Murderous Minister Slashes Throat With Knife.

LEFT CONFESSION OF CRIME

Admits Killing Browning in Lonely Country Church While Under Later's Hypnotic Influence and After He Had Been Attacked by Carpenter With Knife—Letter Describes Horrible Tragedy and Method of Disposing of Body.

Carthage, Ill., Jan. 12.—Rev. John H. Carmichael, who last Tuesday night in the little Methodist church at Rattle Run, Mich., killed Gideon Browning, the village carpenter, and then buried the body in the stove, committed suicide here by cutting his throat with a pocketknife.

He died at the county hospital after he had been taken from the boarding house of Mrs. Miranda Hughes, where as a stranger he had been living since last Friday.

In a long letter found in his suitcase Carmichael told in detail the story of the killing of Browning; how he had fallen a victim to Browning's hypnotic power and, meeting him in the church Tuesday night, was compelled to obey every command; how finally when Browning attacked him with knives, he (Carmichael) defended himself with a hatchet. After killing his victim with the hatchet, he said the red-hot stove in the church suggested itself as the best method of disposing of the body. Before putting the body in the stove, however, he exchanged some of the dead man's clothing for his own, which had become bespattered with blood.

Committee Fails to Agree.
Washington, Jan. 12.—The house committee on rivers and harbors again failed to reach a conclusion to report a general rivers and harbors bill this session. It is understood, however, that a majority of the committee favor a measure appropriating about $10,000,000 for surveys, for emergencies and for the maintenance of projects under way. The committee will meet again Saturday in an effort to reach a definite conclusion, but it is practically certain that no general bill will be reported.

Success, Unbalances Mind.
Norwalk, O., Jan. 12.—Unexpected success at the polls has warped the mind of Keith Van Horn, surveyor-elect of Huron county, who was swept into office by the landslide that elected every Democratic nominee but one. Van Horn, who has been affected with nervous troubles before, began to show signs of derangement soon after the result of the November election was made known. He was declared insane and taken to the state asylum at Toledo.

Ohio's Funds Transferred.
Columbus, O., Jan. 12.—The transfer of the state funds from retiring State Treasurer Green to the incoming official, D. S. Creamer, was made. The balance showed a total of $6,891,149.72, of which $500,000 is in the active depositories, the Commercial National and Union National banks of this city, and $6,391,149.72 is in the inactive state depositories. The cash balance was $231,649.72.

Hold Fighters in Tent.
Warren, O., Jan. 12.—Pete Stoney and Nick Soldic, locked in the Warren jail, charged with shooting to kill, were held prisoners for two hours by fellow workmen on the Tidewater pipe line, who pulled a tent down upon them and sat on the edges of the canvas till Sheriff Moser and Chief of Police Flower arrived to make arrests.

Glass Factory to Resume.
Charlestown, W. Va., Jan. 12.—The West Fork Glass company announced that its plant will start blowing glass at midnight Jan. 15, under the Burns scale. The company will not sign the scale, but will work under that basis. Only one window glass factory in this section has failed to make an agreement with employees.

Priest Stricken With Paralysis.
LaCrosse, Wis., Jan. 12.—Stricken with paralysis while in the confessional hearing the confession of a penitent member of his congregation, the Rev. John Sroka, pastor of the largest Polish church in the diocese of LaCrosse, was picked up unconscious and died at St. Francis hospital. He was 48 years old.

Miners Walk Out.
Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 12.—All of the coal miners, 1,000 in number, in and around Coalgate, Okla., walked out of the mines following a dispute with the mine operators regarding the observance of a state law providing that only sufficient blasting powder for one day's use be carried into a mine.

Grows White Strawberries.
Berkeley, Cal., Jan. 12.—A white strawberry, which will grow throughout the year and is superior to the common red strawberry, which survives but a few months, is the latest creation of Huga Lilienthal, horticulturist of this city.

CHICAGO, January 11.—An array of bearish news greeted traders in the wheat market here today and, in consequence, an easy tone was manifested at the start, prices at the opening being unchanged to 1/4 cent lower, as compared with the previous close. The world's shipments for the week were larger than had been generally expected and a preliminary estimate of the wheat crop of Russia indicated considerable increase over that of last year.

TAFT ATTENDS BARBECUE

Also Talks to Lawyers in Defense of Supreme Court.
Augusta, Ga., Jan. 12.—Auspicious feeding was the principal occupation of the president-elect. He did full justice to the most famous of the widely reputed barbecues of Charles S. Bohler, given on his extensive cotton plantation, about 10 miles from town, and later he faced a spread of "possum and 'taters, besides a menu of heavy dimensions, as the guest of the local bar association. Mr. Taft had to divide the honors. At the barbecue he distinguished himself by eating, while at the banquet he went noticeably light on the food, but came in strong on the oratory. It was nearly banquet time when Mr. Taft got back from his heavily-laden board, and he remarked with some feeling that sleep was really what nature craved. However, always at home, and more than usual at his ease among lawyers, his after-dinner speech was a medley of interesting comments on law and the legal profession. He described the attractions of the lawyer's life and of the life of the judge, and expressed his regret on leaving that life. It was Mr. Taft's remarks on the supreme court of the United States, however, that attracted the keenest attention. He described this body and the weight and importance which attach to its decisions as a new element in civilization. Its benefits were apparent and its usefulness was a growing one, particularly in the settlement of constitutional questions. It was true, he said, that we had gone to war once through ignoring this tribunal.

A BOTTLE, A DAY, A MAN.

Only one more proof. Only one more occasion to know what a bottle will do. Listen:

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 17, 08. The Rheumaline Co., Cincinnati, Ohio:

Gentlemen—I had suffered with scientific rheumatism for years, the attacks coming on each winter. Had an extremely severe attack a short time ago, and was confined in bed suffering excruciating pain. Purchased a bottle of Rheumaline from The Taylor Isaacs Drug Co., and in one day I was out of bed and continued to improve. After using this one bottle, I feel I am entirely well. Of course, I shall keep the treatment up a while longer to prevent any chance of a recurrent attack. Believe me when I say I cannot recommend it too highly.

Respectfully,
CHAS. F. SCHMIDT.
Jeffersontown, Ky.

Now here is a chance to prove something. Sit right down now and write Mr. Schmidt. Just think; one bottle, one day, and gone. But that's what Rheumaline can and will do for you if you give it a chance, for Rheumaline is the only logical cure for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Gout and Kidney, Liver, Bladder, Stomach and Blood troubles caused by Uric Acid, and it will not injure the stomach nor affect the heart as it contains no injurious drugs or opiates. Its cost is $1.00. Rheumaline capsules stop severe pain and cost 50c per box. When constipated, Rheumaline tablets only should be used. They cost 25c. The three may be procured right here in our own town from the best, most up-to-date drug store here. And who? Why The Phillips Drug Co., of course. Now hurry up and help yourself. Get Rheumaline. It removes the cause.

TRIBUTE.

Mrs. Dora Pruitt.
The slender form of Dora, beautiful young wife of Mr. Marshall Pruitt, lies calm, cold and motionless within the bright home where only a few short months ago she entered, with all the pride and joyous radiance of young wifehood.

Upon that mystic curtain which separates us all from that which is past, my mental stereoscope casts a picture of her sweet young face as it then was, so bright and lovely, with the clear, pure eyes of budding womanhood and the soft, sweet mouth of a winsome child,—and with the passing of this picture, there takes its place, with startling distinctness, the bowed form of the stalwart young husband beside his child-wife's empty chair.

Thus, my friend, is each human life but a series of fleeting pictures, each following the other with such rapidity that e'er we grasp the outline of life, the curtain bears the impress of death.

God grant that when those who are left behind are called upon to face the last grim spectral view upon the Curtain of Time allotted to us, we may do so with the same calm fearlessness which marked the passing away of little Dora,—and may He give of his Peace into the lives of those who are so sadly bereaved by her departure, until they, in the fullness of their faith and understanding, may be heard to murmur: "It is better as it is."
Goldie Perry.
