

THE CLIMAX.

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY BY THE CLIMAX PRINTING CO. FRENCH TIPPON, Wm. G. WHITE, - - EDITORS. PRICE PER YEAR, $1.50. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1888.

Democratic Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT, GROVER CLEVELAND, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ALLAN G. THURMAN, OF OHIO. FOR CONGRESS, JAMES B. MCCREARY, OF MADISON.

Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury in the Cabinet of Presidents Lincoln, Johnson and Arthur, says that he will vote for President Cleveland.

"I am the heaviest manufacturer of broadcloth in the country—the tariff on it is 60 per cent; 20 per cent goes to pay labor and 40 per cent goes into my pocket; not a penny goes into the national treasury?"

The Republicans of the Sixth Kentucky district have nominated Robert Hamilton, of Covington, to oppose Speaker Carlisle. The Democrats are confident of a five thousand majority, and bets are being made that Carlisle will carry the district by six thousand.

It is said that negroes from this State are flocking into Indiana to bolster up the waning fortunes of the Republican party in that State. The Democrats of the Hoosier State should be very vigilant, however, and use every endeavor to checkmate this move of the enemy.

The Chicago Tribune says that unless "Old Huttel" allows his debtors to settle at a far less price than he fixed, at least twenty of the largest firms in the Board of Trade will be compelled to go under. A committee has asked him to settle at $1.60 and it is reported that he refused.

After twenty-eight years of high taxation to "foster American industries" the farmers still furnish 75 per cent. of all our exports and the manufacturers only twenty per cent. And the prices of the farmers' products is leveled down in the world market, while all the luxuries are enhanced in cost by taxes to heap up a surplus for the politicians to spend. No wonder the grangers are kicking—New York World.

Chief Justice Fuller took the oath of office and assumed his seat upon the bench last week. The Supreme Court now contains five Republicans and three Democrats. Fuller, Lamar and Field. Blatchford and Bradley have passed the age of retirement, however, and should Cleveland be re-elected, the complexion of the Court will soon be Democratic. This would be desirable, if only to convince Mr. Murat Halstead and others that the country would not immediately go to the how-how-wow.

Hon. Carl Schurz has written a strong letter announcing his purpose to vote for Mr. Cleveland's re-election. He bases his conclusion upon a general approval of the course of Mr. Cleveland, his devotion to the public interest, his sound views upon the tariff, which if adopted would encourage the remunerative activity of industrial labor and secure a steady development of the general prosperity, and above all the good he has done by dispelling the impression that one-half of the people were disloyal and dangerous to the Union.

At Lexington, Cal. Jake Corbett, of the Democratic State Central Committee, and Col. Hunt, a Republican, and night clerk of the Phoenix Hotel, have made a novel wager. If the Democratic ticket is successful in November Col. Hunt is to ride in a hack with Hon. M. C. Alford, Chairman of the State Central Committee, and is to wear a plug hat with a large red bandana tied around it. If the Republican party wins, Col. Corbett is to drive an ex team through the street by himself and carry a United States flag and a large lithograph of General Harrison.

Col. Hunt should at once procure a bandana.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

The Democrats of Jessamine county are wide awake to the interest of the party. They had on yesterday a grand rally, music, speaking and a good time generally. Hon. James B. McCreary was the chief speaker. Saxton & Tross's Band furnished the music. Jessamine never does things by halves.

THE AMERICAN PARTY.

The New York State Convention of the American party was held at Albany, last week. The platform advocates the abolition of trusts, opposes Catholic parochial public schools, provides that no foreigner should vote before residing in this country twenty-one years, and disfranchises any one detected in selling his vote. Considerable discussion ensued as to the advisability of placing a State ticket in the field. It was decided that it would be unwise to do so this year. It was the sense of the convention that a State Committee should be formed for the purpose of naming a State ticket next year.

THE PARTY OF PLAIN PEOPLE.

The Democratic party is the party of the plain people. Its mission is to govern for the general welfare. Its corner-stone is that the humblest citizen is entitled to the same protection as the most exalted. It therefore, wants all the plain people, without regard to race or color, to endorse for ever, that it may preserve free government, and that it may strike down every monopoly or other powerful engine of despotism and oppression.—Evansville Courier.

TERRIBLE LOSS OF LIFE.

A shocking railroad disaster occurred near Wilkesbarre, Penn., last Wednesday night in which the loss of life was something terrible to think upon, and still more terrible to the traveling public who so constantly place their lives in the hands of the railroad employees. Fifty-seven human souls were hurried from gay scenes and joyous festivities into eternity and as many more were injured.

The Danville Advocate of yesterday says that the speech of Mr. McCreary's speech in Danville. It says that he literally slaughtered Nooe and Ewell.

"In concluding, Gov. McCreary said that the five most important bills passed by this Congress he had the honor to have presented four of them. Mr. Ewell wanted to enter into a contract to use no money or whisky in the election of the Governor, told him he could easily beat him out using either. A voice of an old farmer in the audience said: "We will elect you without a cent!" And we think he is correct, judging from the enthusiasm of his hearers."

WATER-WORKS.

As one of the charter members of the Water Works Company, and Secretary of same, I ask to say a few words to the citizens of Richmond through your valuable paper. It seems as though there is a very great misunderstanding among the citizens as to the $50,000 stock they are asked to take in this vote of the stock. It is not to make the statement before any such proposition was ever made public to the city, your honorable Council had the Company's charter for at least six weeks, read, re-read and digested it. Then this same body of gentlemen, representing the city's interest, framed to their entire satisfaction the proposition that is now before you. They voted upon it as a unit with the exception of one member who was compelled to be absent on account of sickness in his family. This member, however, had been present at all preceding meetings, and in the framing of the proposition, and every thing he asked for was included in it.

The Company's object has been now to push the enterprise. Why, if we begin operation at once we cannot expect to more than complete it, before "in the distance" will be heard the rattling of the coming train from the Louisville Southern, bearing to us men, women and children, worn and weary from travel, and suffering for water to drink, to say nothing of the amount required for domestic use. When you increase the population of a city from one to two thousand, where in a dry season you can not buy a bucket of God's beverage to drink, how can you expect to hold them as citizens unless you are prepared to furnish this necessary? Why at this very moment I can right you to a man on First Street who is paying a man daily to almost starve for water for his stock.

MCCREARY MOVING.

Our worthy representative in Congress, Hon. Jas. B. McCreary is moving right along in his earnest, active canvass of this district. He has been a most faithful, pains taking and honest representative of his district and it is believed that he will have an increased majority this year. We have reliable information from a gentleman of high standing of this city, whose business not long since made a tour of this district necessary, that the entire district is all right, and that Democracy is far in the lead, and every thing in harmony. We quote a few of the notices complimentary to Mr. McCreary.

The various Democratic Clubs of Jessamine are expected to be on hand next Tuesday to give their gifted representative a hearty welcome. He deserves it. He has proved himself honest, competent and faithful.

Prepare your ballots, cast them for McCreary and Cleveland on the 6th of November, and save the country from a reign of Radical misrule, high tax and corruption. The record of the Republican party should be a warning to us.—Lexington News.

Speaking of Gov. McCreary's frequent occupation of the Speakers' chair, say any one imagine how the little red bug would look or how he would rattle round if by the irony of fate he should ever be called to occupy that chair? Even echo answers "No!" The imagination draws the line at attempting such an impossibility.—Staunton Journal.

Our Court-house was filled to overflowing to-day to listen to Hon. James B. McCreary, who spoke for nearly two hours. His argument was made so plain that the tariff should be reduced, that the humblest citizen in the land could understand. Every one was delighted with his great speech and afterwards gave him a perfect ovation. He had one of the most appreciative audiences ever assembled in Shelbyville, every one remaining to the end of his speech and interrupting him frequently with prolonged applause. He has elected the Democratic hearer of Shelby, who will show their appreciation by giving him not less than 600 majority next November.—Shelby Correspondent.

We hope the Democrats of Boyle will turn out en masse on next Monday and extend to Gov. McCreary a hearty reception. He comes to us to give an account of his work as our Representative, and give a reason for the faith that is in him as a Democrat of the old school. He has established a reputation in Congress that is alike creditable to himself and the district, and the constituency would be less than faithfully secured should give him words of cheer and encouragement to continue until the next term of tariff reform is engrained in our economic system. This is the only rest in this campaign; and we are gratified to state that the great advance that has been made within a year is largely due to the earnest and persistent work of our Representative, who has stood shoulder to shoulder with the President and the tariff reformers of the House. His triumphant reelection will be an endorsement of what he is fairly entitled.—Danville Advocate.

The impression has gone abroad that Gov. McCreary will be elected without much opposition, and it is not a matter of supreme importance to get out the full vote. At the last gubernatorial race the same idea prevailed; and if Mr. Wm. O. Bradley had been running for Congress instead of Governor he would have been elected, for the district gave him a very handsome majority. Now this fact should arouse our friends to the necessity of organizing very thoroughly to pull the Democratic vote of the district. We urge upon every Democrat to be prepared to do his duty to his party, and that duty is only to be fully discharged by casting his own ballot and doing all that he can to see that his lukewarm neighbor follows his good example.—Danville Advocate.

The Danville Advocate of yesterday says that the speech of Mr. McCreary's speech in Danville. It says that he literally slaughtered Nooe and Ewell.

"In concluding, Gov. McCreary said that the five most important bills passed by this Congress he had the honor to have presented four of them. Mr. Ewell wanted to enter into a contract to use no money or whisky in the election of the Governor, told him he could easily beat him out using either. A voice of an old farmer in the audience said: "We will elect you without a cent!" And we think he is correct, judging from the enthusiasm of his hearers."

WATER-WORKS.

As one of the charter members of the Water Works Company, and Secretary of same, I ask to say a few words to the citizens of Richmond through your valuable paper. It seems as though there is a very great misunderstanding among the citizens as to the $50,000 stock they are asked to take in this vote of the stock. It is not to make the statement before any such proposition was ever made public to the city, your honorable Council had the Company's charter for at least six weeks, read, re-read and digested it. Then this same body of gentlemen, representing the city's interest, framed to their entire satisfaction the proposition that is now before you. They voted upon it as a unit with the exception of one member who was compelled to be absent on account of sickness in his family. This member, however, had been present at all preceding meetings, and in the framing of the proposition, and every thing he asked for was included in it.

The Company's object has been now to push the enterprise. Why, if we begin operation at once we cannot expect to more than complete it, before "in the distance" will be heard the rattling of the coming train from the Louisville Southern, bearing to us men, women and children, worn and weary from travel, and suffering for water to drink, to say nothing of the amount required for domestic use. When you increase the population of a city from one to two thousand, where in a dry season you can not buy a bucket of God's beverage to drink, how can you expect to hold them as citizens unless you are prepared to furnish this necessary? Why at this very moment I can right you to a man on First Street who is paying a man daily to almost starve for water for his stock.

Now as to the amount of private stock in the enterprise, we have $20,000 worth already taken and are still open to any citizen who chooses to subscribe. We earnestly solicit and are very anxious to have every dollar worth of stock taken that it requires to complete the works. We could only guarantee that amount that we knew would be taken, and paid for when issued. We could not give the public any definite answer as to the amount the works would have to be mortgaged, in case there was no more stock taken, until after she receives bids on plans and specifications that had been sent out. These were received and opened on Saturday last, October 13th. Mr. M. Pullin, of Chicago, Ill., the builder of Lexington water-works being the lowest bidder, $76,144.44 was his estimate. Now the Company is able to say and will bind themselves to not mortgage the works for one cent more than above the valued subscription to the enterprise than they really cost, or if the citizens prefer, will not issue one dollar more worth of stock than it really takes to construct them, unless they, the City Council and Company, should so desire.

Prepare your ballots, cast them for McCreary and Cleveland on the 6th of November, and save the country from a reign of Radical misrule, high tax and corruption. The record of the Republican party should be a warning to us.—Lexington News.

Speaking of Gov. McCreary's frequent occupation of the Speakers' chair, say any one imagine how the little red bug would look or how he would rattle round if by the irony of fate he should ever be called to occupy that chair? Even echo answers "No!" The imagination draws the line at attempting such an impossibility.—Staunton Journal.

Our Court-house was filled to overflowing to-day to listen to Hon. James B. McCreary, who spoke for nearly two hours. His argument was made so plain that the tariff should be reduced, that the humblest citizen in the land could understand. Every one was delighted with his great speech and afterwards gave him a perfect ovation. He had one of the most appreciative audiences ever assembled in Shelbyville, every one remaining to the end of his speech and interrupting him frequently with prolonged applause. He has elected the Democratic hearer of Shelby, who will show their appreciation by giving him not less than 600 majority next November.—Shelby Correspondent.

We hope the Democrats of Boyle will turn out en masse on next Monday and extend to Gov. McCreary a hearty reception. He comes to us to give an account of his work as our Representative, and give a reason for the faith that is in him as a Democrat of the old school. He has established a reputation in Congress that is alike creditable to himself and the district, and the constituency would be less than faithfully secured should give him words of cheer and encouragement to continue until the next term of tariff reform is engrained in our

John Robinson's Great Big Show

Shows, All Coming Lately to Richmond, October 27th.

The old reliable comes this year before the public with the biggest and best show ever owned by him in his whole managerial career of sixty-four years, with his enormous circus, with the new and novel acts, of all kinds and classes, riding, acrobatic and gymnastic feats and monster elevated stage for Olympian games and dramatic exhibitions. Over 110 American and foreign artists are employed. Three great specialties are consolidated. Over 1,000 rare and costly animals, among which will be found a drove of giant Giraffes, flocks of Ostriches and Kangaroos, white Nile Hippopotamuses, two Horned Rhinoceroses and every animal known to the Animal Kingdom. Among the special features are the Baby Elephants, Giant Horse, Giant Man, Giant Ox, Giant Hog, Tattooed Woman, tribes of Zulus, Afghans, and representatives of every known nation.

Over 1,500,000 feet of canvas was used in the construction of his tent, the largest ever erected in this country. His right separate bands, four steam musical wagons, two steam organs and steam calliope, troupe of Jubilee singers and life and drum corps, female brass band, thirty-one sun bright chariots, sixty carved lains and deer, 300 horses, 100 ponies, and 4000 head of live stock, including tribes of Indians, scouts, cowboys, the genuine Deadwood coach, all followed by a host of Dames and Knights, the many funny clowns, the mountain train of Burros, and an enormous drove of Elephants, with one of the largest elephants upon his feet, the air you breathe, each morning at 10 A. M. Be in time and secure a good location on the morning of October 27th, to see the greatest show on earth. Cheap excursion rates from all stations on the K. C. Railroad.

The American Magazine. The American Magazine for October is an exceptionally brilliant number. It opens with a richly illustrated descriptive paper by Lieut. Walter S. Wilson, of the Seventh Regiment, New York, which introduces a series entitled "America's Crack Relishes." Dr. Wm. F. Hutchinson furnishes another of his charming South American papers, describing in this issue the Orinoco River. Another very interesting contribution is a Summer drive, with pen and pencil, in the Valley of the Connecticut, by John R. Chapin.

Helen Strong Thompson contributes an illustrated paper on the Sacred Quarry in the Great Red Pinepoint country, and Florence A. Davidson has an illustrated paper on Pioneer District Schools.

Miss Tucker's serial, "Two Corns," is continued, and the installment is a particularly strong one. Mrs. Ella W. Peattie furnishes a very forcible, short story, entitled "The Sandwich Man." Hamlin Garland continues his poetic-prose reminiscences of "Boy Life on the Prairie."

A paper that will attract considerable attention among the literary fraternity is a criticism of "Beauty in Fiction," by Alice Wellington Rollins.

Mr. Geo. Edgar Montgomery has an essay on "A Poet of American Life," which he deals with the life and works of Geo. Lansing Raymond, of Princeton. In addition to other valuable literary features, are a series of papers on practical questions of the day.

A few of the more legitimate ways in which the surplus can be utilized are hereby shown by Wm. H. Hays. Mr. Hays's paper is a very forcible one; he makes a strong plea for a National Training School, and shows how it could be conducted. Mr. M. M. Estee has a paper showing the effect of Free-Trade on Pacific Coast industries.

Dr. J. E. Foster, Chairman of the Women's National Republican Committee, argues that "Prohibition is not a National Issue," and Mr. Enoch Eastley, of Tennessee, gives "A Southerner's National View of Protection."

Dr. Wm. F. Hutchinson contributes his usual monthly paper, giving sensible Health Advice, and Literature and Books. Reviews receive special treatment.

RELIGIOUS. Rev. Preston Blake is conducting a protracted meeting at the Vine Street church with the pastor J. I. Willis, this week.

The usual services will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday morning and evening by the Pastor Dr. J. A. Henderson.

Rev. J. W. Fitch, of Winchester, and Rev. E. M. Bony, of Elizabethtown, of the Christian church, will have a debate, beginning Oct. 30th at Sonora, Ky. Subjects: "Action, Proper Subject and Scriptural Design of Baptism."

Rev. Mr. Crow, of Richmond, preached at the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and evening, in the absence of the pastor, Mr. Moffitt, who had gone to Mt. Sterling to assist in a meeting at that place.—Blue Grass Clipper, Midway.

The Jessamine Journal says of Prof. C. P. Williamson's meeting, which closed at that place last Friday: "The attendance has been quite large, some nights the house being crowded beyond its seating capacity. A lively interest has been excited and several confessions have been made. Prof. Williamson is a man of large brain power, extensive reading, careful cultivation, and earnest piety. He is logical, convincing and persuasive. The meeting at Providence church closed yesterday, after a 10 days continuance. The meeting was one of much interest and profit."

MATRIMONIAL. To-night the wedding of Miss Coralie Walker to Mr. Hanna, of Cleveland, Ohio, will take place at the residence of the Misses Walker on Main street. The house has been very elegantly and elaborately decorated, and the marriage will prove the event of the season in social circles.

The coming marriage of Miss Susie Preston Hart, of Versailles, to John M. Cann, of Parkersburg, W. Va., is a very interesting event just now. The ceremony will occur at St. John's Episcopal church on the evening of October 18th, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. W. Venable, of Hopkinsville, formerly of Versailles, will perform the ceremony. The bridesmaids six in number, will be: Misses Sallie G. Humphreys and Pearl Voorhies, of Versailles; Misses Dunster Gibson, of Lexington; Misses Alexander and Jennie Scott, of Louisville; Miss Johnson, of Virginia. There will be six groomsmen and six ushers. The wedding will be a reception upon an elegant place will be attended.

THE FAMOUS COW BILLY MARCHIONNI is dead. She was brought in 1855 for the magnificent sum of $5,000, although she only five months old. She has produced two calves, all noted animals of great merit.

The sale of James Hagland was well attended. 10 yearling steers, weight 800 lbs., about 3 cents; steer calves, $11.50 to $14.25; 1 suckling calf, $57.50; 1 broadhorn, $102.00; 55 cents.—Winchester Democrat.

A. B. Bowling and sons sold to Geo. Mitchell 100 head breeding ewes at $1 each; James H. Maconally 60 head at $4; John H. Blackwood 52 head at $4; Granderson Smith 50 head at $4; Joseph Frayer 84 head at $4.—Lexington Gazette.

The wheat crop of Dakota is nearly a total failure. The following is the reported average yield of different crops: Wheat, 93 bushels; rye, 18; oats, 25; barley, 29 bushels. Average condition per acre is as follows: Buckwheat, 77; potatoes, 80; sorghum, 67; sugar corn, 78.

The Connecticut apple crop is more than usually abundant this year, one man at South Glastonbury having over 2,000 bushels of the same upon his trees. In many places the branches are hardly able to bear up their burdens. Onions are unusually plentiful, retailing throughout the State at sixty cents a bushel.

The Stanford Journal records the sale of 270 mountain ewes at $2.75; a car load of 200 pound hogs at 55 cents; a lot of 1000-pound cattle at $3.65; a bunch of 150 yearling calves at 4 cents and an extra lot of feeder same weight, at 4 cents; several 1,500 pound cattle at 45 cents; and 40 acres of corn at $1.50 per barrel in the field.

Hon. W. T. Jones, of Jessamine has sold to Foster and Ott, of Lexington forty-five head of extra fine beef cattle, twenty-five of them heifers, that weigh 1,200 pounds to be delivered November 1st. They are perhaps the finest lot of fat beef that will be killed in this market. Lexington can therefore expect good beef after the first of November.—Lexington Press.

According to Prof. Sargent, the strongest wood in the United States is that of the nutmeg hickory of the Arkansas region, and the weakest is the West Indian birch. The most elastic is the tamarack, the white or shell-bark hickory standing far below it. The least elastic, and the lowest in specific gravity, upon which in general depends value as fuel, is attained by the bluewood of Texas.

In the Eastern States the wholesale methods that distinguish modern farming from the old ways have reached even the apple orchards. Buyers not only strike a bargain for the trees, but bring their own pickers and packers on the ground, barrel and ship the fruit, so that the orchard grower has less to do than when he drives his milk to the creamery, or takes a number of clutches of eggs to the neighborhood incubator.

A writer in the Southern Pioneer, of Virginia, agrees to pay $10 to any one who gives the following a fair trial and will prevent hog cholera: "Take a sack of salt and barrel of hard wood ashes, mix the salt and ashes thoroughly. Prepare a box of convenient size, put it under cover where the hog can have free access to it all the time, and keep a supply of the mixture in it. The mixture will cost you nothing, and will prevent hog cholera. It will be sufficient for several hogs for one year."

DIED.

Prewitt Rankin, infant son of Isaac Rankin, died at the home of C. R. Ertell, near town, last Friday morning, aged one year. The remains were taken to Clark county for interment.

NEWS PARAGRAPHS.

One night last week, some one entered the room occupied by Judge John E. Cooper, in the hotel in West Liberty, and stole a package of notes and other papers to the value of five thousand dollars.

Wm. L. Scott is the richest man in the House of Representatives. He was page in Congress in the days of Clay and Webster. His fortune, estimated at thirty million dollars, was made in mining and railroads.

Isaac Lifter, a peddler, was torn to pieces by three bulldogs belonging to James Rife, of Shilpsburg, Penn. They dragged his body a quarter of a mile from the place of attack. Lifter lived but a short time.

James H. Goodman, a New York lawyer, arrived in his name enrolled among the menest men. Besides defrauding his clients, woman or orphan, of $25,700, he stole $10,000 from his wife and ran away to Canada.

Willis Raily, a colored man of this city, aged about seventy years was struck by a passing train near the city, September 27th; several ribs were broken and other injuries inflicted, from the effects of which he died Wednesday.—Winchester Democrat.

Emperor William, of Germany, the train, arrived in his name enrolled among the menest men. Besides defrauding his clients, woman or orphan, of $25,700, he stole $10,000 from his wife and ran away to Canada.

The Macou (Ga.) Telegraph says: "A gentleman from Cartersville tells your correspondent that the Rev. Sam Jones is worth over $100,000, and continues to pile up wealth faster than any man in Cherokee Ga. All this money has been made by Mr. Jones' original style of preaching."

A syndicate headed by Jay Gould and Russell Sage has bought about 87,000,000 second mortgage bonds of the St. Louis, Arkansas and Texas railroad. This gives Gould and Sage complete control of the road. The latter has been a competitor in a part of the Missouri Pacific's territory.

Chas. Parry, an Italian fruit dealer of Henderson, was bitten on the finger by a tarantula which was imported in a bunch of oranges from the South. The insect was young, and medical attention saved the young man from dying from the effects of a bite which is said to be fatal when inflicted by an old tarantula.

Prof. Wiggins, who makes a specialty of predicting dire disasters, says the cause of the yellow fever in the South is purely astronomical. The Professor declares that the center of the disease is a few miles nearer the sun since 1851, and this tendency to cultivate a more intimate acquaintance with the great heaven has resulted in cholera, earthquakes, floods, cholera and yellow fever.

Policeman Jas. Turner, of Henderson, chased two little boys, Willie Miller and Casey Hart, who had been playing on the steps of a street car. Hart was caught, but Miller being about to escape, Turner drew his pistol and fired at him. The next day the dead body of Miller was found on the river bank, with a ghastly wound in his head, the result of the act of Turner, who claims that he shot over the boy's head to scare him.

During the Roman chariot races at the fair grounds at Kautztown, Pa., Saturday each chariot drawn by four horses latched abreast, they had made one circuit of the race course, when one of the team became unmanageable and dashed into the crowd of spectators. Daniel Swan, aged seventy, was fatally injured and many others badly hurt. The horses came from Buffalo, New York, and were announced on the bills as untamed Mustangs.

Wm. Knolls, a farmer residing near Hopkinton, tells this remarkable snake story. In passing through the tobacco field several days ago he happened to run across two snakes, one a copperhead and the other a chicken snake, wrapped around each other in a deadly embrace, and fighting with all their strength and venom they possessed. Taking a long stick Mr. Knolls carried them to an open field, where they continued to battle until the copperhead was killed. Slitting it over, the chicken snake proceeded to swallow it whole, after which it was allowed to escape. The chicken snake was 7 feet long and the copperhead five.

CONCERNING FARMERS. Some new corn in the field has been sold to Fayette county at $1.50 per bushel.

At Danville, Anderson, Hass & Pooley bought $3,000 bushels of wheat at $1.00 per bushel.

At the sale of the effects of the late Prof. Abram S. Drake, in Fayette county, last Thursday, 700 bushels of wheat sold at 95 cents and corn at $1.35 per shock.

J. W. Yorks, of Danville, led a yearling filly by Gambetta Wilkes, 2.25, owned by Gerard Chief. She fell while being broken, and striking the top of head, received injuries from which she died.

The famous cow Billy Marchionni is dead. She was brought in 1855 for the magnificent sum of $5,000, although she only five months old. She has produced two calves, all noted animals of great merit.

The sale of James Hagland was well attended. 10 yearling steers, weight 800 lbs., about 3 cents; steer calves, $11.50 to $14.25; 1 suckling calf, $57.50; 1 broadhorn, $102.00; 55 cents.—Winchester Democrat.

A. B. Bowling and sons sold to Geo. Mitchell 100 head breeding ewes at $1 each; James H. Maconally 60 head at $4; John H. Blackwood 52 head at $4; Granderson Smith 50 head at $4; Joseph Frayer 84 head at $4.—Lexington Gazette.

The wheat crop of Dakota is nearly a total failure. The following is the reported average yield of different crops: Wheat, 93 bushels; rye, 18; oats, 25; barley, 29 bushels. Average condition per acre is as follows: Buckwheat, 77; potatoes, 80; sorghum, 67; sugar corn, 78.

The Connecticut apple crop is more than usually abundant this year, one man at South Glastonbury having over 2,000 bushels of the same upon his trees. In many places the branches are hardly able to bear up their burdens. Onions are unusually plentiful, retailing throughout the State at sixty cents a bushel.

The Stanford Journal records the sale of 270 mountain ewes at $2.75; a car load of 200 pound hogs at 55 cents; a lot of 1000-pound cattle at $3.65; a bunch of 150 yearling calves at 4 cents and an extra lot of feeder same weight, at 4 cents; several 1,500 pound cattle at 45 cents; and 40 acres of corn at $1.50 per barrel in the field.

Hon. W. T. Jones, of Jessamine has sold to Foster and Ott, of Lexington forty-five head of extra fine beef cattle, twenty-five of them heifers, that weigh 1,200 pounds to be delivered November 1st. They are perhaps the finest lot of fat beef that will be killed in this market. Lexington can therefore expect good beef after the first of November.—Lexington Press.

According to Prof. Sargent, the strongest wood in the United States is that of the nutmeg hickory of the Arkansas region, and the weakest is the West Indian birch. The most elastic is the tamarack, the white or shell-bark hickory standing far below it. The least elastic, and the lowest in specific gravity, upon which in general depends value as fuel, is attained by the bluewood of Texas.

In the Eastern States the wholesale methods that distinguish modern farming from the old ways have reached even the apple orchards. Buyers not only strike a bargain for the trees, but bring their own pickers and packers on the ground, barrel and ship the fruit, so that the orchard grower has less to do than when he drives his milk to the creamery, or takes a number of clutches of eggs to the neighborhood incubator.

A writer in the Southern Pioneer, of Virginia, agrees to pay $10 to any one who gives the following a fair trial and will prevent hog cholera: "Take a sack of salt and barrel of hard wood ashes, mix the salt and ashes thoroughly. Prepare a box of convenient size, put it under cover where the hog can have free access to it all the time, and keep a supply of the mixture in it. The mixture will cost you nothing, and will prevent hog cholera. It will be sufficient for several hogs for one year."

Trustee's Sale!

A Trustee of John C. Hagan, I will sell on Wednesday, Nov. 14, 1888, at public auction, at his house in Madison County, on the Lancaster Pike, 10 miles from Richmond, the real and personal estate belonging to the said Hagan. The land consists of 337 Acres of first rate Walnut Lands, fronting on the Lancaster Turnpike, and about one mile from the railroad depot, and in an excellent neighborhood. The improvements are all good, consisting of a large Two-Story Brick Dwelling, and all necessary out-buildings. The farm is well watered, and is adapted to all the growths of Corn, Wheat, Rye, Hemp, Tobacco and Blue-Grass. The farm can be divided into two parcels, and will be sold in one or two pieces as will best promote the interest of the Assignor and his Creditors. The personal consists of 65 STEERS, 11 HEIFERS, 6 COWS and CALVES, 3 HORSES, 4 MULES, 45 ACRES OF CORN, 15,000 POUNDS TOBACCO, and a Large Amount of Farming Implements, and Household Furniture.

Also 9 Shares of Kirksville and Kentucky River Turnpike Stock, etc.

Terms as follows: The possession of the lands will be given on January 1st, 1889, when one third of the purchase money will be due, and for the other two-thirds credits of six and twelve months with interest from January 1st, 1889.

The personality on all sums of $20 and under, cash in hand; over that sum a credit until January 1st, 1889, will be given.

W. M. L. CRUTCHER, Trustee.

S. DINELLI & CO.

FREE WILD WEST!

Given Free with the GRAND STREET PARADE each morning, Cows, Swine, Riflemen, Vacuqueros, Cowpunks, Indians, Medicine Men, Bucks, Squaws and Peoposes, a Herd of Texas Steers, Wild Buffalo and Mountain Elk, Fleet Mustangs, Wild Indian Kites and Genuine Deadwood Stage Coach.

$300,000 Grand Free Parade

Cages, Dens and Lair; 12 Separate Kinds of Music, 4 Musical Weapons, 15 Trumpeters, Troupe Jubilee Singers, Chime Bells, 31 Spotted Charolais, 5 Distinct Breeds of Horses, Bands of 15 Steam Callions, Pipe and Drum Corps, Steam Organ, Organ, 900 Hens, 100 Poultry, Scottish Beggars, Female Open-air Dances of 2000, Giraffes, Ostriches, Elephants, Buffalo, Elk and Zebra.

CHEAP RATES ON ALL RAILROADS AND BOATS

Cheap Excursion Rates at all Stations on K. C. R. R. Two Special