-If you want to be astonished call as we did on N. L. Mikiloff and examine his line of larouches, placons, bugies and road wagons and get his prices for same. The poorest can afford to ride in a vehicle at his prices.

We have noticed in our horse exchanges quite a discussion, on the breeding problem, in which three of our Madison county horses are quite prominent. They are Dr. Hooker, Maggie 120 and dam of Maggie 120.

The music at the Baccalaureate service of C. U. on Sunday, June 6, will be unusually fine. Miss Ruth Cox will play the organ accompaniments. Miss Patten will direct the music, and a large chorus will furnish melody for the multitude.
-The First Presbyterian church, this city, will observe Children's Day next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. This day is observed every year in accordance with the General Assembly. A beautiful program of responsive reading and music. Public invited.

Leonard A. West was appointed by the County Attorney of Estill County Court, to fill the unexpired term of Grant E. Lilly. He is the Republican candidate for County Attorney in Estill county at the coming November election.
-Still ahead of them all. They can't touch our low prices on first-class groceries. Some may attempt it but invariably fall by the way side. Full days are a thing of the past at our store. D. Chenault & Co. apr28-14

Mr. D. B. Shackelford is leaving the loss of a fine Berkshire gilt, 150 or 200 lbs, which took wings and departed from his Lancaster Avenue home on Saturday. The porker is black, with ring in ear and nose. Reward for its return.
-Come, get our prices on all kinds of groceries, queensware, etc., and compare them with the prices of other stores on first-class goods and you will find us to be at least 15 to 25 per cent. cheaper than any grocery house in Richmond. D. Chenault & Co. apr28-14

As a candidate for Mayor of the City of Richmond, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, and if nominated and elected I pledge myself to a prudent and economical administration of city affairs. Respectfully, J. W. Bales.
-These will probably be fine driving on the public roads of the county for the next six months. A new and handsome vehicle can be enjoyed beyond measure. Call on John Donelson and he can supply you with anything from a road wagon to a closed carriage.
-Undoubtedly the cheapest grocery house in Central Kentucky is D. Chenault & Co., on 2d St., Richmond, Ky. They handle only standard goods and sell them for less than so called cheap houses charge for trashy stuff. D. Chenault & Co. apr28-14

Grass and Turkey, however you spell them, have a natural association. Just now, Greece and Turkey fill a very prominent place in the eyes of the world. Greece set out to coral Turkey. Turkey seems more likely to gobble Greece, unless the Powers intervene, as we certainly hope they will. However, this Greece-Turkish war furry may end, one thing is certain: We set out to coral high prices in men's and boy's clothing and unlike Greece, have succeeded in our purpose. If you need anything in our line, call and see our goods, and get the low, old prices to suit the times. Covington & Mitchell.

Mr. Bales For Mayor. The announcement of Mr. J. W. Bales as a candidate for the nomination for Mayor of Richmond brings before the people for their suffrage, a gentleman whose integrity, ability and fitness none will gainsay. Should he be honored with the office the city's affairs will be in good hands. Remember his candidacy.
-"The World is Mine." Said Monte Cristo. Cerro Gordo and Matt Cohen. Matt S. Cohen, of Richmond, was here Friday and Saturday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Cohen, says the Woodford Sun. Matt tells us that he is out of the horse business now, except that he wants to match Cerro-Gordo against any saddle stallion in Kentucky, for $100 or more. Cerro Gordo, it will be remembered, won the Saddle Stallion Stake at the Versailles Fair, last year, defeating Thornton Star and other good ones.

Good Stock Items. Mat Cohen returned from Cincinnati Monday where he took an extra load of fat beefers led by Mr. Robt. Mason, of this county, and they were pronounced by every body to be the fattest, finest and best load of cattle received at the Union yards this season. There were 26 head, 22 red, 2 roans and 2 black, all home raised an average 962 lbs.
-Wagers & Cohen also bought from various parties a load of fat hogs at 3c, which they shipped yesterday. There were fifty-five thousand hogs on Chicago market Monday, the largest run up this year, tops sold at $3.70.

Mr. Sam Deatherage Withdraws. Mr. S. A. Deatherage withdrew on Monday from the race for the Democratic nomination for Jailor, and asked the CLIMAX to extend to his many friends his heartfelt thanks for their encouragement and support all during the canvass. He positively states that his withdrawal "is in the interest of no other candidate whatsoever."

It is needless to add that there was much regret occasioned by Mr. Deatherage's decision to give up the race. He is a popular gentleman, who makes friends with ease and who would, if elected, make a splendid officer.
-A Fine Musical. A handsome audience greeted the pupils of Mrs. G. W. Pickels at the latter's beautiful home on Monday evening, when their annual exhibition was held. The program was one of exceptional merit, attractive the high quality of the instruction and the faithful painstaking work of both pupils and teacher. A novel feature was the contest for a prize for the best scale performer. Misses Feener, Dykes and Spears took part in this, and after a long deliberation the judges, Mrs. Walker, Miss Patten and Mr. Thomas decided in favor of Miss Spears. The performers were showered with presents, trinkets, flowers, candy, etc.

We Challenge the World. The CLIMAX not only openly challenges its contemporaries to a show down in circulation, but we challenge them to produce a compositor equal to our "Old Printer" George Washington White, who will be 90 years old to-morrow and he commenced his trade in 1849 in this city. He set two galleys of type on this paper yesterday by 2 o'clock, p. m., and there was not an error in it. He set this item within twenty feet of the identical spot where he began the trade forty-eight years ago. He was only a "devil" then. But now he'll be a devil of a fine printer and good for thirty years more, if he should live.

A Sad Death. News was received here on Sunday announcing the death of Mrs. Will D. Atkinson, at New Orleans. Deceased was married in 1890, and was given a large reception at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Mattie Alverson in this city. She was a beautiful and extremely lovable lady, and her death plunges two families and a large circle of friends in deep grief. She leaves a husband and three pretty little daughters. Deceased was a daughter of New Orleans' famous Fire Chief, Thos. O'Connor, who visited this city three years ago. As a maiden, wife and mother, Mrs. Alverson was a model of her sex, and the sorrow her sudden death has caused is a tribute to her worth which it were well to envy.
-Who Were These Sick Ducks? That several sick ducks attended the students from Richmond here last Friday was evidenced by the fact that several bets were made on the ball game and the money placed in the hands of Richmond stakeholders. In all instances the ducks "went south with the coin," but luckily for the home people they were held up at the depot and forced to "rough up" or go to jail. They chose the former alternative and are now doubtless sadder but wiser. Shelbyville is not a college town, but she is strictly up-to-date in every respect as the smooth gentry from Richmond will promptly attest.-Shelby News.

Big Cattle Purchase. Mr. J. W. Bales informs the CLIMAX that he purchased last week 900 head of export cattle in Boyle county, which renders the remarks of the Danville Advocate apropos. It says: "J. C. Caldwell sold last night to J. W. Bales, agent, 800 head of fat cattle at $1.65 per hundred. One half the cattle are to be taken within the next 20 days, and the remainder about July 1st. As these cattle will average about 1,400 pounds to the head, the total weight of the deal will approximate fifty-two thousand dollars. Mr. Bales is agent for the Schwartzschild-Schultzberger Cattle Company, of New York, Chicago and Kansas City. No other sales of fat cattle have been made yet, except the bunch sold by Lillard Bros., which is reported elsewhere. Mr. Caldwell still has six or seven hundred head feeding. He promises to be a great year for the Boyle county export cattle trade. There are 3,400 head of cattle for export this fall being prepared for market in that county. These cattle will bring into the county between July and January from $25,000 to $250,000, which will go no little ways toward helping to enrich all branches of trade. Besides there are 1,800 head of hogs to be ready to market. Boyle that will not be ready until fall."

A Giant Tumor Removed-All Records Broken. Dr. T. N. Willis, a brother of Postmaster J. B. Willis, assisted in removing a 24-lb. tumor from a Shelby county lady last week and the world's record has been broken. The lady weighed, after the operation, only 120 pounds, which would warrant the fact that instead of the tumor being taken from her, she was taken from it. In this connection it is proper to state that the first operation for ovarian tumor was performed in 1802, at Danville, by Dr. Ephraim McDowell, grandfather of Mrs. Wm. M. Irvine, of this city, whose memory is revered by the medical world. Full particulars of the operation referred to, will be found on our first page.

Another Big Assignment. Lexington was treated to another sensation on Friday when the big distilling firm of Wm. Day & Co. assigned, Wm. Terr, head of the firm, who has been rated for years at over a quarter million, also made an individual assignment of his fine property in Bourbon county. No schedule of assets and liabilities has yet been filed and the amount involved is not yet known.
-The assets named include the big distilling plant, worth at least $50,000; 1,225 acres of rich Bluegrass lands, a number of town lots in Superior, Wis., stocks, notes, bonds and accounts. It is believed that the assets will cover liabilities. The assignment was due to Mr. Terr's indorsement of friends for several heavy sums.

Died in Lexington. John Vandertop Smith died at 12:45 Friday night at the residence of his son, John R. Smith, on South Spring Street, Lexington. Mr. Smith was in his eighty-second year, and the immediate cause of his death was dropsy of the heart. He was born in Lewistown, Penn., November 27, 1815. He came to Kentucky when about 21 years of age. He was twice married, his first wife being a daughter of Judge Jas. Payne Mitchell, of Boyle county, and his second Miss Elizabeth R. Owsley, of Winchester, both of whom preceded him to the grave. He leaves four children, James M. Smith, of this city; W. W. Smith, news editor of the Kentucky Stock Farm; J. R. Smith, the real estate man, and one daughter, Miss Nannie Smith, who resides in Lexington. He was a member of the Maxwell Street Presbyterian Church. His remains were taken to Winchester for burial.

Decorations Day. The largest and most imposing procession that has appeared upon our streets, without an exception, in many years, was that which paraded from the Court House to the cemetery last Saturday in honor of Decoration Day. There were over one thousand in line, ex-Confederates, Union Veterans, sons of Confederate soldiers, school children, cadets, the band, Daughters of Confederacy, Daughters of the Revolution, etc. The exercises at the cemetery were very impressive, consisting of a salute by the cadets, songs by the children and an eloquent oration by Jasper K. Smith, whose father and brothers gave their lives to the Lost Cause. The town wore a holiday attire and many people came in from the country. It was a great day and Brig. Gen'l. Poyntz and his aides, the children, the Veterans, the band, the ladies, all who took part, helped to make Decoration Day, 1897, memorable.

WHAT WE INHERIT We are not to blame for. We cannot be held responsible for the dispositions and tendencies which we derive from our ancestors, nor are we responsible for the germs of disease which may manifest themselves in our blood as a heritage from former generations. But we are responsible if we allow these germs to develop into serious diseases which will impair our usefulness and destroy our happiness. We are responsible if we transmit to our descendants the disease germs which it is possible for us to eradicate by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one true blood purifier. THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM. From the Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register. Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her so much good.
