

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 23, 1883.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

THE candidates are on the track
With toes down at the line,
And all alert with ears pricked up
To hear the starting sign.
And off they'll scoot like meteors
To get into the mark,
And they will go, you bet, my friend,
Like Hades heating bark.

Try Langdon's City Butter Crackers.

The Emmet Rifles are expected to arrive at home to-morrow.

Go and see Howorth's Hibernica to-night at the Opera House.

The river banks in East Maysville were badly washed by the late flood.

For rubber stamps of all kinds, call on A. Soeries & Son. Prices very low.

The planing mill and the saw mills are getting ready for a brisk business this season.

Mr. J. W. PIERCE's warehouse, at the Upper Blue Lick Springs, was much damaged by the recent freshet in Licking river.

THERE is some talk of the establishment at Lexington, by Eastern capitalists, of a Trust Company with a capital of $3,000,000.

The Town Council of Augusta has passed an ordinance which prohibits stock of any kind from running at large within the corporate limits.

The water works are in better condition than ever. The new Superintendent, Mr. Shaffer, has made many improvements already, and is contemplating other important ones. More than $3,000 have been expended in that way this winter.

The following marriage licenses have been issued in Brown county, Ohio, since our last report:

N. N. Kowell and Hannah Davis.
Chas. F. Crouch and Flora Crist.
Augusta E. Earhart and Julia A. Stansberry.
Adolph Sountag and Louise Meinig.
James B. Gardner and Luicilla Foore.

The income problem propounded by the BULLETIN several weeks ago has been correctly solved by Master Charles J. Ort, a pupil in the junior class of the Ironton, O., High School, and a son of Mr. Lewis P. Ort, formerly of this city. He is evidently a bright boy.

Howorth's Grand Hibernica and Comedy Company will appear at the Opera House this evening and at a matinee this afternoon at half-past two o'clock. If you wish to be most pleasantly entertained you will not fail to be there. The following notice of this troupe is from the Kansas City Times:

Of all the troupes that have visited this somewhat famous show town, none have ever come and gone away bearing with them higher esteem of classes than Howorth's "Hibernica." Mr. Howorth's troupe is an honor to the profession in every particular.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mrs. Alvin Means, of East Maysville, is confined to her room by indisposition.

Mr. Charles P. Shockley, and Mrs. Phil Hise, of East Maysville, are very sick.

Mr. Moss Taylor, formerly of the W. P. Thompson, has been appointed second clerk of the Fleetwood.

DOOMED!

E. CRAFT.

Craft Convicted of Murder and to be Sentenced To-day—Soldiers on Their Way Home.

Special to the DAILY BULLETIN.

GRAYSON, Feb. 23, 1883.

The case of Craft was given to the jury yesterday. After a short session the court adjourned until to-day. The jury was called this morning again and after being out fifteen minutes rendered a verdict of guilty. The sentence will be passed this afternoon at one o'clock. The troops will start for home this evening.

COUNTY POINTS.

MURPHYSVILLE.

Mrs. William Wells is on the sick list. Dr. Gault went to Cincinnati with tobacco, last Monday.

William Hudson sold his place to James Kenard, last week.

Merrell Parry went to Cincinnati, Monday last to sell a crop of tobacco.

Miss Etna Prather, of Fern Leaf, made this place a flying visit last Sunday.

A number large number attended the ball at Sardis, from this place last Monday night.

Some Maysville butchers killed two beeves here last Friday to supply their market. Their slaughter house was under water.

Otto Mullin started to Indiana, Monday. He has been delayed some time on account of high water, but made the bold start at last.

Jean Berry will go to Illinois and Missouri, soon with his patent swingle-tree. Jean it seems to us like you had been going swingle long enough.

Joe Stevenson was considerably under the weather last week. Carrying the bundle of valentines to the post office that he sent is supposed to be the difficulty.

This is the time of the year for taffy. We mean the genuine article that is made from maple syrup. That is the kind we are particularly fond of; in fact you can't give us any other kind, and don't you forget it.

There are at least two young men of this place who have been greatly hurt, if not damaged by the recent floods. There "Jularkers" lived on the opposite bank, and owing to high water they were unable to make their regular Sunday visit. Oh, vain hopes and bleeding noses, how sad.

The speculators of this and Shannon neighborhood, who have been dealing in Chicago change, closed out their stock lately, and the change is a little scarcer than when they went in. Nothing, we think, will be more to their interest than a radical change. Experience costs something at times.

Real estate is changing hands right lively, and at good figures. John Worthington, especially, is moving things. He sold one place to Horace Fleming, one to Dr. Gault, and Scott Stevenson, then bought John Paul's farm, all in a very few days. John takes possession next month and offers a rowling dance as a tarter.

Now we are going to have trouble to find some one to take the post office. Mr. Paul will resign this month. Although the location of the office was not a very desirable one, Mr. Paul made a splendid postmaster and our citizens not only regret to lose him in this capacity, but are sorry that he is going to move away. Nobody seems to be very anxious to take the office, but we can not lose it by any means. Mr. George Wood will probably keep it at the mill.

Misses Alma Biggen and Carrie Zollitt, Messrs. George Glascock and Hall Politt, all of Keosauqua, visited friends here last week. The boys went home last week, and the young ladies will remain sometime yet. Hall says the mud roads are terrible, but after you get out on the pike a piece, the "Rhoades" are lovely.

If naught be done to stop these floods,
We'll all be swept away;
None will be left to tell the tale,
Nobody left to pray,
No, not even

ELL.

SHANNON.

Robt. Chanslor, one of our worthy citizens, has gone to Bourbon county to look out a location.

Henry Jefferson is now at Millersburg painting his residence. He contemplates moving in a few weeks.

Bourbon county fever is raging very high in South Shannon, while the Texas fever is raging equally as high in the main town.

The friends of Mrs. Martha Stevenson will regret, no doubt, to learn that she is not improving as rapidly as she could. Very little change, if any in the last few days.

Tobacco in this vicinity is most all stripped and ready for sale. We have about an average crop this time, both in quantity and quality. There are a great many who desire to sell.

Prof. W. L. McKee and W. T. Browning paid a visit to your city Saturday. They say that they don't wonder at the river being on a bender after swallowing up 1,000 barrels of old Bourbon.

Thos. Reese, our ex-tobacco merchant, started East last Saturday. After his arrival at your city he was told that he could not go by Cincinnati, he remarked that if he could not go as he wanted to, he would stay at home. Tom, came back.

An oyster supper was given at the school house at this place for the benefit of (or rather in honor of) the Chicago stock holders. A great number of said stockholders were present, but still some failed to respond to the roll call and were marked absent by the secretary, W. H. Cole. The stockholders of the same company at Sardis were invited out, but only two made their appearance. The next supper will be given at Sardis.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine for every one in the Spring. Emigrants and Travelers will find in it an effectual cure for the eruptions, boils, pimples, eczema, etc., that break out on the skin—the effect of disorder in the blood caused by sea-diet and life on board ship.

It is a good rule to accept only such medicines as have, after long years of trial, proved worthy of confidence. This is a case where other people's experience may be of great service, and it has been the experience of thousands that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best cough medicine ever used.
