN acknowledges complimentary passes.

The bachelor brothers Ambroses, of Tollesboro, after twelve years of successful merchandising, have sold out to the irrepressible Bob Gillespie, and transferred stock and good will into Gillespie's Mammoth Store House. Bob is the Shillito of the State of Lewis.

J M Dunlap, a traveling temperance worker has taken board at the new Garland House, Vanceburg, with a view to reforming the drinks as popular there; blue ribbons are as plenty as blue noses.

The Lewis county ministerial temperance association held a convention at the court house, Vanceburg, May 30th. Proceedings will appear in the BULLETIN.

Senator Henry Bruce moved into his ten thousand dollar brick. It is a charming house. Mrs Senator Bruce says her friends, who are many, will hear something soon.

Our noted sheep grower, John Hammond, shipped one hundred spring lambs that averaged over ninety-eight pounds each; he realized 5 cents per pound on the river bank.

The Vanceburg Cornet Band gave a fruit and musical Monday and Tuesday evenings. The Samples lead off in complimenting reporters.

Hon. Richard Reed, of Mt. Sterling, paid us special attention while here. Where is Judge Cunningham? He must call or bear the consequences.

A DESPATCH was received in Maysville this morning announcing that the Pond Law has been declared unconstitutional by the Ohio courts.

Two or three bulging browed local politicians who have not been able to use the BULLETIN to advance their ambitions, have taken up the periodical cry that "another democratic newspaper is needed in Maysville." Let them start it by all means. This is a free country and they have a perfect right to do so. But mind the warning. It will not boost any one of them into congress, but is more likely to send him to the poor house.

NEWS BREVITIES.

Lightning fired and destroyed the Rochdale Woolen Mills at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

It is believed that the Pond Law will be declared constitutional, with perhaps one or two dissenting Judges on different points.

A steamer from Newport, England, for New York, has arrived at St. John's, N. F., with her bow smashed, in collision with an iceberg.

Services in memory of Abraham Lincoln were held Sunday afternoon at the monument at the entrance to Prospect Park, New York City.

There is great excitement in Egypt, and the crisis is reported as having assumed alarming proportions. The Khedive has been induced finally to reinstate Arabi Bey.

Up in Ohio, when an employe on the P. C. & St. L. Railway opened a box car on an incoming freight, he found nineteen tramps who had boarded the train in the Western part of the State en route for Pittsburg.

Dispatches from Fargo and Grand Forks, D. T., say there is great excitement there over the decision of Secretary Teller, opening to immigration the Turtle Mountain district, including nine million acres of the finest land in Dakota.
