A LITTLE friend, a tiny one,
A golden ring has lost,
The only time its happy life
By shadow has been crossed.
Now any one who picks it up,
Will do a kindly thing,
To let our little baby friend
Have back its golden ring.

CHERRIES are offered for sale in Maysville this week.

Work will be resumed at Cox & Poynter's plow factory next Monday.

The potato crop this season promises to be the best we have had for years.

JUDGE W. H. POLLITT and Mr. Wesley Vicroy are candidates for justice of the peace in Maysville precinct No. 1.

The Kentucky Planing Mill was not running yesterday on account of the death of one of Mr. Hiram Collins' children.

Forty head of sheep, penned up on an island in Fleming creek, near Flemingsburg, were drowned by a sudden rise in the stream.

Portraits of prominent citizens and the streets of Maysville will be produced on canvas at Baron Seeman's entertainment this evening.

The report current in Maysville that the Republican had been sold to Mr. Robert Blaine, is without foundation. The paper has not been sold to any one.

Watermelon clubs are getting ready for the season's work. They are made of hickory and are kept in the fence corners for the benefit of the boys who come into the patches uninvited.

J. W. SLAVEN, of Carlisle, was arrested at Covington on Monday, and lodged in jail, charged with using cancelled postage stamps. He claims that they were in a pocket with a bottle of ink which leaked.

HARRY MASON, the railroad conductor, who was cut and seriously wounded at Dayton, Ky., last Saturday night, formerly lived in Maysville and is well known here. Wm. Childers and Wm. Savage his assailants have not been captured.

The St. Lawrence and Bonanza, yesterday made a trial of speed on a run from Portsmouth to Ripley. They arrived at Maysville, the Bonanza being several minutes ahead, and at Ripley the Bonanza slightly leading. Leaving Palestine the Morning Mail ran against the St. Lawrence to Cincinnati.

The following improvements are in progress in Maysville this week: George Cox & Son, enlarging business house; A. Sorries, remodeling business house; Henry Smith, two story dwelling on Second street; Jos. Denier, brick dwelling in East Maysville; Ad Wadsworth, dwelling on Third street, John H. Wilson, brick dwelling on Third street; James White, frame dwelling in East Maysville.

FREAKS OF WHIRLWINDS IN THE WEST.

A Herd of Horses Blown Seven Miles.

CHICAGO, ILL., June 26, 1882.—Between Morrison and Round Grove, Illinois, 2,600 feet of the Chicago & Northwestern track was washed away. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy suffered even worse west of Mendota, in Nebraska. Yesterday morning a terrific storm gathered in Butler county, swept southwest through Saunders, Lancaster, Cass, Aloe and Nemaha counties, doing the greatest damage in a belt twenty-five miles in width between Wahoo and Weston. Corn was badly beaten down in the Southern part of Saunders county, and small grain utterly ruined.

Two houses were blown down in Wahoo, a two-story barn carried fifty feet through the air, and a herd of 125 ponies were swept by the storm eight miles southward over fields and through wire fences. Not a pane of glass was left in windows facing the west.

The school house at Clear Creek was completely wrecked. One man was killed and five injured near Talmadge, on the Missouri Pacific, while seeking shelter under a freight car, which was hurled against them.

The corn will be put back two or three weeks.

A number of cattle were carried down stream and drowned near Lanesboro, Minnesota. Roads were stripped of bridges and made inaccessible. The crops were damaged somewhat and hay most severely.

One man was drowned in Audolpho, Minn., while rescuing his stock from the floods.

A SOLEMN SUNDAY.

The Last on Earth for the Assassin.

WASHINGTON, June 26—Guiteau's death warrant was signed by Clerk Meigs, of the Court attached, and the document forwarded to Warden Crocker at the District Jail.

Guiteau passed his last Sunday on earth quietly, and apparently in undisturbed composure. He arose at 7, took a bath and breakfast on the prison fare, which he ate with a relish. He was not much inclined to talk. Warden Crocker says he has been more reticent ever since the adverse decision of the Cabinet. He paced his cell, reading his Bible, and saw no one through the day but Rev. Hicks at three o'clock. Hicks now believes him sane, although he petitioned the President for a respite. The telegraph companies are running wires into the jail. A strong military guard is maintained. Guiteau has renounced all hope.

Dr. Hicks was favorably impressed with Guiteau's sincerity. He is humble, but not abject. He entered heartily into the religious devotions. The Warden says his demeanor is that of a greatly disappointed man holding up under great mental excitement. He does not apprehend that Guiteau will break down on the scaffold, nor does he anticipate that he will play the part of a braggart. The gallows will be altered so the body will be in full view after the fall.

Seeman's Last Appearance.

The entertainment by Baron Seeman, at the opera house, yesterday, was the best that has been given in Maysville this season. The performance, with an entire change of programme, will be repeated this evening, and in order to give everybody an opportunity of seeing the greatest illusionist of the age, the prices of admission have been reduced to the following rates: Reserved seats, 50 cents; general admission 35 cents; children 15 cents.

The Trotting Association at Falmouth, Ky., will celebrate the Fourth of July by trotting races for a purse of $600.

WITHIN the last week a large number of clever imitations of ten dollar greenbacks of the issue of 1875 have been put in circulation in several of the eastern states. This bill is well calculated to deceive.

Among the points of difference between good and bad is a slight irregularity in the shape of the letters in the line on the top of the face of the counterfeit. "This note is a legal tender for ten dollars." On the counterfeit there is no space between the words "for" and "ten." In the words "printing," just below the words "for ten" the last four letters "ting," are in italics. In the counterfeit the numbers are very irregular, and the lathe work, particularly in the upper right hand corners is blurred.

Moonlight Fete.

Another moonlight fete will take place in East Maysville next Friday evening the 30th inst. The visitors will be provided with comfortable seats under a spacious tent and there will be a platform forty feet square for the dancers. Prof. De la Venie's celebrated string band has been engaged to furnish the music. The floor managers Messrs. Dan Shafer and Frank Means and directors Messrs. Chas. Whittington, Chas. Dawson, Levi Culbertson, Geo. Fleming and L. Shafer, will see to the comfort of visitors. All kinds of refreshments will be found at the stand presided over by Mr. George Fleming. Don't fail to be present.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mr. John Brevard, one of the leading business men of Natchez, Miss., is in Maysville this week. We are indebted to him for a call.

Mrs. Simon Russell, of Burlington, Iowa, Mr. George Russell, of Chicago, Miss. Sudie McCarthy and Master Milton McCarthy, of West Jefferson, Ohio, are guests of the family of Mr. M. C. Russell.

Mr. Louis C. Lippert, for a year and a half past the efficient pharmacist at J. J. Wood's Drug Emporium, has resigned his place to accept another at Cincinnati. He will leave Maysville about the second of July. During his stay in Maysville his uniformly gentlemanly bearing and amiable disposition won for him many attached friends, who will part with him with sincere regret.

Letter from Falls City, Nebraska.

FALLS CITY, NEB., June 21, 1882.
Ed. Bulletin: The spring in Nebraska has been cold and wet. June has been quite warm which has brought corn on rapidly, and at present we never had a finer prospect for crops of all kinds. The wheat fields are changing color and if nothing occurs to damage it, there will be a large yield; corn is knee high and looks well, vegetables of all kinds are abundant, and we will have plenty of all kinds of fruit. Falls City is improving rapidly, and will continue to grow rapidly as this is the junction of two of the greatest railroads in the United States, the C. B. and Q. and Mo. Pacific. The 28th of last July we gave bond to the right of way through Falls City precinct, and on the 2nd of July this year, passenger trains will be put on the Mo. Pacific from St. Louis to Omaha, Neb. The Mo. Pacific is certainly the best equipped and has the most accommodating officers I ever met. Jay Gould and A. A. Talmage have done a big thing for this county in building the new Pacific Extension in Neb. The health of Nebraska was never better. Real estate is increasing in value very rapidly. Jas. H. Humlong is here and is well pleased with the country.
Respectfully, W. E. NEAL.

Archbishop Purcell was able to attend mass on the occasion of the celebration of St. John's Day at the convent of Ursulines in Brown county.

Expert testimony is being taken by coroner Rendigs in the case of Clay Jones, killed by the explosion of one of the boilers of the U. S. snagboat Woodruff.

COUNTY POINTS.

SPRINGDALE.

Farmers are very much behind hand with their work.

In consequence of the scarcity of plants the tobacco crop of this vicinity will be very late.

The grasshoppers have made their appearance in this neighborhood, but the army worm has not been seen. We have heard it reported that they have ravaged a few fields in Ohio opposite our place.

The Ohio pedagogues have commenced their canvassing our county and state in every direction, since the late school election and it is a lamentable fact that the blindness of trustees will cause them to support these in preference to the teachers of their own state.

Heavy rainfalls have done considerable damage in this part of the county.

Departed this life June 10th, Mrs. Mary Weaver wife of Martin Weaver, in the thirtieth year of her age, of a short and painful illness of dropsy of the heart. Eight little children and a kind husband mourn her loss, which to them in life was their solace and loving protector. Yes she has passed from the sea of earth and turmoil of this world to the ever green shore of eternity where time's ebbing finger and disease wasting power have no fadefless blow. The funeral procession was the largest that ever paid its respects to the slumbering remains of anyone interred at the Pleasant Hill Church. Your correspondent was present at the interment, which was truly a heartrending scene to see those little children weeping for that affectionate mother who cannot return from the silence and solitude of the tomb, but we hope that the lives of those little ones and their father may be such that they will meet her where parting shall be no more. We tender our condolence to the family and relatives of the deceased in this their sad and unfortunate bereavement. OCCASIONAL.

From "The Times."

Editor of the Times:—The veterinary department in your valuable paper is always read by me with great interest and I value the information received from it a hundred fold more than the small amount paid for the paper. One year ago you published a letter from Dr. John Bates, relating the wonderful success he had had in curing spavin and splints with Kendall's Spavin Cure, and his allusion to using it now in his practice for several human ailments on account of the success he has always had with it. The above statements from so prominent a Physician gave me great faith in its efficacy, and as I had been afflicted for years with rheumatism and hip joint lameness so bad that I could hardly walk at times, I procured a bottle and as it has completely cured me I wish to proclaim it to all the world as the most wonderful discovery ever made for the benefit of afflicted men as well as for the poor horse for which it was first used. As this remedy must be of incalculable value to the world, I write this letter to express my thankfulness to you for ever mentioning it in your columns and to ask another favor in behalf of my fellow men who are afflicted in body that you continue to make known to the world, the great value of Kendall's Spavin Cure for both man as well as beast.
Respectfully yours,
ARNOLD PARKER,
Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 18th, 1881.
