THE pathway of an editor
Is oft a road of rocks;
See notice in the Morning Call
Of certain Court street cocks.
An explanation made right here,
The critics game now blocks,
'Twas Democratic roosters meant
And not friend Harry Cox.

THE packet City of Portsmouth has been sold to Capt. Al Berry. The Return takes her place in the Cincinnati and Chilo trade.

It is estimated that since harvest, no less than 150,000 bushels of wheat have changed hands here at from $1 to $1.05 a bushel.

Mrs. ROBBINS, an experienced hairdresser, has located in Chester and will do all kinds of work in her line on the most reasonable terms. See advertisement elsewhere.

An item printed in the Morning Call that one of the ministers of Maysville had driven a horse at the trotting course against time and for money, was probably intended as a piece of pleasantry, but was in rather bad taste we think.

MR. GEORGE M. PHILLIPS is the prescription clerk at J. James Wood's Drug Emporium. He is a graduate of a college of Pharmacy, and was for several years employed in a leading drug store at Cincinnati. Mr. Phillips is the son of Judge Phillips, of Nicholasville, Ky., and is a young man of cultivation and good social position, and will be an accession to Maysville society.

At the last meeting of the city council Dr. Phister called the attention of the board to the fact that a nuisance was maintained in the alley in the rear of the jail in the shape of hog wallows. The BULLETIN has repeatedly notified the board that nuisances of this character exist not only in the alleys but in the public streets of the city also. In abating the nuisance in the jail alley, we hope the board will see the necessity of putting an end to it elsewhere.

MR. A. R. GLASCOCK, who has just finished improving one of the most convenient and attractive business houses in the city, proposes to continue the good work. He will build immediately two handsome structures on Court street, adjoining his present quarters; the work to be done by Messrs. Lane & Worrick. They will be constructed of brick and will be two stories high, fronting thirty-four feet on Court street and extending back twenty-seven feet. The height of stories will be eleven and twelve feet respectively. The buildings will be neat in design, will have metal roof, galvanized iron cornice and freestone trimmings. The stairway to the second story will be in the middle of the building and arched. It will be a very desirable business location.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald, who has been at Lexington for several weeks, returned home Saturday night.

Mr. John Hierley, of Chicago, arrived in Maysville Sunday night to attend the bedside of his father, Mr. Tim Hierley. The latter, we regret to say, is no better.

Mr. Roby McCall, second clerk of the Morning Mail has resigned his position, and will not go back on the river, at least until he has had a much needed rest.

Mr. Pettibone, the military furnisher of Cincinnati, is in Maysville to-day for the purpose of measuring the Emmet Rifles for their uniforms.

Robert Wilson, the nominee of the Lewis county democracy for county clerk, was in the city Saturday, the 15th inst. Mr. Wilson has a host of warm friends in this city who wish him success in his race for the above clerkship. The people of Lewis could not select any one more capable of filling the office than Mr. Wilson. He has always been a sober, industrious and energetic young man, and certainly merits success.

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County Court, since our last report:

Elizabeth M. Durrett and husband to John Davis and others, one acre of land near Washington; consideration, $150.

Albert Lawson and wife to Mirita Davis, one lot of ground on Taylor's Mills turnpike; consideration, $1 and natural love and affection.

E. S. Davis to Alfilida A. Wheeler, house and lot on southeast corner Market and Front streets, Maysville; consideration, $5,000.

GARDEN thieves are getting to be very troublesome in the lower part of the city—few gardens there being exempt from their depredations. Last Friday night they made raid on the premises of Major Thomas A. Ross, and carried off a considerable part of his potato crop, and on Saturday night they went to Mr. Henry Hubbard's garden and stole more than a bushel of onions. The same night they visited Dr. H. C. Morgan's garden and took away one hundred and seventy-five heads of cabbage. The establishment of a system of night police in Maysville would prevent not only these, but many other petty robberies that were are constantly called upon to chronicle. In the meantime we advise our friends who have suffered these losses to keep their shot-guns in order and maintain a sharp look out for the offenders.

Temperance Lecture.

Rev. E. L. Sanders will deliver a lecture on the subject of temperance in the M. E. Church at Washington, on Thursday evening the 20th inst. A lodge of Good Templars will be organized at that time. Rev. Jamison, pastor of the colored congregation there requests us to say that the white and colored members of the church are invited to be present.

A DESPATCH from Washington to the Cincinnati Times-Star says:

The House Committee on Public Buildings to-day reported favorably upon the bill for the erection of a public building at Maysville at a cost of $35,000.

From this it seems the amount proposed to be expended for a public building here has been increased from $30,000, to $35,000.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer of Saturday says:

Mr. John Gray, of Covington, a sub-contractor on the Cincinnati and Southeastern Railroad, left for record in the county clerk's office in Newport yesterday a mechanic's lien on the road and its franchises, &c., for $52,990.42. Messrs. P. P. Dickinson & Co., of New York, also left one for the record amounting in the aggregate to $13,964.68. A certified copy of the above has also been filed with the county clerks in Mason and Bracken counties, through which the road runs. The amount of both liens is $167,724.46.

THE British naval force on Saturday entered the city of Alexandria and took possession of the place. The conflagration is reported under control but the city ruined. The various consulates have been re-established and a party of American sailors detailed to guard the Khedive's palace. A despatch says:

Lieutenant Commander Gorringer being interviewed to-day, says the bombardment at Alexandria was without justification, and that there was no real massacre until after the English fleet opened fire. The bombardment was a mere pretext for crushing the National party of Egypt. It was the most brutal, unjustifiable act the British have ever been guilty of. The agitation of the Irish question here is just as good a ground for a British bombardment of New York as the British had there.

COUNTY POINTS.

MAYSICK.

I have been teaching for twenty-seven years and in some of the wealthiest districts in the State, but I take pleasure in saying I have encountered less difficulty in collecting school dues in the Choctaw District No. 54, than in any other where I have taught.

J. R. CHINN.

GERMANTOWN.

The stage line from here to Augusta has been discontinued, but Mr. Perrin still makes good use of the nicely covered wagon in which passengers were conveyed from our place to Augusta. It went out this morning beautifully decorated by the gentler sex, it being full of ladies except room for our P. M., what a good time he has with the ladies or rather what a good time they have with him.

F. M. Hiles, our excellent and accommodating saddler, seems to get about with all of his youthful vigor now, since he has so recently been made papa. Call now and he will sell you a saddle cheaper than the cheapest.

Good many in our midst are anxious to know why "Em-De" has dropped his quill. Some go so far as to say after perusing the paper, the Chronicle is not much this week, what has become of "Em-De." Take up your pen doctor you certainly deserve a place on the tripod.

We would like to hear something about our railroad. We don't even have the surveyors to come round now. At one time in our imagination we were just ready to take up our little bundle and step down to the depot and go down and do some shopping in Cincinnati. What is the matter? Where is Clarke? Can he not come over here and span the universe again? He once made us feel like we were of so much importance as to be wanted everywhere, and it really seemed that we would have a railroad running through here from the Atlantic on the East, and the Pacific on the West, and from the Gulf of Mexico, and the South to the Lakes on the North. Why can't we have a railroad?
NOW-AND-THEN.

Obituary.

Mrs. MARY WHEATLEY, this most estimable lady died at her home near Sardis on Wednesday the 12 inst. The funeral services were conducted to-day, at the Christian Church (of which she was a consistent member) by Elder Wm. Hall. Her mortal remains were deposited in the beautiful cemetery at Shannon, to await the resurrection of the justified believers in Christ. Few more exemplary lives have ever been lived. She was a most dutiful and affectionate daughter, a devoted wife, a loving mother a fond sister. She was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. She exemplified the beauty and power of the religion of the blessed Redeemer. Another pen will more worthily portray her excellencies as a tribute of respect, we write these lines. Many fervent prayers will ascend to a kind, heavenly father in behalf of the sorely bereaved family.
Sardis, Ky., July 12, 1882. A FRIEND.
