

The Richmond Climax.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 14, 1897.

Bicycle races at the Fair. Lancaster has electric lights. Dr. L. J. Frazer returned from Louisville last night.

Dr. Louis Landman, the Cincinnati optician, will be at the Willis house today.

There will be an eclipse of the sun, July 20, visible, if clear, all over the United States.

Dr. Landman, oculist and optician, of Cincinnati, will be at Mrs. J. B. Willis to-day.

Road wagons as low as $25 at Donelson's. $35 will buy a dandy. You can't beat them.

The Lancaster fair offers the largest premiums of any fair in Kentucky this year. See list elsewhere.

Four buck-boards or road wagons went out from Donelson's court yard, and still the work goes on.

Now as the wheat is rapidly being threshed out and converted into money, let's hope for better times.

During the recent hot weather laundered collars went down like tender blossoms in a driving rain.

It is thought that Collector Yerkes will take possession of the revenue office on the first of next month.

Seven home-made buggies now under contract at Donelson's Kentucky Carriage Works. Call and see them.

The Fair catalogues, printed by this office, were completed last week and can now be had by calling at the drug stores.

$50 will buy a handsome buggy, top and all, at John Donelson's. Spend your money at home and see what you get.

Win. O. Owsley, Esq., of this burg, is one of the directors of the Lancaster fair. The success of the exhibition is now assured.

The fair will soon be here, and you will want a new new buggy in which to take your best girl. John Donelson has just what you want.

Mr. Joe Chennault is having his new buggy fitted with rubber tires at the Kentucky Carriage Works, John Donelson, proprietor.

Collector Yerkes has made no promises and will exercise great care in selecting his force. The office will be kept in Richmond.

This is a little early to talk fall stuff. We want you to think about it. Settle in your mind that you are going to see our line, and that is all we want; for we will fill your wants at sight, both in quality and price.

Covington & Mitchell. Judge R. L. Willmore is among the first Republicans in Jessamine to be slated by Collector Yerkes for a revenue place, says the Journal.

For outfitting and abouting these hot days there is nothing like being rigged out in one of our nice, light, cool, negligee shirts. Then top it over with one of the Hopkins straw hats, and you are prepared to stand old Sol's burning countenance. Covington & Mitchell.

Let us hope that the abundant crop of wheat in Madison will bring better times locally, and that the same prosperity may reign everywhere.

Still ahead of them all. You can't touch our low prices on first-class groceries. Some may attempt it but invariably fail by the way side. Daily days are a fine thing at our store. D. Chennault & Co. apr28-1f

Richard Gentry, Jr., has accepted a position as salesman with Douglas & Wimes, and invites his young friends to call on him when they need anything in their line.

Come, get our prices on all kinds of groceries, queensware, etc., and compare them with the prices of other stores on first-class goods and you will find us to be at least 15 to 25 per cent. cheaper than any grocery house in Richmond. D. Chennault & Co. apr28-1f

The Carlisle Mercantile pays Dr. Young a high compliment upon the excellence of his address there last week. He is one of the best all-round practitioners in Kentucky.

One of the hottest things a man wears on hot days is a belt and suspenders. Throw them both away for a cooler day. Get into a cool shirt and belt yourself down, then you will be prepared to enjoy yourself. We have the best line in this market. Covington & Mitchell.

Elder S. A. Owen, of Covington, Tenn., has been called to the pastorate of the Republican, Waco and Hay's Fork churches. He will locate in Richmond.

If you want to be astonished call as we did on S. L. McKiff and examine his line of harnesses, saddles, buggies and road wagons, and get his prices for same. The poorest can afford to ride in a vehicle at his prices.

Rev. Peter Vinegar, the colored divine who attracted so much attention by his subject—"A Damned Hot Day," had to deliver his sermon and celebrated discourse at Lexington the other day to raise enough money to bury his wife.

Undoubtedly the cheapest grocery house in Central Kentucky is D. Chennault & Co., on 2d St., Richmond, Ky. They handle only standard goods and sell them for less than so called cheap houses charge for trashy stuff. D. Chennault & Co. apr28-1f

Prof. H. G. Brownell, representing the Kentucky Sunday School Union, will address the Waco Convention Saturday, July 17, on "The Kentucky Sunday School Union, Why it is and What it is." He will also address a mass meeting of Sunday School workers on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian church, Richmond, on a live Sunday school topic. Let the public attend both of these gatherings.

I am a candidate for City attorney of Richmond, Ky., subject to the action of the Democratic Party. If nominated and elected it will be my constant endeavor to represent the best interests of the city. Respectfully, GREEN CLAY.

Last Sunday we heard a fellow say he was not going to "preaching" because it was too hot. This same old sinner sat in the crowded court room during the entire Turner trial, wedged in the sweltering crowd and never showed the least sign of fatigue. Several times he was seen sitting on the sharp back of the bench. Curiosity will catch 'em when a good sermon, sweet music and comfortable surroundings can not—Lancaster Record.

Everything is being arranged for a fair.

Mr. Joe Willis will feed the crowd at the fair.

Democratic City Primary tomorrow. Vote.

Clyde Bayburn has accepted a position as clerk with White & Gibson.

Don't bother about taking a basket to the fair. Mrs. Joe Willis will run the dining room.

Don't forget that Mrs. Williamson's primary school opens Sept. 6. See notice elsewhere.

J. W. Bales, agent for Schwarzhild, paid 4 cents for 147 fat cattle of R. G. Evans, of Boyle.

There will be a baseball game and a circus at Silver Creek today. Circus at Kingston tomorrow.

A small blaze at Capt. Speed Smith's was extinguished on Friday before any serious damage resulted.

Everybody interested in Sunday Schools is invited to the S. S. Convention at Waco next Saturday.

The post-office in the new Government building will be open for business Thursday morning to-morrow.

Six men were blown to atoms by the explosion of a nitro glycerine bomb at a railroad crossing in Lexington on Friday.

Silver Creek, with Billy Letcher and Vinegar Bill as the battery, walloped Paint Lick's strong team last week in a ten-tening game.

A Jackson and a Clay are contesting for the nomination for city attorney. Those are good names and their owners are good men. Vote tomorrow.

There is a cow in the Slate Lick Springs neighborhood with three ears, so says Bud Dunn, but of course we can't verify the statement.

The Q. & C. will run an excursion to Cincinnati next Sunday, July 18, at usual rates. Summer resorts are open. Ocean Island, the Zoo, Lagoon, etc. Championship game of ball, Reds vs. Washingtons. Ask agents or see small bills for particulars.

Mr. W. O. Middleton, one of our most progressive gardeners, brought to this office yesterday a bush of cabbage, grown this year in his garden, on Lancaster Avenue, that weighed 8 pounds. Mr. Middleton always has the first and finest vegetables.

We want your trade if we haven't got it, and will guarantee that we will keep it if we do get it, for our qualities are your kind of qualities. If you want a suit to make out the balance of the summer, we can save you dollars. But bear in mind, if you want for the future, our line for fall and winter will be the greatest ever offered in Richmond.

Covington & Mitchell. James Tudor, of Madison county, was arrested on Friday and lodged in jail here by John Broadbent, a constable of that county. He is another brother-in-law of S. D. Turner, who is in jail, charged with the killing of Sebastian, and is said to be the unknown party who fired and made his escape during the Turner-Sebastian fight last Monday, in which three brothers-in-law put eight bullets into the body of Marion Sebastian.—Lancaster Cor. Interior-Journal.

Dr. Rutherford and Rev. Rutherford Douglas exchanged Nicholasville and Paris pulpits last Sunday week. The Nicholasville people as much pleased with Dr. Rutherford as we of Paris were with Mr. Douglas, who is Mrs. R's nephew. While here Rev. Rutherford Douglas preached an able, eloquent and impressive discourse from the text: "As much as in me is." He reminded some who heard him of his gifted uncle, Dr. Wm. C. Young, deceased.—Paris Kentuckian.

Have You Seen It? What? That handsome road wagon built by John Donelson. It's a beauty, and you can't beat it.

School Fund Drops. It is learned from the auditor's office that school per capita will drop away below $2.80, last year's rate. It may be below $2.

For Magistrate in Kirskevile. Messrs. Nath Cotton and James R. Henry are candidates for Magistrate in the Kirskevile precinct, subject to the Democratic primary, Saturday, August 7th.

Special Premium Offered. The Kentucky Carriage works, of this city, offers a special premium for the best harness horse, mare or gelding. The same to be driven to one of their make of buggies. John Donelson, proprietor.

Big Fish Caught by Hand. The Mt. Hebron correspondent of the Lancaster Record last week says that a late rain caused the river to get so muddy that the fish came to the surface and people caught them with their hands. The fish weighed from one to sixty pounds.

Night Funeral. Eld. J. T. Sharrard tells us that he preached the funeral of James Hogan, who died at his mother's at Rowland, Wednesday night. It was his first night funeral and taking into consideration the hot weather, Mr. Sharrard thinks it is a first-rate tour to preach them.—Stanford Journal.

To the People. I am a candidate for the office of County Attorney of Madison. If elected, my mode of conduct in the office shall be, "equal and exact justice to all people; to the rich and poor alike." It shall be my constant endeavor to secure a prudent and economical administration of the fiscal affairs of the county, and thus reduce the excessive rate of taxation. I solicit your aid. GRANT E. LILLY.

Off For Canada. Rev. Dr. Young left yesterday for Toronto, Canada, to attend the International Epworth League Convention, July 15-18. Four ministers from Kentucky are on the program; Dr. Young is one of them, and his subject is "Temperance and Civic Righteousness," and it is safe to say that his 5000 hearers will be treated to a powerful address. Dr. Young goes via Lake Erie steamer from Toledo to Buffalo, thence by Niagara Falls and Lake Ontario to Toronto. After visiting Thousand Islands he will return overland by London, Ontario, to Detroit, thence home. The trip will cover about three thousand miles. Mr. W. A. Langford, of this county, will accompany Dr. Young, and thus Madison county will have two delegates in an assembly of 50,000 persons from all parts of the world.

Dick Collier Preparing. If there's any money in being chosen assignee these hard times, then our friend Dick Collier, of Corbin, is on the top wave of prosperity, as he is assignee of two large firms in the little giant city. Here's wishing the firms no harm, but we hope Dick will be well paid for his work. He is a brother of the next sheriff of Madison, H. H. Colyer.

Emil After a Wife. Emil Ihart, who formerly assisted his uncle, Mr. L. Schlegel, in his picture gallery here, is getting rich in the Journal: "The frame dwelling recently erected by Mr. Emil Ihart on the Lexington pike makes one of the prettiest suburban homes in Nicholasville. The site is a beautiful one, and the house—a six-room cottage with all modern improvements—very conveniently arranged."

Change in Railroad Agents. Willie Wolf, young son of our fellow townsman, Mr. B. Wolf, has succeeded H. R. Smith as agent of the R. N. I. & B. railroad at Panola, Mr. Smith having taken the place of H. Poston, the well known and popular agent at Valley View, who has resigned his position with the railroad to engage in the merchandise business at Jonesboro, Henry county. Willie Wolf is a remarkably intelligent lad for his age and, unlike most boys of his age, attends strictly to all business entrusted to him.—Jessamine Journal.

Locked Up, But She Went Shut Up. Mrs. Rice, who preached a sermon on the streets here two weeks ago, and who, it will be remembered was particularly severe on President McKinley, Mark Hanna, trusts, combiners, etc., was with her husband locked up at Lexington Monday. The charge against her was disorderly conduct in preaching on the street after being warned not to do so, and that against her husband was vagrancy. The trouble grew out of a collision with the Salvation Army people, who did not like their methods.

Madison County Sunday School Union. The Madison County Sunday School Union will hold its annual meeting on Saturday July 17, at Waco. All Sunday School workers are invited to be present, and all friends of the cause are urged to come.

Waco's hospitality is proverbial. Come and enjoy the day with us. Addresses will be given by several Sunday School and church workers, among whom are C. H. Peace, Secretary Madison County Sunday School Union, Jesse Cobb, welcome address, J. Robert Bowman, response. W. R. Lloyd, address, "Pastor's Relation to Sunday School."

Sunday School Convention at Waco Saturday. The Madison County Sunday School Convention will meet at Waco Saturday. The convention will be called to order at 10 o'clock and the following program carried out:

Address of J. W. Williams—Jesse Cobb, Response—J. Robert Bowman. The Pastor's Relation to the Sunday School—W. R. Lloyd. What It is and Why It is. Discussion.

NOON RECESS. House to House Visitation—Why? W. F. Baumstark. How? J. Robert Bowman. Tea—Value, C. H. Poage. Each point discussed. Music interspersed.
