

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1887.

Quarterly court next Monday.

Great at the playing mill will not be resumed for some time.

The K. C. is selling round-trip tickets at low rates to the Lintonia races.

Dr. J. W. Harris reports scarlet fever prevailing in the Union neighborhood.

Mr. W. S. Duman has rented Dudley Tribble's farm for the ensuing year.

Miss Sallie Martin has opened dress-making at Mrs. T. S. Ellis' on Second street.

Mr. E. J. Shackelford and family, recently of Mt. Sterling, will remove to Richmond.

W. R. Letcher has bought of Wm. Parrish a suckling colt, dam Lizzie Brinker, 2:21, for $500.

Mrs. Dr. Forman has removed her school to one of the houses on Aspen Road, near Dr. G. W. Evans'.

There were 43 prisoners in Richmond jail last Wednesday—19 white men, 5 negro women, but no white women.

Hon. W. J. Cassell, of Clay county, was here recently and secured from C. D. Chennell 18 yearling mules at about $50 per head.

On last Wednesday W. T. Tevis sold at public sale mules worth $33 to $95; yokes of oxen, $90 and $108; two-year-old cattle, $31.25.

Mrs. Belle McDowell has bought of Mr. George M. Willing his residence on West Main street. Price, $3,500; possession the 13th.

Mr. John G. Cole, attorney at law, and wife removed yesterday to their new home at Clay City, where Mr. Cole hopes to fully regain his health.

Mr. P. G. Glover will sell his farm, stock, crop, tools and other things near College Hill on Friday, October 14th. Mr. Glover means to remove West.

W. T. Tevis has rented his farm to John D. Harris and T. J. Curtis for $500. W. L. Crutcher has rented a portion of his farm, 275 acres, to John Baldwin for $900.

Mr. D. R. Forman is out again, but on crutches. The wagon ran over his legs and not over his body, as at first reported. While painfully, he was not dangerously hurt.

At B. Howard Neale's sale on last Saturday, four colts sold at $55, $70, $75 and $181. One withdrawn at $200. The lot on which the old stable is situated at junction of the Irvine turnpike and Four-mile dirt road, brought $400.

In looking over the papers of the late Joseph Jones, of Foxtown, notices to the amount of $187,000, are found that were sent him through courts of bankruptcy by parties who owed him. One notice was for $39,000.

The entertainment announced by the ladies of the Episcopal church, to take place on Wednesday night last, after Lyter's sale, originally to have occurred in Col. Shibley Irvine's yard, was indefinitely postponed on account of the rain.

Gov. Bucken is appointed Hon. J. R. Morton, of the Madison Circuit, a special Judge of the Rowan Circuit Court to try the case of James H. Hertz, indicted for conspiring to kill Judge A. E. Cole. The court convenes October 13.

Mr. Wm. L. Crutcher will sell his stock, crop and farming implements on next Wednesday at the farm four miles from Richmond. Having rented out his farm, the stock will be sold regardless of bids. See the advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

Smoke continued to issue in small quantities from the ruins up on Main street, from August 29th to September 28th, at which latter time the rain gave it the grand finale. At Minneapolis, the other day, we saw smoke issuing from the ruins of an elevator burned ten weeks before.

Dr. Howard Crutcher, of whom we wrote, last week, as a prominent homeopathic practitioner in Chicago, has located in Louisville, Third avenue and Chestnut street. Dr. Crutcher finds Kentucky somewhat lacking in knowledge of the Hahnemannian theory, but purposes to put forth all his energies in promoting the principle of that school.

The annual election of officers of the Building and Loan Association was held at the Farmers National Bank on Saturday evening. The following were elected for the ensuing year: D. P. Armer, President, H. C. Hargis, Vice-President, Thos. Thorpe, Sec'y, U. D. Chennell, Treasurer, G. W. Peckel, J. Speed Smith, T. T. Covington, J. J. Brooks and D. M. Briggance, Directors.

City Clerk.

Dr. W. G. White has been elected City Clerk and duly installed. His office is the same as THE CLIMAX. Business hours from sun-up to sun-down.

Tail Holl.

A boy was in town on Monday riding a mare. He had a rope tied around a male calf's neck and to the mare's tail. Now say there is nothing to be learned in this slow old county.

Peavine Dead.

Peavine, the noted sorrel stallion belonging to Gov. E. W. Powell, is dead, at the age of 25 years. Among the great number of premiums he took was a $1,000 at St. Louis. Sire of Lucy Fleming, 2:22, and Nettie Ward, 2:21.

County.

Z. E. Bush, auctioneer, reports a large crowd in town, and a good feeling generally. About 250 cattle on the market with prices running from 2 1/2 to 3 cents. Large number of mules. One man bought 50 at $35 to $65. Broke mules sold at $75 to $160. Few plug horses at $35 to $65.

Aquitted.

M. C. Bailey, late a house carpenter in this place, was recently arrested at Huntsville, Alabama, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. A Huntsville paper declares there was no evidence whatever against the accused. Mr. Bailey writes a friend here that the arrest was made upon the information of an irresponsible party who did not appear at the trial. Mr. Bailey was known here as a poor but honest man.

"Sasin S."

McKee & Traynor's lot mare, Sasin S., won the race at Nashville, on last Thursday, in three straight heats in the mud. Best time, 2:20. Stake, $1,000. She has been taken to the great St. Louis Fair, and will return home after that event.

Ribbons.

A long string of ribbons on exhibition at the Madison National Bank attests the superiority of Col. T. S. Moberley's herd of Short-horns. At the Indiana State Fair, Indianapolis, he secured three sweepstakes first premiums—last, second and third—on a buck, an exhibitor at that great Fair he was signally successful. At other fairs, including Lintonia, he took numerous first premiums. In all he secured the unusually large proportion of 45 out of 54 first premiums, with several second.

A Chicken Story.

It comes from Palat Lick through the medium of the Lancaster News: A few days ago, at Mrs. Sallie Murrell's, a little chicken was trying to get a drink of water out of a bucket that was sitting under the drip of the house. It fell into the bucket and was floundering around trying to get out, and squawking for dear life. A wise rooster came along and saw the danger the little fellow was in, ran up to the bucket and with his tail took him out and laid him in the sun to dry, and stood by until the little fellow got up and waked off.

Insane From Trouble.

The Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat says: It is said that Mrs. John J. Cornell's mind has become diseased, and she has been taken to a sanitarium in Indiana for treatment. Her mother, Mrs. Murrell, has been similarly afflicted for several years. The children of Mrs. Cornell have been scattered to the four winds of heaven, some of them in Richmond, others in Lexington, and some remain here. We understand that there are eight children, and all but two are small. This community deeply sympathizes with Mrs. Cornell, her son and children, and hope that she may be restored to her wonted health, and for a speedy reunion of the family.

Co-operation Meeting.

The co-operation meeting of the Christian churches of this county held its semi-annual session with the church at this place on Friday and Saturday last. Mr. Wm. L. Crutcher of the White Oak Pond church presided and Mr. B. J. Newton was secretary.

Fourteen of the fifteen churches in the county had delegates present. Eight hundred dollars was pledged to sustain Evangelist O. J. Young, who spends his entire time in preaching. Much of his time is spent in evangelizing among churches unable to employ regular ministers. In the three months from July 1st to date, he reports 194 additions to the churches. Among the various churches show a membership in the county of about twenty-seven hundred. All the sessions were well attended and full of interest. Dinners were served both days in the lecture room of the church. The next meeting will be held in May 1888, with the White Oak Pond church.

Circuit Court.

The Grand Jury returned ninety-five indictments. One was for murder, E. J. Francis, the others being for minor offenses. A number of cases against violators of the liquor laws were tried with the usual $25 and costs. Among the acquitted on various charges were John and James Ashill, L. N. Dunn, B. F. Golden, Zeke Green, W. D. Clark, B. B. Simmons, J. W. Alexander, Neil Gooch, John E. Kinnard, Dave Kelley, Belle Campbell, James Beasley, George Woolery. The cases filed away were Hiram Collins, Bud Lane, Tom Rainey, Steve Turner, Lane Wyatt, James Wyatt, Wm. Bowen, Rauby Pigg. Among the fines imposed were: Wm. Franklin, $100; B. L. Bond, $50. Those upon whom both fine and imprisonment were imposed were: Joe Hill, $25 and 10 days; Frank Stewart, $25 and 10 days; Enoch and Peter Moore, $21 and 10 days; Charles Hendricks, $25 and 10 days; Shelton Tribble, $25 and 10 days; John Baker, $30 and 10 days; Sam Patton, $25 and 10 days; Henry Wood, $25 and 10 days; Hitts Jet and Tools Brooks, $75 and 100 days. Five were sentenced to the penitentiary as follows: Ottoway Stewart, maleficus cutting, 2 years; Henry Wood, unlawfully detaining a woman against her will, 7 years; E. J. Francis, manslaughter, 10 years; Smith Miller, hog stealing, 1 year; Clate Mumpkin, (col.) goods under false pretenses, 1 year.

The Rain.

The more than welcome rain that fell last week ago, mention of which was made in last issue, was perhaps as fine a one as ever fell in this county. After two months or more of dry weather, and when everybody was complaining of the drought, and wishing, some even praying, for rain, and the dust was flying about the fields as well as along the roads, and stock had to be driven miles to water, and water in many places hauled miles for drinking purposes, the rain came. It came gently, somewhat like "the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion." It was a grateful, comforting rain, moistening the parched and thirsty earth, and making it "precious unto them upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard; that went down to the skirts of his garments." The parched and thirsty earth drank abundantly, "drank early and deeply drunk; fountains drank that common mines might have drunk." The fountain heads of the springs were replenished, no water-gaps, foot-gaps and fences were washed away, and the entire community was made happy.

This reminds us of a prayer meeting held years ago near the Red House, in this county. The object of the meeting was to pray for rain. The minister led off, but being inexperienced in the matter of farming, went wide of the mark in his supplication. After the usual preliminary, he fervently requested something like the following: "Oh, Lord, we need rain and need it badly. Be pleased to send us rain at once, and send it in torrents. Deluge this whole land of ours, now stricken with drought and want! After a hymn, "Uncle Tommy" Barber, father of our townsman, Mr. M. M. Hays, was called upon to pray, and with an appropriate prayer, referred to the rain, and said as follows: "Thou knowest, oh, Lord, our wants better than we know them. It is thy purpose to send us rain, send it when thou thinkest best for us. Send it, we pray thee, in abundance, but gently and in moderation, for thy children's sake. Amen."

PERSONAL.

Miss Alma Hagin is attending Knowles Female Institute, Louisville.

Mr. Charles E. Smith has gone to Toledo, O., on a short business trip.

Sally Tevis, little daughter of Hon. W. T. Tevis, is in school at Hawesville, Ky.

Hon. A. J. Ewing, of Bath county, was here last week visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Poyntz.

Mr. Wm. Beasley, of Lancaster, was in Richmond on Monday looking at some fine horses.

Mr. F. M. Green, editor of the Register, has returned from Danville, New York, greatly improved in health.

Dr. David C. Lyman of Philadelphia, is in Richmond passing a few days among the scenes of his younger days.

Mrs. Dr. Walker, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Green Clay, has gone to Wichita, Kansas, to visit her son, Mr. Jason Walker.

Miss Annie Daerson, who has been teaching school at Pleasureville, returned home on Monday. She gave up her position on account of ill health.

Prof. P. H. Sullivan, of Omaha, Nebraska, made a flying visit to his old home here this week. He says that Mr. Silas Cobb has removed to Nebraska City.

Miss Alice Dudley, daughter of Bishop Thomas E. Dudley, of Louisville, and Mr. James McDowell, of Lexington, will be married this month. They will make their home at Clay City.

Elder L. H. Reynolds will preach at the Pond Church Sunday; Subject, dancing.

The series of meetings is in progress at the Christian church this city. Ed. A. P. Cobb, of Illinois, preaches every evening. The audiences are large and attentive, much interest being manifested.

The protracted meeting at Troy, Wilmore and Nonesuch closed with 116 additions. The Presbyterian church received 20 members and the sister churches 14. Rev. R. M. Thompson and Elder Joseph Hopper assisted at the meetings. There was subscribed to build a church in Nonesuch the liberal sum of $4,148.—Jesuitian Journal.

Rev. J. A. Henderson, the new pastor of the M. E. Church, South, this place, will preach Sunday morning and night, and thereafter every second and fourth Sunday morning, on 1 every Sunday night. He will preach at Providence every first and third Sunday morning. He has secured the residence of Mr. John G. Cole, next to the church and now occupies it. Mr. Henderson comes highly complimented by his congregation and the people generally at Harrodsburg, and has made a good impression here. Sunday school at 9 o'clock, Judge T. J. Scott, Superintendent.
