THE AMERICAN PARTY.

Some of these ideas are very good, but they can not be carried out without making a new party for the purpose. The first suspicion one would have regarding the new party is that it is intended to draw a few thousand voters from the Republican party in certain close States in the interest of Democracy.—Boston Journal.

Dynamic Gun.

Experiments made with the Zelenki dynamite gun down the bay yesterday were quite satisfactory. The results were terrifying in the extreme. Military experts are inclined to think that this new engine of destruction puts an end to war and enables us to laugh at the ironclad navies of the world.—New York World.

Proof of His Son.

Omaha Man—What's the matter with your head?

Rowan county, (Ky.) Man—Bullet hole in it. My boy did it.

"How did such an accident happen?"

"Accident! I kicked him one day and he shot me the next. I just tell you that boy of mine is a chip of the old block."—Omaha World.

Teacher of a class in grammar—"What is the plural of man?"

Johnnie—"Men."

Teacher—"What is the plural of woman?"

Jack—"Women."

Teacher—"What is the plural of child?"

Susie—"Twins."

A man has tamed a squirrel.

As the man moves around the tree the squirrel moves, always keeping the tree between himself and the man. Query: Does the man in going around the tree go around the squirrel?

In a Hebrew school—What crime did Joseph's brothers commit in selling him?

All the pupils in chorus—They sold him too cheap.—Exchange.

Burglar Proof.

"John, John, Oh, John beware, There's a burglar in the cupboard, And all our money's hoarding there In my mother's Hubbard!"

"It is quite safe, my dearest wife, Asleep we never use to lock it. For that poor burglar, to save his life He couldn't find the pocket!"

CONCERNING FARMERS.

Dick Gentry bought at Williamsburg 8 extra mules, 164 heads high for $1,350, and one pair at Chaplin, for $225. Eddy & Co. sold 1,000 heads of orchard grass seed to a Cincinnati firm at $1.95 per bushel.—Danville Advocate.

Shipments from the Paris pens from September 16th to the 24th, 50 carloads of cattle. M. Goldsmith shipped 45 cars and Geo. Becker 14 cars, making about 950 head of cattle, which cost nearly $60,000. John Bull must be quite best hungry as he gets the larger part of them.—Kentuckian-Citizen.

A large crowd attended court, yesterday, but business was dull and but little stock offered. Capt. Bush reported a few scattering scrub cattle at about 3 cents per pound for best; second grade from 2 to 2 1/2; milk cows $20 to $25; mule colts $30 to $65; a good many on the market. No aged mules or horses on the market.—Stanford Journal.

John Hogue bought at Harrodsburg, yesterday, ten 1,000 lb. calves at $20 per head. Sam Forsythe, of Mercer, sold to P. T. Gentry 12 extra cattle, averaging 1,550 pounds, at 34 cents. C. B. Sullivan, who recently purchased the Pinkerton farm at $74,000 an acre, has been offered $1,000 for his bargain. E. L. Satter bought 22 mules, 15 heads high, and from three to six years old, in Garrard and Boyle at about $100 an average. A. G. Eastland has rented his farm, five miles from town, containing 146 acres, to J. D. Coleman for $800 for next year.—Danville Advocate.

The lambs offered in the Eastern markets arrive first from Virginia, shortly after the flock of Kentucky sent forward their spots, then occasional drafts are received from Tennessee. One and all of these sources of supply are abundantly increased by efforts to produce excellent early lambs, but the flocks show in the east to small advantage. The breeds most valuable for mutton are, first, the Southdown, then the Cheviot and the Black-faced Scotch sheep. The Southdown will thrive in lower lands than either of the others, but all sheep do best on a rolling country flanked by hills. Perfect drainage and clear running water are necessary for success in sheep growing. Close herbage is most desirable, but can be dispensed with in small farming when roots and some grain form a part of the daily ration in winter, and when the summer pasture is not over luxuriant. Thick grasses are offensive to the sheep, whereas the short but sweet herbage cropped from the hillside, suffices to keep the flocks in health, and a small extra allowance puts up the flesh which brings in the extra gain. The largest number of sheep and lambs yet offered for sale this current year in one week has been 50,000 odd. Were the flocks offered as promising as they reasonably should be from the first of May to autumn, the local markets of New York would not be overstrained by the arrival of 70,000 in seven days. Sheep of good quality since the first of January last have been scarce, and invariably proved to be in steady demand, and were firm in value.—American Agriculturist for October.

PRIZE SAYINGS.

The Literary Digest offered prizes for the best approved quotations from the writings of Henry Ward Beecher; seventy-three lists were sent in, and the following six selections received the highest number of votes, viz:

Of all battles there's none like the unrecorded battles of the soul.

Flowers are the sweetest things that God ever made and forgot to put soil into.

If a man is fit to go higher he will show it by being faithful where he is.
