

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

WEDNESDAY EVE., NOV. 29, 1882.

ROSSER & McCARTHY, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

THE flakes of snow now coming down, Should make us keep in view A thing that every one of us Ought surely not to do.

REMEMBER the poor.

CHRISTMAS is jogging along.

OYSTER dealers are having a harvest at present.

THE houses lately burned on Market street are rebuilding.

THE Oates entertainment this evening, will be largely attended. Many reserved seats have been sold.

A SECOND crop of tobacco has been housed in some parts of Bracken county, Ky. It is of normal size, but not fully ripened.

THE Emmet Rifles have not yet changed the name of their organization, and to a disinterested outsider it looks very like they do not intend to do so soon.

RESERVED seats for the entertainments Monday and Tuesday evenings, by the Holman Opera Company may be secured for seventy-five cents. Seats should be reserved immediately.

MR. ED. HORRICK was badly hurt last night by falling through a hatchway in the East End Cornet Band room. He fell about ten feet and was so severely injured he had to be carried home.

THE usual Thursday evening prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church will be omitted to-morrow evening as Thanksgiving service will afford all an opportunity to attend church during the day.

MR. Henry E. Shoppmeyer, with his family, will leave for Texas next week. We are sorry that Mr. Shoppmeyer has made up his mind to leave Maysville for he has been a valuable citizen of the community for twenty years and maintained a character as an upright honorable man.

MAYSVILLE Commandery No. 10, of Knights Templar will celebrate their 17th anniversary by a reunion at their asylum, Thursday Nov. 30th. W. Larue Thomas, of Lexington, Past Grand Commander of Kentucky and Grand Junior Warden of the General Grand Encampment of the United States, Hiram Bassett, of Millersburg, Past Grand Commander of Kentucky Rev. G. T. Gould, of Millersburg, and several other distinguished masons will be present.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Miss Etta Allen, of Rising Sun, Ind., is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Nicholson.

Mr. Larue Thomas, of Lexington, Ky., is in the city representing the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, of Newark, N. J., a reliable and solid institution. The policies issued by this company are absolutely nonforfeitable and it is by the terms of the policy impossible to lose the insurance by forfeiture so long as there is a reserve to the credit of the policy.

The Election.

The city ticket at the coming election in January will be made up as follows. Some of the persons named have been formerly announced as candidates and the others have been urged by their friends to enter the field and it is believed will do so:

- FOR MAYOR. Horace January, FOR COUNCILMAN. FIRST WARD.—A. A. Wadsworth, Dr. H. C. Morgan. SECOND WARD.—Thomas J. Chenoweth. THIRD WARD.—R. B. Lovel, E. W. Fitzgerald, John Zech, jr. FOURTH WARD.—B. A. Wallingford. FIFTH WARD.—W. B. Mathews, Thos. Y. Nesbitt, Charles Roberts. MARSHAL. W. W. Watkins, W. B. Dawson, James Redmond, W. L. Martin. DEPUTY MARSHAL. W. H. Perham, James M. Skinner, N. H. Lane, J. F. Price, Charles Dawson, Thomas Stevens. CLERK. Harry Taylor. WHARFMASTER. Robert Ficklin, jr. WOOD AND COAL INSPECTOR. Wm. Davis. MARKET MASTER. M. T. Cockerill.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Boswell opened their doors for the entertainment of their friends on the 27th from two o'clock until ten at night, to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their marriage. All enjoyed the occasion and feasted highly on Chicken, turkey, tongue, oysters, celery, Chickera, salad, salmon, salad, cold s law, pickles, Cranberries and Jelly. Hot rolls, tea and coffee. Fruit cake, white cake, mountain cake, golden cake, ribbon cake. Fruit Salad.

Many presents were received, among which we noticed, first a tin case containing a life insurance policy—Mr. B. to Mrs. B. A coal vase—Wm. Higgins of Portsmouth, Ohio. A novel cake closet, coal scuttle, tin rattle, a tin horn, ladies sewing circle, bread box a tea board from Mrs. Boswell's Sunday School class. Granite wash basin, knife box—Mrs. Boswell, mother of Mr. Boswell. Bread box, tea pot, two oyster pans, cullender, tin cups, carving knife and fork, dozen sorts—Mrs. Hawkins and son, of Huntington. Mother and brother of Mrs. Boswell. Spice box—Mr. and Mrs. Mestford. Crumb brush and pan—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fulton. Spoon casket—Mr. and Mrs. Brookover. Granite kettle—Mrs. Carr.

Holman Opera Company.

Referring to the Holman Opera Company which is to appear here next Monday and Tuesday evenings in "Patience" and "Olivette" the Utica (N. Y.) Daily Observer says:

The Holman English opera company presented the popular opera Olivette in excellent style at the City opera house last evening. The large audience was a very appreciative one, and enjoyed all the good points of the entertainment. Sallie Holman made a bright and sparkling Olivette. Her singing was very good and she received several encores. Miss Blanche Holman sustained the role of Countess in excellent style. Wallace Marcreary met with much favor as Valentine. He possesses a fine tenor voice and sings with much taste and expression. J. H. O'Connor, as the Duc de Lis, was well received. Space forbids individual mention of the other members of the company, but the singing and acting of all were very satisfactory. The choruses were harmonious and rendered in a spirited manner. This evening The Bells of Corneville (Chimes of Normandy) will be presented. The Holmans form a strong company and the audience to-night should be a large one.

New Superintendent.

We are glad to welcome to our city Mr. August Schaeffer, who has been appointed superintendent and assumed charge of the water works. Mr. Schaeffer was for many years superintendent of the Louisville Short Line Railroad, managing that institution with remarkable success. He has put in a hundred, steps leading to the underground connection, and made sundry other improvements at the pump house, to which will be added other corrections at various points in the city, after which the works will be kept in perfect system and order. Mr. Schaeffer will transact all business of the company. Office at the pump house.

At Lexington, Ky., last Friday a prominent jeweler shipped by express to New York a box containing a set of diamond ear-rings valued at $250. On Monday, a lady with the rings in her ears walked into his store. The jeweler claimed the set and took it from her. How they were lost is a mystery.

COUNTY POINTS.

LIMESTONE. Wheat looks very promising. Wonder what they do at the "hen" society. Miss Maggie Bateman is visiting friends at Minerva. Rev. Mr. Reed, of Lexington, will preach here in the school house on the 2d Sunday and the Saturday night preceding of the next month. Spelling matches are getting to be quite frequent of late. And by the way, we have some excellent spellers. The young ladies and gentlemen of this locality met at the home of Miss Lucy Bateman on last Thursday night, and organized a literary society. They will meet at Mrs. Jacob Reed's to-night. AMATEUR.

SHANNON.

Farmers are about through gathering corn. Hogs are rapidly dying with the cholera. W D Gault sports the finest turnout in this vicinity. R T Watson has returned from Ill., and reports game scarce. Farmers are disposing of their hogs at 6 1/4 cts per pound, some few lots yet unsold. Prof C F Park, of West Liberty, paid our village a flying visit Sunday. Come again Prof. W H Cole has secured a turkey for Thanksgiving, we trust he will remember the unfortunate ones. J B Hunter and C C Cole of the firm of Cole & Co. attended County Court at Flemingsburg on Monday last.

The Mite Society held at the residence of Rev Spates at Sardis, on Saturday evening last was a success. The next will be held at Mr Charles Bland's Saturday evening, Dec. 2nd.

Just note the beaming countenance of C C Cole since his return from Flemingsburg. Look out for orange blossoms.

Don't forget to drop in and see the new stock of goods at Cole & Co's. They keep nothing but the best and sell at bottom prices.

A game of base ball was played at Murphysville on Saturday last, between the "Rat Tails" of that place and the "Bull Minners" of this, for the championship, scoring fifteen to thirteen. "WASP."

Card.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 25, 1882. John B. Poyntz, jr., Agent, Insurance Company of North America—Dear Sir: Accept my thanks for the promptness with which your company paid the loss on my house, destroyed by fire November 21st. It was but four days from the time of the fire until I received the full amount due me. Such promptness and liberality commends itself to everybody having property to insure, Respectfully, n29.11t JAMES THRELKELD.

The Best.

There are other good cooking stoves and A. J. Egnew & Co., keeps them in stock, but if there are two stoves in existence which lay just claims to superiority in many respects over all others they are the OMAHA AND HOT BLAST CHARTER. We have not the space here to point out their many merits but call at our establishment on Market street and we will take great pleasure in doing so there, whether you wish to buy the stove or not. We consider it the best stove in the market. oct30d&w1m. A. J. EGNEW & Co.
