

Vote for "Old Stump."

Vote for the new Constitution.

Regular August election next Monday.

Don't fail to go to the election Monday.

If you want your taxes reduced vote for W. B. Smith.

If you want a State Senator that will give you money, vote for Will Tevis.

Forman, Chenault & Co., want 10,000 bushels of corn and 30,000 bushels of wheat.

J. N. Martin has something to say of interest to distillers. See his ad. in today's CLIMAX.

Twenty cars of cattle and sheep were shipped from points along the K. C. & N. O. R. R. on Saturday night.

Richardson and Real House, last Saturday.

Hon. James H. Milligan, of Lexington, will speak at the Court-house in Richmond on Saturday night. Other speakers will be present.

Mrs. M. De G. Forman has another letter, filled with both the old and the new of New England, on the first page of today's CLIMAX.

Mr. J. P. Simms shipped two cars of tobacco, twenty hogsheads, to Louisville, last week, and Mr. C. Christian shipped six or eight hogsheads.

Capt. George W. Tipton writes from the West Indies a characteristic letter about fish, fruits, and marine vessels. See first page of today's CLIMAX.

John A. Rose, a prominent citizen of Powell county, who was shot from ambush, last week and killed, married a cousin of Mrs. W. W. Figg, of this place.

Mr. Frank Reppert, formerly of this place, and who held a $2,000 position under the Government, has been discharged, and is now in the Civil Service office.

Our miserable telegraph facilities ought to be improved or abolished altogether. Four or five important telegrams sent from Danville, Sunday, reached here Monday.

Mr. M. George V. Forman can be found daily at No. 25 North Second street, where he has the books and is winding up the milling business of E. Forman & Son.

Theodore Wilson, of Station Camp, shipped a car of sheep from this place, last week, to Cincinnati, and Wagers & Wagers & Co. shipped two cars of cattle.

The Niagara Falls excursionists have returned and report a delightful tour with about two hundred and fifty pleasant excursionists. The train did not stop between Cincinnati and Niagara.

The Farmers Home Journal, Louisville, in its issue of the 27th inst., has a handsome front page engraving of Gen. C. M. Clay, and a good woodcut of a group of Southwestern sheep grazing in the yard.

Capt. Butler, one of E. T. Powell & Co.'s foremen, and a negro were blown up by a premature explosion two miles from town on the R. N. I. & B. yesterday. The former is slightly but the latter badly hurt.

The parade and picnic by the Independent Order of Immaculates on last Saturday, was successful in every way, except the procession was not ordinarily large, owing to various causes. Prof. Green R. Miller made the oration of the day.

Abolish The Office.

A telegram from Danville informing Mr. S. B. White of the sudden death of his wife, died at 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, at the residence of a group of Southwestern sheep grazing in the yard.

Mr. Talton Embury, Sr., of Louisville, is in Richmond. He is the best-posted politician in Kentucky, and we are sorry to announce that he is so prospect of any early rise in price of cattle. He says the country everywhere is full of cattle, and so long as that condition exists, no change can be expected.

Does Anybody Know Him?

An inquiry comes by mail from a non-resident of the State asking if anybody knows anything of one R. A. Sturgess, a prominent lawyer and politician, who died in Richmond in 1854. We hear that there was such a man, but that is about all we can gather. The letter of inquiry comes from his grandson.

Mr. Oldham Withdraws.

Elsewhere in today's CLIMAX is found the card of Mr. Joe Oldham, of Union City, withdrawing from the race for County Clerk. Mr. Oldham's health is such that he cannot at present make such an active canvass as he would like to, hence declines to make any at all. His prospects were good, and he is left in a strong position for a race some other time.

New Mill Firm.

Mr. C. D. Chenault purchased of K. Forman & Co. one-third interest in their Bonanza Mills property in Richmond, paying therefor $10,750. This fixes the price of the mill at $32,250. It is a new mill and one of the best equipped and most modern in Kentucky. Its busy character will go on under the name of Forman, Chenault & Co. The capacity will be enlarged.

For County Judge.

Mr. Thomas Phelps is announced in today's CLIMAX a candidate for County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Phelps is known all over the county as a prominent farmer, an excellent citizen, and a thorough Democrat. He is a graduate of Georgetown College, and belongs to a large family that has never held office. If elected, he will make a good County Judge—careful and considerate in all things.

Conductor Ochs.

The Omaha, Nebraska, Bee announces that an electric street railway to traverse that city and Council Bluffs, Iowa, has been opened. Among the conductors selected from a large number of applicants, Mr. C. W. Cobb, of Red House, Madison county, Ky., is mentioned. The position is not an unusual one, and Mr. Cobb has had a $10,000 bond. Ex-Speaker Ochs and his wife became conductors. The pay is $75 per month.

Home Rule.

Mr. Queen, mentioned in the paragraph below from the Mill, Sterling Sentinel-Democrat, formerly resided in Richmond. Two colored boys, Geo. Joiner and Robt. Lee, attempted to rob J. E. Queen's cell drawer Saturday afternoon, and were caught in the act. Mr. Queen took them to their mothers who administered to each of them a sound thrashing on the backs. Mr. Queen said the punishment was sufficient, and no arrest was made.

For Europe.

Dr. Will Jennings left yesterday for New York whence he will sail on the steamer Umbria, Cunard Line, for Europe. Dr. Johnson, of Danville, will join him, and the two will spend the summer on the other side of the briny deep. They expect to ascend to the top of the Eiffel Tower, and otherwise "do" the great Paris Exposition. They will visit the various hospitals of the chief cities, and meet many of the prominent physicians of Europe.

Big Price For Real Estate.

Col. J. Shelby Irvine sold an unimproved lot in Kansas City, a week ago, only twenty-eight feet wide, for $2,000. In fact there is a city bank twenty-five feet high on the lot that will cost several hundred dollars to remove. Col. Irvine has sold a number of those high-priced lots, and has others of the same kind. The truth is the Colonel is the richest man in Central Kentucky, with possibly one exception, and the exception a Madison county man.

Sale of 3,000 Sheep.

On last Thursday, Messrs. Hugh Colyer and Taylor Rice drove through Richmond for a hundred ewes they had sold to Messrs. Sleds, of Montgomery county, and Hill of Clark county. They had a few days before sold the parties six hundred, for which they received $3 to $3.25 per head. Mr. Colyer recently sold to Mr. Baker, of Fayette, eight hundred ewes, and Mr. Ben Patton sold to Mr. Oldham, of Montgomery county, one hundred and to Mr. Mason, of Fayette, two hundred at $3 to $3.25. Mr. George W. Ballew has bought three hundred sheep weighing 80 to 95 pounds, at 3 cents. Other small lots have been sold.

A Landmark Case.

The little dwelling-house, corner of Main and Sixth streets, opposite the Catholic church, has been pulled down, and Sheriff J. W. Bates, owner of the lot, will erect a handsome residence.

Mr. Frank Reppert, formerly of this place, and who held a $2,000 position under the Government, has been discharged, and is now in the Civil Service office.

Our miserable telegraph facilities ought to be improved or abolished altogether. Four or five important telegrams sent from Danville, Sunday, reached here Monday.

Mr. M. George V. Forman can be found daily at No. 25 North Second street, where he has the books and is winding up the milling business of E. Forman & Son.

Theodore Wilson, of Station Camp, shipped a car of sheep from this place, last week, to Cincinnati, and Wagers & Wagers & Co. shipped two cars of cattle.

The Niagara Falls excursionists have returned and report a delightful tour with about two hundred and fifty pleasant excursionists. The train did not stop between Cincinnati and Niagara.

The Farmers Home Journal, Louisville, in its issue of the 27th inst., has a handsome front page engraving of Gen. C. M. Clay, and a good woodcut of a group of Southwestern sheep grazing in the yard.

Capt. Butler, one of E. T. Powell & Co.'s foremen, and a negro were blown up by a premature explosion two miles from town on the R. N. I. & B. yesterday. The former is slightly but the latter badly hurt.

The parade and picnic by the Independent Order of Immaculates on last Saturday, was successful in every way, except the procession was not ordinarily large, owing to various causes. Prof. Green R. Miller made the oration of the day.

Abolish The Office.

A telegram from Danville informing Mr. S. B. White of the sudden death of his wife, died at 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, at the residence of a group of Southwestern sheep grazing in the yard.

Mr. Talton Embury, Sr., of Louisville, is in Richmond. He is the best-posted politician in Kentucky, and we are sorry to announce that he is so prospect of any early rise in price of cattle. He says the country everywhere is full of cattle, and so long as that condition exists, no change can be expected.

Does Anybody Know Him?

An inquiry comes by mail from a non-resident of the State asking if anybody knows anything of one R. A. Sturgess, a prominent lawyer and politician, who died in Richmond in 1854. We hear that there was such a man, but that is about all we can gather. The letter of inquiry comes from his grandson.

Mr. Oldham Withdraws.

Elsewhere in today's CLIMAX is found the card of Mr. Joe Oldham, of Union City, withdrawing from the race for County Clerk. Mr. Oldham's health is such that he cannot at present make such an active canvass as he would like to, hence declines to make any at all. His prospects were good, and he is left in a strong position for a race some other time.

New Mill Firm.

Mr. C. D. Chenault purchased of K. Forman & Co. one-third interest in their Bonanza Mills property in Richmond, paying therefor $10,750. This fixes the price of the mill at $32,250. It is a new mill and one of the best equipped and most modern in Kentucky. Its busy character will go on under the name of Forman, Chenault & Co. The capacity will be enlarged.

For County Judge.

Mr. Thomas Phelps is announced in today's CLIMAX a candidate for County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Phelps is known all over the county as a prominent farmer, an excellent citizen, and a thorough Democrat. He is a graduate of Georgetown College, and belongs to a large family that has never held office. If elected, he will make a good County Judge—careful and considerate in all things.

Conductor Ochs.

The Omaha, Nebraska, Bee announces that an electric street railway to traverse that city and Council Bluffs, Iowa, has been opened. Among the conductors selected from a large number of applicants, Mr. C. W. Cobb, of Red House, Madison county, Ky., is mentioned. The position is not an unusual one, and Mr. Cobb has had a $10,000 bond. Ex-Speaker Ochs and his wife became conductors. The pay is $75 per month.

Home Rule.

Mr. Queen, mentioned in the paragraph below from the Mill, Sterling Sentinel-Democrat, formerly resided in Richmond. Two colored boys, Geo. Joiner and Robt. Lee, attempted to rob J. E. Queen's cell drawer Saturday afternoon, and were caught in the act. Mr. Queen took them to their mothers who administered to each of them a sound thrashing on the backs. Mr. Queen said the punishment was sufficient, and no arrest was made.

For Europe.

Dr. Will Jennings left yesterday for New York whence he will sail on the steamer Umbria, Cunard Line, for Europe. Dr. Johnson, of Danville, will join him, and the two will spend the summer on the other side of the briny deep. They expect to ascend to the top of the Eiffel Tower, and otherwise "do" the great Paris Exposition. They will visit the various hospitals of the chief cities, and meet many of the prominent physicians of Europe.

Big Price For Real Estate.

Col. J. Shelby Irvine sold an unimproved lot in Kansas City, a week ago, only twenty-eight feet wide, for $2,000. In fact there is a city bank twenty-five feet high on the lot that will cost several hundred dollars to remove. Col. Irvine has sold a number of those high-priced lots, and has others of the same kind. The truth is the Colonel is the richest man in Central Kentucky, with possibly one exception, and the exception a Madison county man.

Sale of 3,000 Sheep.

On last Thursday, Messrs. Hugh Colyer and Taylor Rice drove through Richmond for a hundred ewes they had sold to Messrs. Sleds, of Montgomery county, and Hill of Clark county. They had a few days before sold the parties six hundred, for which they received $3 to $3.25 per head. Mr. Colyer recently sold to Mr. Baker, of Fayette, eight hundred ewes, and Mr. Ben Patton sold to Mr. Oldham, of Montgomery county, one hundred and to Mr. Mason, of Fayette, two hundred at $3 to $3.25. Mr. George W. Ballew has bought three hundred sheep weighing 80 to 95 pounds, at 3 cents. Other small lots have been sold.

A Landmark Case.

The little dwelling-house, corner of Main and Sixth streets, opposite the Catholic church, has been pulled down, and Sheriff J. W. Bates, owner of the lot, will erect a handsome residence.

Mr. Frank Reppert, formerly of this place, and who held a $2,000 position under the Government, has been discharged, and is now in the Civil Service office.

Our miserable telegraph facilities ought to be improved or abolished altogether. Four or five important telegrams sent from Danville, Sunday, reached here Monday.

Mr. M. George V. Forman can be found daily at No. 25 North Second street, where he has the books and is winding up the milling business of E. Forman & Son.

Theodore Wilson, of Station Camp, shipped a car of sheep from this place, last week, to Cincinnati, and Wagers & Wagers & Co. shipped two cars of cattle.

The Niagara Falls excursionists have returned and report a delightful tour with about two hundred and fifty pleasant excursionists. The train did not stop between Cincinnati and Niagara.

The Farmers Home Journal, Louisville, in its issue of the 27th inst., has a handsome front page engraving of Gen. C. M. Clay, and a good woodcut of a group of Southwestern sheep grazing in the yard.

Capt. Butler, one of E. T. Powell & Co.'s foremen, and a negro were blown up by a premature explosion two miles from town on the R. N. I. & B. yesterday. The former is slightly but the latter badly hurt.

The parade and picnic by the Independent Order of Immaculates on last Saturday, was successful in every way, except the procession was not ordinarily large, owing to various causes. Prof. Green R. Miller made the oration of the day.

Abolish The Office.

A telegram from Danville informing Mr. S. B. White of the sudden death of his wife, died at 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, at the residence of a group of Southwestern sheep grazing in the yard.

Mr. Talton Embury, Sr., of Louisville, is in Richmond. He is the best-posted politician in Kentucky, and we are sorry to announce that he is so prospect of any early rise in price of cattle. He says the country everywhere is full of cattle, and so long as that condition exists, no change can be expected.

Does Anybody Know Him?

An inquiry comes by mail from a non-resident of the State asking if anybody knows anything of one R. A. Sturgess, a prominent lawyer and politician, who died in Richmond in 1854. We hear that there was such a man, but that is about all we can gather. The letter of inquiry comes from his grandson.

Mr. Oldham Withdraws.

Elsewhere in today's CLIMAX is found the card of Mr. Joe Oldham, of Union City, withdrawing from the race for County Clerk. Mr. Oldham's health is such that he cannot at present make such an active canvass as he would like to, hence declines to make any at all. His prospects were good, and he is left in a strong position for a race some other time.

New Mill Firm.

Mr. C. D. Chenault purchased of K. Forman & Co. one-third interest in their Bonanza Mills property in Richmond, paying therefor $10,750. This fixes the price of the mill at $32,250. It is a new mill and one of the best equipped and most modern in Kentucky. Its busy character will go on under the name of Forman, Chenault & Co. The capacity will be enlarged.

For County Judge.

Mr. Thomas Phelps is announced in today's CLIMAX a candidate for County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Phelps is known all over the county as a prominent farmer, an excellent citizen, and a thorough Democrat. He is a graduate of Georgetown College, and belongs to a large family that has never held office. If elected, he will make a good County Judge—careful and considerate in all things.

Conductor Ochs.

The Omaha, Nebraska, Bee announces that an electric street railway to traverse that city and Council Bluffs, Iowa, has been opened. Among the conductors selected from a large number of applicants, Mr. C. W. Cobb, of Red House, Madison county, Ky., is mentioned. The position is not an unusual one, and Mr. Cobb has had a $10,000 bond. Ex-Speaker Ochs and his wife became conductors. The pay is $75 per month.

Home Rule.

Mr. Queen, mentioned in the paragraph below from the Mill, Sterling Sentinel-Democrat, formerly resided in Richmond. Two colored boys, Geo. Joiner and Robt. Lee, attempted to rob J. E. Queen's cell drawer Saturday afternoon, and were caught in the act. Mr. Queen took them to their mothers who administered to each of them a sound thrashing on the backs. Mr. Queen said the punishment was sufficient, and no arrest was made.

For Europe.

Dr. Will Jennings left yesterday for New York whence he will sail on the steamer Umbria, Cunard Line, for Europe. Dr. Johnson, of Danville, will join him, and the two will spend the summer on the other side of the briny deep. They expect to ascend to the top of the Eiffel Tower, and otherwise "do" the great Paris Exposition. They will visit the various hospitals of the chief cities, and meet many of the prominent physicians of Europe.

Big Price For Real Estate.

Col. J. Shelby Irvine sold an unimproved lot in Kansas City, a week ago, only twenty-eight feet wide, for $2,000. In fact there is a city bank twenty-five feet high on the lot that will cost several hundred dollars to remove. Col. Irvine has sold a number of those high-priced lots, and has others of the same kind. The truth is the Colonel is the richest man in Central Kentucky, with possibly one exception, and the exception a Madison county man.

Sale of 3,000 Sheep.

On last Thursday, Messrs. Hugh Colyer and Taylor Rice drove through Richmond for a hundred ewes they had sold to Messrs. Sleds, of Montgomery county, and Hill of Clark county. They had a few days before sold the parties six hundred, for which they received $3 to $3.25 per head. Mr. Colyer recently sold to Mr. Baker, of Fayette, eight hundred ewes, and Mr. Ben Patton sold to Mr. Oldham, of Montgomery county, one hundred and to Mr. Mason, of Fayette, two hundred at $3 to $3.25. Mr. George W. Ballew has bought three hundred sheep weighing 80 to 95 pounds, at 3 cents. Other small lots have been sold.

A Landmark Case.

The little dwelling-house, corner of Main and Sixth streets, opposite the Catholic church, has been pulled down, and Sheriff J. W. Bates, owner of the lot, will erect a handsome residence.

Mr. Frank Reppert, formerly of this place, and who held a $2,000 position under the Government, has been discharged, and is now in the Civil Service office.

Our miserable telegraph facilities ought to be improved or abolished altogether. Four or five important telegrams sent from Danville, Sunday, reached here Monday.

Mr. M. George V. Forman can be found daily at No. 25 North Second street, where he has the books and is winding up the milling business of E. Forman & Son.

Theodore Wilson, of Station Camp, shipped a car of sheep from this place, last week, to Cincinnati, and Wagers & Wagers & Co. shipped two cars of cattle.

The Niagara Falls excursionists have returned and report a delightful tour with about two hundred and fifty pleasant excursionists. The train did not stop between Cincinnati and Niagara.

The Farmers Home Journal, Louisville, in its issue of the 27th inst., has a handsome front page engraving of Gen. C. M. Clay, and a good woodcut of a group of Southwestern sheep grazing in the yard.

Capt. Butler, one of E. T. Powell & Co.'s foremen, and a negro were blown up by a premature explosion two miles from town on the R. N. I. & B. yesterday. The former is slightly but the latter badly hurt.

The parade and picnic by the Independent Order of Immaculates on last Saturday, was successful in every way, except the procession was not ordinarily large, owing to various causes. Prof. Green R. Miller made the oration of the day.

Abolish The Office.

A telegram from Danville informing Mr. S. B. White of the sudden death of his wife, died at 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, at the residence of a group of Southwestern sheep grazing in the yard.

Mr. Talton Embury, Sr., of Louisville, is in Richmond. He is the best-posted politician in Kentucky, and we are sorry to announce that he is so prospect of any early rise in price of cattle. He says the country everywhere is full of cattle, and so long as that condition exists, no change can be expected.

Does Anybody Know Him?

An inquiry comes by mail from a non-resident of the State asking if anybody knows anything of one R. A. Sturgess, a prominent lawyer and politician, who died in Richmond in 1854. We hear that there was such a man, but that is about all we can gather. The letter of inquiry comes from his grandson.

Mr. Oldham Withdraws.

Elsewhere in today's CLIMAX is found the card of Mr. Joe Oldham, of Union City, withdrawing from the race for County Clerk. Mr. Oldham's health is such that he cannot at present make such an active canvass as he would like to, hence declines to make any at all. His prospects were good, and he is left in a strong position for a race some other time.

New Mill Firm.

Mr. C. D. Chenault purchased of K. Forman & Co. one-third interest in their Bonanza Mills property in Richmond, paying therefor $10,750. This fixes the price of the mill at $32,250. It is a new mill and one of the best equipped and most modern in Kentucky. Its busy character will go on under the name of Forman, Chenault & Co. The capacity will be enlarged.

For County Judge.

Mr. Thomas Phelps is announced in today's CLIMAX a candidate for County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Phelps is known all over the county as a prominent farmer, an excellent citizen, and a thorough Democrat. He is a graduate of Georgetown College, and belongs to a large family that has never held office. If elected, he will make a good County Judge—careful and considerate in all things.

Conductor Ochs.

The Omaha, Nebraska, Bee announces that an electric street railway to traverse that city and Council Bluffs, Iowa, has been opened. Among the conductors selected from a large number of applicants, Mr. C. W. Cobb, of Red House, Madison county, Ky., is mentioned. The position is not an unusual one, and Mr. Cobb has had a $10,000 bond. Ex-Speaker Ochs and his wife became conductors. The pay is $75 per month.

Home Rule.

Mr. Queen, mentioned in the paragraph below from the Mill, Sterling Sentinel-Democrat, formerly resided in Richmond. Two colored boys, Geo. Joiner and Robt. Lee, attempted to rob J. E. Queen's cell drawer Saturday afternoon, and were caught in the act. Mr. Queen took them to their mothers who administered to each of them a sound thrashing on the backs. Mr. Queen said the punishment was sufficient, and no arrest was made.

For Europe.

Dr. Will Jennings left yesterday for New York whence he will sail on the steamer Umbria, Cunard Line, for Europe. Dr. Johnson, of Danville, will join him, and the two will spend the summer on the other side of the briny deep. They expect to ascend to the top of the Eiffel Tower, and otherwise "do" the great Paris Exposition. They will visit the various hospitals of the chief cities, and meet many of the prominent physicians of Europe.

Big Price For Real Estate.

Col. J. Shelby Irvine sold an unimproved lot in Kansas City, a week ago, only twenty-eight feet wide, for $2,000. In fact there is a city bank twenty-five feet high on the lot that will cost several hundred dollars to remove. Col. Irvine has sold a number of those high-priced lots, and has others of the same kind. The truth is the Colonel is the richest man in Central Kentucky, with possibly one exception, and the exception a Madison county man.

Sale of 3,000 Sheep.

On last Thursday, Messrs. Hugh Colyer and Taylor Rice drove through Richmond for a hundred ewes they had sold to Messrs. Sleds, of Montgomery county, and Hill of Clark county. They had a few days before sold the parties six hundred, for which they received $3 to $3.25 per head. Mr. Colyer recently sold to Mr. Baker, of Fayette, eight hundred ewes, and Mr. Ben Patton sold to Mr. Oldham, of Montgomery county, one hundred and to Mr. Mason, of Fayette, two hundred at $3 to $3.25. Mr. George W. Ballew has bought three hundred sheep weighing 80 to 95 pounds, at 3 cents. Other small lots have been sold.

A Landmark Case.

The little dwelling-house, corner of Main and Sixth streets, opposite the Catholic church, has been pulled down, and Sheriff J. W. Bates, owner of the lot, will erect a handsome residence.

Mr. Frank Reppert, formerly of this place, and who held a $2,000 position under the Government, has been discharged, and is now in the Civil Service office.

Our miserable telegraph facilities ought to be improved or abolished altogether. Four or five important telegrams sent from Danville, Sunday, reached here Monday.

Mr. M. George V. Forman can be found daily at No. 25 North Second street, where he has the books and is winding up the milling business of E. Forman & Son.

Theodore Wilson, of Station Camp, shipped a car of sheep from this place, last week, to Cincinnati, and Wagers & Wagers & Co. shipped two cars of cattle.

The Niagara Falls excursionists have returned and report a delightful tour with about two hundred and fifty pleasant excursionists. The train did not stop between Cincinnati and Niagara.

The Farmers Home Journal, Louisville, in its issue of the 27th inst., has a handsome front page engraving of Gen. C. M. Clay, and a good woodcut of a group of Southwestern sheep grazing in the yard.

Capt. Butler, one of E. T. Powell & Co.'s foremen, and a negro were blown up by a premature explosion two miles from town on the R. N. I. & B. yesterday. The former is slightly but the latter badly hurt.

The parade and picnic by the Independent Order of Immaculates on last Saturday, was successful in every way, except the procession was not ordinarily large, owing to various causes. Prof. Green R. Miller made the oration of the day.

Abolish The Office.

A telegram from Danville informing Mr. S. B. White of the sudden death of his wife, died at 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, at the residence of a group of Southwestern sheep grazing in the yard.

Mr. Talton Embury, Sr., of Louisville, is in Richmond. He is the best-posted politician in Kentucky, and we are sorry to announce that he is so prospect of any early rise in price of cattle. He says the country everywhere is full of cattle, and so long as that condition exists, no change can be expected.

Does Anybody Know Him?

An inquiry comes by mail from a non-resident of the State asking if anybody knows anything of one R. A. Sturgess, a prominent lawyer and politician, who died in Richmond in 1854. We hear that there was such a man, but that is about all we can gather. The letter of inquiry comes from his grandson.

Mr. Oldham Withdraws.

Elsewhere in today's CLIMAX is found the card of Mr. Joe Oldham, of Union City, withdrawing from the race for County Clerk. Mr. Oldham's health is such that he cannot at present make such an active canvass as he would like to, hence declines to make any at all. His prospects were good, and he is left in a strong position for a race some other time.

New Mill Firm.

Mr. C. D. Chenault purchased of K. Forman & Co. one-third interest in their Bonanza Mills property in Richmond, paying therefor $10,750. This fixes the price of the mill at $32,250. It is a new mill and one of the best equipped and most modern in Kentucky. Its busy character will go on under the name of Forman, Chenault & Co. The capacity will be enlarged.

For County Judge.

Mr. Thomas Phelps is announced in today's CLIMAX a candidate for County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Phelps is known all over the county as a prominent farmer, an excellent citizen, and a thorough Democrat. He is a graduate of Georgetown College, and belongs to a large family that has never held office. If elected, he will make a good County Judge—careful and considerate in all things.

Conductor Ochs.

The Omaha, Nebraska, Bee announces that an electric street railway to traverse that city and Council Bluffs, Iowa, has been opened. Among