OUR ANIMALS.

We ought to have a society in Winchester for the prevention of cruelty to animals. Here we are in the center of an agricultural region where the horse is everything and we often see that animal abused in the streets of the city.

Many ignorant and sometimes brutal drivers insist on overloading their wagons and when the animals balk on the hills try by beating to make them drag a too-heavy load. The drivers are apt to be insolent when remonstrated with.

Again there are some few animals being driven which ought to be in the hobbyard. They are old and decrepit and have seen their best days.

We all know these things but we pay little attention to them. There is only one way to do and that is to organize. Ladies and gentlemen should form a society that has for its object the protection of animals.

PERRYGRAPHS.

The graft exposures are not evidences of greater depravity. On the contrary it shows an awakening that must result in better things for the future.

Grafters have no politics.

Men sometimes say very foolish things just before an election.

The only excuse for a commission government is the fact that under the present forms graft appears to be inevitable.

We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the National Rivers and Harbors Congress at Washington, D.
C., December 7, 8 & 9.

Democratic insurgency in the South is almost as pronounced as Republican insurgency in the North, but less is said about it.

The man who proposes to tear down, unless he has a plan for a better structure is not wise.

A lady and a good Republican writing from another State makes this unique expression: "I never think of Mr. Tariff as filling the Presidential chair, but as occupying space temporarily at the White House."

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 1.—Former State Senator J. W. Newman, of Versailles, has been chosen by the United States Government to put on auspices of the Government in Porto Rico. A cablegram announcing his selection for the important position was received by Senator Newman Monday.

The State Fair Board has granted Secretary Newman a leave of absence until next March, at which time, his duties in Porto Rico will end. He is instructed in the cablegram repeated

Blown Off?

If you do, just go looking for that gas leak in the cellar or any other place. If the gas is leaking don't risk being seriously injured by hunting the leak yourself. Call us over the phone and we'll send a plumber whose business it is to find and stop leaks. Delays are dangerous—let us send a man at once.

CATCHING COLD.
[From an editorial in Register and Leader, Des Moines, Ia.] This thing of catching cold whenever the weather changes suddenly or we sit or sleep in a draft is all nonsense. We have this revolutionary doctrine not merely on the authority of Christian Science, but also on the authority of a regular allopathic M. D., duly graduated and admitted and of enough consequence in his profession to be allowed to set forth his ideas in a leading medical journal, the Medical Record.
Without a bit of fear of conquencing this man, Dr. William Brady, of Elmira, N. Y., declares that catching cold is a mere "hozy". Those who have lived in the fresh air, summer and winter, know from experience that the doctor is right, and they laugh at the deluded fear of sudden weather changes and drafts.
