WHAT'S A "GOOD NEWSPAPER?"

The Scranton Tribune gives the following ten points of a good newspaper:

A good newspaper tells the news, as faithfully and truthfully as it can, without fear and without favor, and comments on it with the best intelligence it can command.

A good newspaper is in league with all men and women who think, and with all the agencies that strive for the happiness of the people.

A good newspaper shields no wrong that ought to be exposed and stops at no truth that ought to be uttered.

A good newspaper does not lend itself to the making of strife between citizens, neither rages like a demagogue nor weeps with a charlatan.

A good newspaper has ideals, believes in progress, and wins its way by courage, plain speaking and fair dealing.

A good newspaper assembles each day as much of the good things that are done in the world as it can find and no more of the foul than it must.

A good newspaper has political opinions and may belong to a party but it cannot be an organ and keep the high faith of the best journalism.

A good newspaper knows no boss, leans to no petty satrap of office, and owes no allegiance but to that which is believed to be true.

A good newspaper is run on business principles and should make money and prosper like any other business, but probably won't if that is its sole aim.

A good newspaper takes a cheerful view of the world, is kind to human failings, and helps men more by entertaining them than by ranting and scolding at them.

COURT HOUSE DESERTED.

The court house and street corners looked very much deserted Wednesday morning as all the candidates for county offices left the city going to Indian Fields to mingle in the crowd that attended the sale of farm implements and stock and crop of Mrs. Ida M. Goff. The absence of the broad smile and glad hand shake that is so characteristic of the candidates for county offices was so noticeable around the court house that it attracted the attention of more people than the quill pusher for The News.

Persistent advertising is absolutely necessary for the man who has a good thing to sell, for the people will forget.

POKER GAME SUIT.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 16.—A poker game suit was reversed by the Court of Appeals today from the Kenton Circuit Court in the case of Park Roberts against J. B. Respass and others. Roberts sued for $3,500 alleged to have been lost in a poker game conducted by Respass and others in Covington, but lost in the lower court. The court here by Commissioner Clay, reverses for a new trial on the ground that the lower court erred in not instructing the jury that the mere fixing of a place and setting up a game was invitation to play.

Great Scott!

If our people don't know a good thing when they see it, no use of looking for people who do.

We mean this in candid sincerity, and we want to thank the people who have so generously heeded our solicitations for their work in the last six weeks.

We are now adding to our force at the rate of one man a day.

And now that the Tobacco money is soon to become a Prodigal Son, lets all put our shoulders to the wheel of prosperity, and show the world that Winchester is not only the home of the largest deals, but is the largest 10,000 city of this glorious America. And that the
