8,000 CATTLE ON THE MT. STERLING MARKET

Quality Good, Sales Brisk and Fair Prices Are Realized.

MT. STERLING, Ky., Oct. 20.—Monday was October court day and there was, as usual, an immense crowd in town and at the stock pens. There were on the market about 8,000 cattle and the quality was good. Trade was brisk and scales were kept busy. The best 1100 pound cattle brought $4.10, but bulk of sales at 3 3/4@4c; yearlings from 3 1/4@3 3/4 cents; heifers from 2 1/2@3 1/4 cents the last price being for some 800 pound fat heifers; cows from 2 to 3 cents. Some of the best sales reported are R. L. Kern, of Carlisle, bought eighteen 825 pound heifers of W. T. Vango at 3 1/4c; Lewis Rogers, of Bourbon county, bought forty 1,000 pound steers of B. T. Qalyers at 4 cents; Charles Rose sold twenty-two 700 pound steers to J. H. Gay, of Winchester, at 3 cents; Stanley Prewitt, of Clark county, bought thirteen 925 pound steers of Edward Cecil at 3 1/2 cents; Anderson Bogie sold a bunch of 950 pound steers to R. A. Ratliff, of Bath county at 3 1/2c; Lucien Bridgeforth bought nineteen 1,050 pound steers of C. E. Hisle at 4 cents; Jas. B. Hoskins bought seventeen 850 pound steers of Campbell Gibson at 3 3/4 cents; H. V. Thompson, of Bourbon, bought a bunch of 1,200 pound steers of Anderson Bogie at $3.65; Milton Lykins sold a bunch of 900 pound yearlings at 3 1/2c; James McCormick sold eleven 850 pound steers to Robert C. Gatewood at 3 3/4 cents; Charles Rose sold twenty heifers at 2 1/2 cents; Marshall Myers sold six 950 pound steers to R. N. Ratliff, of Bath county, at 3 3/4 cents; William Byrd sold ten 950 pound steers to A. O. Robertson, of Bourbon county at 3 1/2 cents; James Hinton sold eighteen 860 pound steers to Dan Welch at 3 1/2 cents; Richard Conner sold forty-three 1,125 pound steers to Marcus Prewitt at $4.10; Silas Campbell bought a bunch of 700 pound yearlings of Lockridge Bros. at 3 3/4 cents; W. W. Gay bought ten 1,120 pound steers of Fred McCormick at 4 cents; John Steper purchased twenty-five 1,050 pound steers of Cronch & Co., at $3.85; L. M. Stewart, of Paris, bought twenty-eight 1,025 pound steers of H. C. Ledford at 4 cents. There were more big cattle on the market than in years at this season, and it is believed the scarcity of water and grass is the cause. Quite a good run of sheep, some selling at $4.50 to $6.50 per head. There was many mules on the market but sales were few as to good ones. Some suckings were sold at $50 to $70. Heavy mules were off in price and no demand. James W. White sold twenty-one yearling mules to Thomas Dunlap, of Midway, at a private figure, but it is known the price was way below that paid by Mr. Dunlap in this section a year ago. The horse market was very dull, although there were a number of buyers here looking for fancy stuff. Plugs brought $30 to $85, with good horses selling at $100 to $150.

A BIT TOO STRENUOUS.

Fruit Dealer About to Hang Boy Who Stole Three Apples. CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—As he was about to revenge the theft of three apples from his fruit stand by hanging seven-year-old Eugene J. O'Brien George Papas, sixteen years old, was overpowered in his room yesterday by a policeman who was compelled to break down the door of the house to gain admission. Within a few minutes from the time the Greek had been seen to seize the boy in the street, a rope was found with one end about the child's neck and the other placed over a transom.

BURGLAR PROOF VAULT FOR THE STATE PAPERS.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 20.—The Capitol Commission has accepted a vault that will be burglar proof in which the State papers of value and bonds will be kept without fear of the yeggs breaking into it. The deposits of bonds amounting to many thousands of dollars belonging to insurance companies and foreign corporations deposited here under the law has been kept in the care and custody of the State Treasurer in the past, but they will be kept in the custody of the Secretary of State in the future.

THE WOMAN GOLF CHAMPION OF AMERICA.

Miss Margaret Curtis of Boston has held the national woman's amateur golf championship for 1908. The Curtis family is especially strong on golf, another sister, Harriet, having been the title holder in 1906. The championship has been kept in New England for the past three years.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 20.—Mr. H. W. Aldenberg, widely known as an architect, was found dead lying on the bed in his room in the boarding house of Mrs. Jennie Goetz, over the printing establishment of Welch & Murray on South Limestone street, Monday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock. The coroner's jury returned a verdict stating that the man had come to his death by a hemorrhage of the lungs. The jury also reported that the man had died some time Saturday.

Mr. Aldenberg drew the plans of the Brown-Proctoria Hotel, the Citizens Bank building and the Elks Club building and several residences here. He made many friends here during his various visits all of whom express deep regret over his sudden death.

BAGPIPE MUSIC.

Winchester is being treated to plenty of music such as it is. The barrel organ and monkey are run by one pair of artists. The other pair are blowers of the bagpipe. The bagpipe is one of the oldest of musical instruments known. It is mentioned in scripture 1 Sam. X, 5. Isaiah V, 12; Jer. XLVIII, 36.

The music is popular in the highlands of Scotland and the Alps region. A Scotchman was very ill in a hospital. With the hope of reviving him his friends had two pipers to come and play during the night. The next morning the nurse reported the Scotch highlander better, and the other patients dead.

AN APPRECIATION.

Mr. Clark Tanner, Circulation manager, The News, Winchester, Ky. Dear Sir:

CLAY CITY, Ky., Oct. 17.—The bundle of News received this a. m. and have been passed out. If it will be any favor to you, I can get you many subscribers here. Let me have your rates by return mail, as I am always glad to assist any good cause in Winchester.

The News is all right and just what Winchester has been needing for a long time. Everyone here speaks in the very highest terms of The Winchester News.

Very truly yours, O. C. FLYNN.

ARRESTED TUESDAY.

Tom Reed, the well-known market man who lives in the north end of the city, was arrested Tuesday afternoon on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. It required the main strength of officer Ballard and three other men to place him under arrest. He was brought from the north end of town to the court house on the street car and packed from there to the jail.

GOES TO LEXINGTON.

W. R. Thomas, B. R. Jouett, and H. H. Phillips left Tuesday morning for Lexington in an automobile to attend the meeting of the Blue Grass Baseball League managers there.

SIX CARLOADS OF FEEDING CATTLE.

Sold By J. W. and Harvey Hunt For 4 and 4 1/2 Cents Per Pound.

J. W. and Harvey Hunt, of this county, shipped Monday to H. Umphery and Company, of Homingdale, Ill., six car loads of feeding cattle. The average weight was about 1,200 lbs. They were sold for 4 and 4 1/2 cents per pound, which is considered a very good price in view of the drouth and other unfavorable conditions of the live stock market. This is the biggest sale of cattle made here since the drouth.

We will offer this week seventy-five odds and ends men's suits worth from $10 to 18.50 for $5 sizes from 34 to 37. VIC BLOOMFIELD.

A DUTCH COTTAGE.

Mr. F. G. Cornell, of the Eagle Casting Company, is erecting on the south side of French avenue a residence or unique appearance and marked convenience. It is of the Dutch style of architecture. The lay of ground is well suited for the structure. It is on the hill at the dividing line between the waters of the Kentucky and Licking rivers. The mountains twenty miles away can be seen from the eastern end of the building.

The structure is square with a hip roof. The basement is of cement and all of the space under the house is utilized. The furnace room will be fitted with a heater of Mr. Cornell's own design and manufacture. The library, dining room, kitchen, pantry, etc., are on the first floor. Family and bath rooms on the second floor. On the third or attic floor will be located the billiard room and storage apartment. Many large closets are in different parts of the house. The house is plain without ornamentation.

The grounds are laid out in attractive form. When completed, this will be one of the most desirable homes in the city.

TO HEAR BRYAN AT LOUISVILLE

About thirty Winchester people left Tuesday morning for Louisville to hear Mr. Bryan speak there Tuesday night and to attend the State meeting of the Masonic Lodge. Most of them will stop at Lexington and go from there on the special train that will leave there Tuesday afternoon.

We will offer this week seventy-five odds and ends men's suits worth from $10 to 18.50 for $5, sizes from 34 to 37. VIC BLOOMFIELD.
