M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH

Exercises and Regular Business of the Annual Conference.

Interesting Personal Notes.

From our Special Correspondent, THURSDAY.

The morning prayer meeting was led by Prof. Reed. After a short season of prayer the meeting was changed into a social one. These ministers seem to be consecrated to the great work to which they have devoted their lives.

After these exercises the regular business of the conference was resumed. The subjects of the church extension and education received due attention. The church which this body represents is now actively moving in all that pertains to the welfare of man.

Dr. T. B. McFerrin addressed the conference on the interests of the publishing house. This great enterprise is succeeding admirably under its present management.

Dr. D. C. Kelly spoke on the subject of missions.

There are two candidates for deacon's orders, Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh pronounced the disciplinary questions and spoke impressively as to the meaning of the obligations assume in this relation.

NOTES.

The Nashville Christian Advocate the official organ of the M. E. Church, South, is represented.

Rev. Zephaniah Meek, editor of the Central Methodist is present.

The Advocate of Missions, an excellent paper of its kind ought to have a general circulation as the missionary work lags from want of active support. Great progress has been made in this direction but much yet remains to be done.

Dr. G. S. Savage, agent of the American Bible Society, is here.

The report of this great institution will well repay a careful present. The demand for the holy scripture constantly increases, and as light from this source beams upon any people so does moral darkness disappear.

Messrs. Hanson Kennedy and Sam K. Veach, committee on reception have won universal praise for the courteous manner in which they attended to the wants of all. They only need 40 or 50 more preachers to meet the demand for guests.

The Bishop is holding regular sessions with his cabinet. Of course the preachers are passing under review. Many will soon hear something drop, and of whom we may be which.

The presiding elder of the Maysville district is at his post and is faithfully discharging his duties. The people may rest assured that he will seek to do the best that is possible to be done in their behalf.

Your correspondent and Rev. G. C. Kelly are elegantly entertained at the home of W. O. Sanders. We have ever been fortunate in this respect at Methodist conferences, but never more so than at present.

To our friends who anticipate a visit to Carlisle, we would say that at the Leamer House, a temperance hotel, they will receive all the courtesy and hotel attention that even the most fastidious could desire.

Forty-six new cases of fever and two deaths are reported at Brownsville, Texas.

The Republican party, in nearly every State where the party exists and is in control, has a war with itself, on hand. This war can in every instance be traced to bossism or "machine" politics.

A lady writing from England complains that the restaurant waiters there always wait on the gentlemen first. Perhaps the waiters have learned from experience that a man generally knows what he wants as soon as he sits down.—[Phil. News.]
