

THE CLIMAX.

FRENCH TIPTON, WM. G. WHITE.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1887.

Democratic Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR, SIMON B. BUCKNER, of Hart County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, THOMAS W. BRYAN, of Keston County.

FOR TREASURER, JAMES W. KATE, of Woodford County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, T. W. HARRIS, of Meigs County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, FLETCHER HEWITT, of Meigs County.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION, JON. DEWHA HARRIS, of Fayette County.

FOR RECEIVER OF LAND OFFICE, THOMAS W. BRYAN, of Meigs County.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE, A. T. CHESNAULT.

For County Superintendent of Schools, MRS. AMANDA T. MILLION.

RAILROAD MEETING.

Col. Bennett Young and Hon. Thomas W. Blunt, representing the Louisville Southern Railroad, met a large number of the people of Madison county at the Court-house, yesterday.

Mr. Jones, above referred to, lives at Mt. Vernon, and is a Republican. Upon hearing that he had been cited as authority for saying General Buckner's speech was borrowed, wrote to the Courier-Journal that he did not so inform Mr. Bradley, he merely suggested that the speech contained expressions that sounded as if coming from Knott, and that Bradley had made the charge at Stanford before he and Bradley had any conversation on the subject.

So it seems that Mr. Bradley fired with a kicking gun, and not only missed the target, but got badly "dunked" by the recoil.

We thought the Democrats of Garrett too sharp for such traps; but the worst feature of the affair is that he set the trap himself.

Mr. Tim G. Needham, the well-known temperance speaker, has been nominated by the Democrats of Grant county, for the Legislature. Although a temperance man, he is a Democrat, and does not go off after strange gods, hence is not for Fox for Governor.

Krupp, the famous German inventor and maker of cannons, is dead.

Jessamine County Democracy is inharmonious, and W. T. Jones, nominee for the Legislature, has withdrawn from the race. Baldwin, what is the matter over here?

The Democrats of Bryant's station, Fayette county, will have a fine old barbecue to-day. The speakers are Carlisle, Breckinridge and Blackburn. There never was a time when the Democracy all over the State was so thoroughly aroused.

The Democratic barbecue at Lancaster was attended by people from all the adjoining counties, and by many from even other counties. There was an abundance of dinner, and great enthusiasm. The speakers were Senator Bryan, Hon. Evan Settle, Senators Beck and Blackburn, Senator Harris, Congressman McCreary, and many others. Col. Garrard will give a Democratic majority.

Capt. Phil Thompson, otherwise more familiarly known as "Old Phil" Thompson, the Democratic candidate for the Legislature in Mercer county, is not to be left at home, notwithstanding the combination against him. The Courier-Journal says: "The Republicans and Prohibitionists in Mercer county have combined in a vain effort to defeat Capt. Phil B. Thompson, Sr., for the House, and while their candidate conducts a still hunt, a lady will deliver temperance addresses in his interest in every precinct. The Democrats are active and will not be defeated."

Gen. S. B. Buckner, Democratic candidate for Governor, spoke at the Court-house in Richmond on last Saturday night. In the audience were numbers of enthusiastic Democrats from the county. Gen. Buckner is a distinguished looking man, possessing an imposing bearing, but is not an orator. In a mild but pleasant conversational way, he gave his views on the various vital questions of the day. That part of his speech relating to the origin and formation of the Government would have been a capital lecture before the students of the University. While the speech elicited little applause, it was replete with sense and facts.

He was introduced by Senator Harris.

A list of appointments running right up to the August election has been issued by the State Democratic Central Committee with the following speakers: Buckner, Beck, Hardin, Carlisle, McKenzie, Breckinridge, Adams, Owens and Bryan. Other speakers have other appointments to fill, and the political pot is to be kept boiling until the last day. Kentucky's old-time and usual large majority need not be a surprise. Col. Wm. O. Bradley's eloquent speeches

CONCERNING FARMERS.

Trouble our men the month crop on Thursday in 304.

The first sale of cotton from Texas this season sold in New York at 23 cents per pound.

Armon's Chicago dressed beef has been entirely crowded out of the Lexington market.

Blanche Bros., of South Elkhorn, Fayette county, got 361 bushels of wheat to the acre.

Gen. W. T. Withers reports that the sales of horses from Fairfax since January number twenty-eight head for $28,000.—Lex. Press.

Hogs keep up fairly well in price, and now that we have a chance for another good corn crop we look for an advance and stiffer prices.—Winchester Democrat.

G. A. Whitney, of Montgomery county, has bought several first-class mule colts in the eastern parts of Clark county at prices ranging from $60 to $80.

An exchange says that one man in Trimble county has been offered $20,000 for his peach orchard and refused to accept it. Another has offered 110,000 boxes to hold one bushel each, to ship his crop in.

J. S. Berry, of Montgomery county, has sold 450,000 pounds of tobacco to Messrs. Goodspeed, of Uvingsville, at $1 and 10 cents per pound, netting Mr. Berry a profit of about $10,000.

Miller Snell bought of Hardin Rogers 25 hams that averaged 181 pounds. Price 5 cents.—M. Hunt bought from the Brown Brothers, 4 hams for $450; and one yearling from Thos. Allen for $75.—Georgetown Times.

The slight rains of last week did but little good to the gardens, which were already badly scorched by the drought. With the exception of potatoes, vegetables are very scarce. Some of the garden crops have been entirely destroyed by the dry weather.—Georgetown Times.

The first of February, D. A. Gay took to feed 85 short-horns for T. Curwin Anderson. They were cows and heifers of all ages and gained in 3 months and 25 days, an average of 200 pounds. This is a remarkable gain for cattle of this kind and shows the superiority of the breed of cattle.—Winchester Sun.

Geo. Becker says there is nothing doing in the fat cattle market. He has not bought a hoof, and says that the markets are overstocked with Western cattle. The farmers here have no particular price on their stock, and are not disposed to push their cattle on the market.—Paris News.

Messrs. Alex. McClintock & Son, of Millersburg, Ky., made a sale of Jersey at Kansas City, Mo. The lot of twenty-four head were in good condition and averaged only $100, which was below expectations of the sellers. The highest price obtained was $109.—Farmers Home Journal.

Wm. Gibson and Geo. W. Bramblett, of East Union, have purchased 6,000 pounds of tobacco at prices ranging from $1 to 14c.—Chas. L. Talbot sold a 3-year-old Havana colt for $500 to Jos. Orler, of Pennsylvania. Mr. O. bought a car load of good horses.—Paris Kentuckian-Citizen.

A Nashville correspondent of the Farmers Home Journal says: "Few realize the extent of the potato crop this season. Not including the thousands of bushels consumed and kept at home, there have been shipped up to the first of this week 7,000 barrels. Jake Baker shipped 3,250 barrels, sending them both North and South."

Geo. P. Debanow, on the farm of J. R. Marx, in the "bead neighborhood," reports an average of twenty bushels of wheat to the acre in one field. This is the best average reported in the neighborhood for this season, and is no doubt largely due to the fact that the land was greatly enriched last season by feeding down corn on it to a number of hogs that had the run of the entire field.—Danville Advocate.

Please call and settle your account to July 1st. CHROOK & SON.

Premium Bread. Messrs. Covington, Arnold & Bro., Grocers, offer a premium of $10 on the first day of the Fair for the best loaf of wheat bread, and one of $10 for the best loaf of rye bread, yeast rising, to be baked from their celebrated "Acma" flour, made by Bonanza Roller Mills, Richmond, Ky., July 13-14.

Do you want pure drugs and the best brands of tobacco and cigars? You can find them at J. J. Brooks. June 22-1.

A NOVEL BET.—While I am not a betting man, say F. J. Cheney, of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., I considered it my religious duty to make that fellow, who bet for me, as well as before Spring, if I had not got him on the bet. You know some men had rather lose their lives than lose a hundred; well he was one of that kind, and we both came near being out, but I saved my hundred and he only cost him ten dollars. He's dead now. He sent me one day and said the doctor had given him up to die, with the catarrh. I told him that I would bet him $100 that I would give him $100 if he failed. He took the latter proposition. This was three months ago; you see how he looks now don't you, as well as any one, and a dandy.—American, Toledo, O.

THE BABIES CRY FOR IT.—And the old folks laugh when they find the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy. Syrup of Figs is more easily taken, more beneficial in its action than bitter, nauseous medicines to act on the bowels, to cleanse the system, and to dispel colds, headaches and fevers. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, California. For sale by White & Stockton.
