

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 30, 1882.

TERMS:—The EVENING BULLETIN is published daily, and served free of postage at 6 cents per week; 25 cents per month; 75 cents per three months; $1.50 per six months, and $3 per year, payable in advance.

THE EVENING BULLETIN HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION IN THIS CITY, CHESTER AND ABERDEEN, OHIO, THAN ANY OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN MAYSVILLE.

The Democrats are very confident that their majority in Indiana will not be less than 10,000.

HARPER BROS., the New York publishers, are about to establish a branch house at Cincinnati.

The walking match at New York closed on Saturday night. Fitzgerald scored 577 miles, Noremac 566 and Heirty 541. The receipts from all sources amounted to $26,373.

A VIRGINIA postmaster, who had been assessed by Mahone for campaign purpose, remitted the amount in Confederate money, when the repudiator and political knave had the postoffice discontinued and the offending postmaster dismissed from the service. The people stand by the official and will make it red hot for Mahone's ticket.

THAT exponent of vulgarity and third-rate Democracy, the BULLETIN, makes many fine points this week on the "young editor" of this paper, which are doubtless appreciated by an interested public. We are happy at least in the thought of having afforded a little employment to the poet blackguard who may now continue his harmless amusement at pleasure.—New Republican.

When men are no longer patient, temperate and in good humor, it is an evidence that they are beaten. Our stalwart young friend is beginning to get dreadfully mad. The jury will return a verdict against his cause. The case is lost. Too much "306" and brass collar did it.

If that paper (the BULLETIN) has ever had two lines in it typographically correct, with proper punctuation and spelling, it must have been in its ready-set, handsaw matter.—New Republican.

But then, you must remember the editor of the BULLETIN is not a genius, but on the contrary, is a man of very ordinary mental capacity. To see that every comma is correctly placed and each inverted letter turned, is "heavy brain-work" at which only the gifted editor of the New Republican excels. But here permit us to remark as a return compliment that if the Republican has ever had two lines in it of the high-toned "independence" promised by the young editor, it must have been before the Guitean made Stalwart gang snapped their whip about the editor's legs and before that brass collar was clasped about his neck.

The Evening Post, a Republican newspaper, printed in New York, says that the Republican State Committee has abandoned almost all hope of carrying the State at the coming election. It quotes one of the members of the committee as saying: "There is no hope whatever of the election of Mr. Floger. Governor Cleveland will be elected by a majority ranging from 890,000 to 40,000. The work of the State Committee will be devoted from this time forward to the day of the election to an effort to save all the Assembly and Congressional districts possible. As it is, I have heard members of the State Committee express fears that we shall lose at least thirteen of the congressional districts in the State."

This admission ought to encourage the Democrats of this district to work with renewed energy for the success of the party candidate. It would be an everlasting disgrace to send to Congress a divided delegation from Kentucky.

A heavy fire at East Brady, Pa., did $75,000 damages Friday night.

At San Saba, Texas, Thursday, Thomas Jones was killed by his cousin, Wm. Jones, in a quarrel about a horse race.

NEWS BREVITIES.

Tom Stewart died at Waycross, Georgia, from wounds inflicted by Dr. T. A. Harris. The lumber exchange, at Chicago, has advanced the price of lumber fifty cents per 1,000 feet.

John L. Stack, a well known Philadelphia and Reading conductor, was killed by his train at Reading Friday.

Prof. Henry Palmer's party, it is now known was attacked by Bedonins on the 10th of August, and after being robbed were murdered.

A hand-car with five men was overtaken by an express train at midnight Thursday, near Wyandotte, Mich., and Jerry Ryan was killed.

R. T. Cole, of Magnolia, Columbia county, Arkansas, took strychnine, which he mistook for morphine, and death followed two hours later.

President Arthur has refused to commute the sentence of James Gilmore, of Steubenville, who is sentenced to death in Deadwood, Dakota.

Mrs. Seoville, Guiteau's sister, was adjudged insane at Chicago, but before the verdict was rendered she fled from the city. She is probably in Canada.

The action brought by Samuel Wilkeson against Henry Ward Beecher, for breach of contract in failing to complete the "Life of Christ" has been postponed until November 6th.

Mrs. Freylinger, a German woman, living six miles from Kansas City, Mo., shot and killed Mr. Nole Thursday. The trouble grew out of renting of the place in which Mrs. Freylinger lived.

Wm. Hook, a butcher, of Holmesville, Holmes county, O., on Friday shot and seriously injured George Bebee, who had a quarrel about reports that Hook was alleged to have circulated about Bebee's wife.

At Albuquerque, N. M., Friday, in a trivial quarrel about a hat, Tom Lynch, a gambler, slugged C. S. Ferris over the head with a loaded cane, fracturing his skull. Lynch was captured by an officer after a hot chase.

Nicholas J. Hamilton, of Chatham, Ky., who shot John McKibben about a year ago, shot himself Friday by placing a revolver in his mouth, the ball coming out at the back of his head. He will die.

Alvis Regar, a hotel keeper in Buffalo, with his wife and family, were poisoned by pancakes. One child, Frank, is dead; two children may recover. The father and mother are in a precarious condition.

In Milton, Mass., Friday night, James Bell, driver of a baker's wagon, was halted by three masked men with revolvers, dragged from his wagon, beaten and robbed of $40 and then tied to a tree.

The sleeping car Cincinnati, owned and used by John Robinson's Circus Company, was destroyed by fire at Modora, Ind., Friday night, by the bursting of a coal oil lamp. A large amount of wearing apparel belong to the actors was also destroyed. Loss about $2,500.

Henry A. Foster, a cattleman, living on Arkansas river, 30 miles below Arkansas City, suicided Thursday by shooting himself through the head in a fit of despondency. His family lives at West Lafayette, Coshocton county, O.

Charles Schwartz, foreman of the feed department of the Third avenue (New York) street railway company, shot at his uncle, Lewis Lyon, the president of the company, and then killed himself. No cause is assigned for the act.

At New York, the steamship Alena, of the Atlas Line, between this port and the West Indies, leaving the pier Friday afternoon, collided with the United States monitor Nantucket and sank in midstream in about twenty minutes. Three tugs rescued the passengers and crew. The loss on the Alena and cargo is estimated at $150,000. The Nantucket was not much damaged.

An Obscene Literature Vender in Trouble. Special to the Enquirer.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, October 28—Richard Buckley, a saloon-keeper, of No. 1 Champlain street, was found guilty of circulating obscene literature this afternoon in the Police Court, and fined $500 and costs. The obscene literature consisted of business cards, on the backs of which were printed questions taken from the Bible, with the answers, in filthy, indecent language, appended. A motion for a new trial was made and overruled. The police are on the hunt for the printer of the cards.
