

Two Sides of It.

Some unknown genius has discovered the following "Rules for Spoiling a Husband."

Snarl at him.
Find fault with him.
Keep an untidy house.
Boss him out of his boots.
Always have the last word.
Be extra cross on wash day.
Quarrel with him for trifles.
Never have his meals ready in time.
Let him sew the buttons on his shirt.
Pay no attention to household expenses.

Give as much as he can earn in a month for a new bonnet.

Tell him plainly you have married him for a living.

Raise a row if he dares to bow pleasantly to an old lady friend.

Get everything the woman next door gets whether you can afford it or not.

Provide any kind of a pick-up dinner for him when you don't expect strangers.

Let it out sometimes when you are good and mad that you wish you had married some other fellow you used to go with.

If he has an extra amount of brain work and comes home with his nervous system all on a stretch—don't try to keep the children quiet. Tell them to make all the noise they want to, and their father is nothing but an old crosspatch anyway.

HOW TO SPOIL A WIFE.

How will this do?
Snarl at her.
Make her clean house untidy by your slovenly habits.

Find fault with her.
Boss her out of her shoes.
Always have the last word.
Be extra cross when she is harassed by the work and worry of wash day.

Quarrel with her for trifles.
Never be on time to your meals.
Growl when she forgets through a multiplicity of duties to sew buttons on your shirts.

Pay no attention to providing for the household and tell her nothing about its expenses.

Spend the price of several new bonnets for cigars, and then skip the bonnets.

Tell her plainly you have married her to do your work.

Raise a row if she dares to bow pleasantly to an old-time gentleman friend.

Find never ending fault if she happens to want anything she sees the woman next door having.

Grumble when she provides a pick-up dinner.

Let it out sometimes when you are good and mad that you wish you had married some other girl you used to go with.

If you have had a hard day's work in the store or office, go home and let out your gall on this poor woman, who has baked and ironed, and mended, and tended children since sunrise. Don't try to hold your peevish disposition in check. Growl and fuss and fame and find fault with the little parent woman whose rosy cheeks you one time kissed, and swore by all that's good that you would love and cherish her through life and death.

The thing is about as long as broad, brethren.—Rockland Courier.

Wedding Pipes.

The city of Gouda, so famed for the old stained glass in the cathedral, and more generally associated with the manufacture of Dutch pipes, is about fifteen miles from Rotterdam. Among the variety of pipes made there is one called the wedding pipe; it is three feet three inches long in the stem; the bowl is ornamented with coats-of-arms. The Dutch make festivals of the copper wedding, the silver wedding, the golden wedding and the diamond wedding. On the occasion of the copper wedding the stem of the pipe is ornamented with copper leaves twining all the way up the stem, and at each successive festival the leaves are renewed according to the date of the commemoration, which seldom passes the golden. In Amsterdam I once saw a diamond-leaved pipe which had been prepared for a seventy-fifth wedding.—Good Words.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain its effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

From Rev. P. N. GRANGER.

Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, ST. ALBANS, VT., Jan. 20, 1880.
DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by a spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ringbone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found. Respectfully yours,
P. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell.

STROUGHTON, MASS., March 16, 1880.
B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed two bone spavins with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one, don't know how long the spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off and two for the small one. I have used ten bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me it will be very great.
Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE is sure in its effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach a every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargement, such as spavins, splints, curbs, calous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints, or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects.
Send address for illustrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success to our knowledge, for best as well as cheap.
Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. ALL DRUGGISTS have it or can get it for you or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vermont. j27d.

BATCHELDER'S Ventilated Egg Case.

Patented February 15, 1881.

Indispensible to Merchants Shippers And Producers.

The outside frame of this carrier contains five trays, held in place by fasteners at end of case, as seen in cut. These trays are constructed in reversible halves. The above cut shows one whole tray filled ready to be placed in case, each egg resting in its cardboard socket in such a manner as to be readily counted, candled, or transferred from tray to tray, or case to case without rehandling.

For cold storage this case will store 60 dozen with racks made to receive the half trays, hence this is the cheapest storage case manufactured, saving largely in space.

The manner of holding the eggs on end prevents oscillation, adding, or breakage, and adds greatly to their freshness when carried long in storage. Size of 30 dozen No. 1 cases 25x12x14, weighs 20 pounds.

PRICES IN CHICAGO.

Shipper's No. 1, 30 doz. Case with Filler's complete 65 Cents.
Farmer's No. 1, 18 doz. Case with Filler's complete, 55 Cents.
Cardboard Filler's for refilling 20 Cents.
15 per cent. discount on lots of 100 cases.
Batchelder's Egg Tester, testing 6 doz. at once, saves to buyers many times its cost each season. Price $3.00.

By special arrangements made by the manufacturers of this case most Railroads will receive them as fourth class freight.

The 18 dozen case made especially for Farmers' use, sent to any address by express, with out nailing, with full directions for setting up, on receipt of 50 cents. Every Farmer and consumer should have one of these cases, it will save its cost every month. Agents wanted in every county. Address,

J. H. BATCHELDER,
(In ordering mention this paper.)
