SOCIETY

Literary and Social Club.

Miss Alice Porter entertained the Literary and Social Club, Thursday in a sweet and attractive manner.

The Club on this occasion took up the study of that grand old poet, Lord Byron.

Misses Richie Lane and Margaret Sphar read most interesting and clever papers on "The Life of Lord Byron."

Miss Florrie Smith in her attractive way recited a poem from Lord Byron.

Miss Winnie Garrett delighted her audience with several beautiful songs. Her voice is very sweet and plaintive. After the program, an elegant menu was served.

Among those present were: Mrs. William H. French, Misses Anna Mae Hisle, Margaret Sphar, Florrie Smith, Sara Beverly Jonett, Sara Goodloe Benton, Richie Lane, Illa and Lucy Stewart, Katherine Nelson, Nancy Hodgkin, Jeannette Tracy, Margaret McKinley, Owen Porter, Clay Croxton and Emma Lee Taylor.

Christmas Dance.

The dance to be given on Christmas eve at the Auditorium bids fair to be one of the best given in Winchester since the "Drones" disbanded. The entire Auditorium will be turned over to the dancers and their friends for this occasion. The young men who have assumed the management of this dance wish to announce that those who desire to come as spectators may secure complimentary tickets, as every young lady and gentleman who participates in the dancing that evening has the privilege of inviting whom they choose.

Saxton & Trost's entire orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion, and therefore the very best music is assured.

The grand march will be led by Mr. Lewis Hampton and Miss Ethel Thomas. There will be many visitors here from a distance, and all are expecting a great time.

Miss White Entertains.

Miss Mary White entertained the Euchre Club, Wednesday evening at her home on Haggard street in her inimitable way. The house was charmingly decorated in holly and mistletoe in every conceivable place. There were eight tables and the games were played hard for every point. Mrs. C. B. George won the lady's prize, a handsome picture, and Mr. Tom Lloyd won the gentleman's prize, a silver handled whisk broom and holder, while Mr. James McCourt and Miss Genevieve Conway won the booby prizes. After the games were finished, an elegant meat course was served.

The next meeting of the Club will be with Mrs. M. J. Toohy.

Euchre and Forty-two.

Mrs. J. M. Jenkins will entertain with a "Euchre" in the afternoon and "Forty-two" in the evening of Wednesday, December 23.

THE CHRISTMAS STAMP.

Every town in the Blue Grass, except Winchester seems to be doing its duty by the Red Cross Christmas stickers. Nearly 5,000 were sold in Lexington Thursday and they have ordered 50,000 more. Another order came from Georgetown to Lexington the fourth, and from Danville for 3,000 more.

Carlisle has received 1,000 stamps and reports the demand more active on a rising market.

The following letter to the Secretary of the Winchester Commercial Club explains itself:

"Dear Sir—Richmond has ordered 2,500 Christmas stamps, Danville 4,500, Paris, 10,000, and Winchester 500.

"Hopefully yours,
"CHRISTMAS STAMP COMMITTEE."

The proceeds of the stamp sale will go toward obliterating tuberculosis from the State of Kentucky. Winchester has ordered a second 500 and they are now on sale at C. H. Bowen's, Phillips Drug Company and Barrett, the photographer.
