The Frankfort Capital, a Republican organ tells the truth when it says: "If Republicanism in Kentucky means what it appears to mean at this writing, the people will see to it that Republicanism in the future shall remain only as a useful minority."

Hon. W. J. Bryan is expected to attend the Democratic rally at Springfield, Ohio. The occasion is to be made one memorable in the history of the State, and many distinguished speakers will be present. The program is to have it begin on the 15th of September and continue until the 21st.

CHAUNCEY DEWEY thinks that $100,000,000 gold a year will come in from Alaska. We will then repudiate our obligations says the Stanford Journal, by paying them off in cheap gold. Silver will shoot up to the moon in price. Both silver and the moon in a silver bug and the gold bugs will change to silver bugs. The money devil will become an angel of mercy, and hell will be a summer resort.

THERE was a time when Henry Waterson vigorously opposed the gold standard, and the following was then his advice in the Courier-Journal to the newspapers of the country: All newspapers in the land not owned by and breeches in the money kings or the gold conspiracy ought to call public attention day after day to the lamentable conditions produced by the anti-silver legislation. As Henry has ceased to talk about the hard conditions resulting from anti-silver legislation the presumption is logical that the erstwhile Prince Rupert among silver leaders is now owned "body and breeches by the money king or the gold conspiracy."—Jackson Sun.

THERE was an alleged interview with Mr. Emmett Dickson, of Paris, published in the Cincinnati Enquirer some days ago, in which it was said that Mr. Dickson told the reporter that the National Democratic party in Kentucky was made up of "old-time Whigs, home-guards during the war and Shylocks." We do not believe that Mr. Dickson ever made that statement withholding comment until Mr. Dickson has an opportunity to confirm or deny the accuracy of the report, says the Lexington Herald.

"Why a newspaper could never live in Lewis county," is the heading of a long article in the Vaneburg Sun, the point being that the county officers don't comply with law in advertising. A suggestion though is to go ahead and make the Sun shine brightly as it is now doing, and all will naturally be drawn to the sun. A paper never could live in Lincoln county until Walton made such growth that it helped him, says Col. Craddock in the Paris Kentuckian Citizen.

TEN years ago it was not considered respectable to be a Republican in Kentucky. Now it isn't really respectable to be a Republican of the kind that is running party affairs here and at Washington. They used to call it the "nigger party," now the negroes are about the only decent ones left who affiliate with the gang headed by Hunter, Deboe, Todd, Taylor, Franks, Sapp, Erdman and their tribe. And the negro suffers in reputation by the association.—Frankfort Capital.

If the "National" Democrats expect to elect Hindman clerk of the Court of Appeals, as Watson vainly predicts, he more than the candidate himself believe or anybody else for or against him. The Lebanon Falcon says: "Hindman, the yellow jacket candidate for clerk of the Court of Appeals, was in Lebanon Saturday and frankly confessed that he had not the slightest hopes of being elected. Just so Brother Hindman's sole mission is to try and seduce enough Democrats from their party allegiance to enable the Republicans to win, but his efforts will prove a dismal failure."

The Louisville Post, one of the shining lights of the so-called National Democratic party, concedes the election of S. J. Shackelford, the Democratic nominee for the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, by a plurality of 25,000, and all unbiased people who make any claim to a knowledge of the situation agree with it. In a recent interview Hon. Z. F. Smith, ex-Superintendent of Public Instruction says:

I have recently been through the western part of the state, and I believe Shackelford, the Democratic nominee for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, is safe for a majority of not less than 20,000 or 30,000. The Republicans will not make anything like the effort to carry the state that they did last year. They are disheartened, disappointed and divided. The action of the Gold Democrats will help the regular ticket. If the Populist candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals persists in running he may possibly draw off 5,000 or 10,000 votes not more, but even then Shackelford will get fully 20,000 majority.

GRAY power under a pledge to reform the currency in the interests of the people the Republican party has reformed the tariff in the interests of the trusts.

The tariff law already in effect has been heralded as having been made in opposition to the sugar trust. The lie is given to this claim by the rapid and enormous rise in sugar trust certificates as soon as the conference report is presented to the house. The increased value of these certificates could have had no other cause than the contemplated tariff law. The pretense that the law was formed against the wishes and desires of the sugar trust is shown to be false.

The absurdity of the claim that republicanism would bring prosperity is shown by the condition of the country. Times are better today than a year ago for nobody except the tariff monopolists. Yet the McKinley administration has been in power over five months and the election was nine months ago. The Republican party is now on trial. It will be convicted of obtaining power under false pretenses and be sent to retire from office at the first election.

THE CONSUMER PAYS IT.

The Dispatch still thinks that the consumers pay the protective tariff. We invite the Dispatch to specify some article, the product of an established American industry, which does not sell for less than when the protective tariff was imposed upon it.—Louisville Commercial.

This is easy to answer. Before the Dingley bill was passed the merchants of Louisville were selling 20 pounds of sugar to the dollar. They are now selling sixteen to seventeen pounds of sugar to the dollar. Sugar has advanced about one cent per pound on account of the protective tariff imposed on refined sugar. Will the Commercial please tell the people who consume sugar what foreigner pays that extra cent per pound for them?—Louisville Dispatch.

THE Pantagraph will accept assurance of our distinguished consideration for avowing its authorship of an editorial which the CLIMAX charged the Ashland News with having first perpetrated upon the public. The article may be found in the Courier Journal of July 29, editorial page, fifth column, credited to the Ashland Sun. Hence our charge that the Pantagraph appropriated it.

Now, while the Ashland News comes up, like the Pantagraph faculty did when the Stanford Journal accused it of using ready-made editorials on property, etc.?

association, will become assistant in the Campbellville academy. Good! A man who can sell rickabags, puns, and jokes, and who makes a county fair ought to be able to teach the young Campbellvillians with impunity or anything else.

It is not too much to hope for this excellent young gentleman, whom we have known for fifteen years, to see him some day Superintendent of a division.

MARRIED.

SCRIVEN-MOORE—A closed carriage whirled down Main street on Wednesday afternoon last which, though no uncommon sight here, elicited remarks of surprise as the occupants looked suspiciously like a bride and groom. The young couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Rayburn. The bride, who is a pretty and attractive young lady of nineteen years, is quite weedy, being a daughter of the late Andy McCord. A Mexican Veteran in Luck.

The New Market correspondent of the Lebanon Falcon says: "One of our old Mexican Veterans of the community—old Uncle Philo Harris—met with good fortune last week. He received a check to the amount of $2,200 of back pension, with $24 every month as long as he lives.

A Big Pear Tree.

In our last issue we mentioned a pear tree three feet in diameter as one of the wonders of a county in the southern part of the State. There is one near this city on the farm of J. N. Wain that is seven feet through and was that large seventy-five years ago. Although much decayed it still bears a respectable crop of pears. —Vanderbilt Dispatch.

Fell From His Horse.

Master John Foster fell from a horse on Thursday and broke his right forearm. The horse was standing still, but the girl had been bucked and struck by the boy, who fell off and struck his arm on a stone trough. The accident happened at Mrs. White's on the Big Hill pike, and Dr. Foster was then at Ford. He returned with Dr. Jasper, attended to his son's injury and he is now doing nicely.

A Bad Set.

The negroes who were arrested at Richmond charged with complicity in the cattle stealing cases for which Richard Lakes and Curtis Coyle were arrested here, will be tried today at Richmond. Lakes is still in jail here serving out a sentence for carrying concealed weapons. Coyle appealed and gave bond and it is said has left the country.—Winchester Democrat.

They Waived Examination and were Held Over.

New Meat Market.

One of the nicest meat markets we have seen for many a day is that of W. H. Douglas & Co., in the Mackey building on Main street. Their large refrigerator and cold storage is now and will henceforth be filled with the choicest of meats. The name of Mr. Douglas being attached to the firm is sufficient to say that it will be a first-class market. Alfred Douglas, undoubtedly the best of our meat men in this county, will be ready to wait on their customers. Give them a call. Telephone 105.

"Chiny" Goes to Housekeeping.

If well wishes were convertible into cash, and cash could purchase happiness, Mr. and Mrs. Chenault Willis would be the happiest young couple in town. They have rented the cozy little home on West Main Street at the R. N. I. & B. bridge crossing, and are housekeeping in the most approved style. It is a shaly nook, a pretty little nest, where the sun shines as bright, the birds sing as sweetly, and the grass grows as green as in a King's domain. May they as monarchs of this little realm be blessed with earth's choicest gifts.

"Wheat up, Silver Down."

Wheat continues to go up; silver continues to go down.—Gold-gug exchange.

The enough, and the reason is very plain. There is no embargo on the raising of wheat or its use as the staff of life. Restore to Silver its rightful use as primary money and pass a law prohibiting the use of wheat for bread, and the conditions will be reversed. Let gold be legislated against, as silver has been, and the commercial value of gold will rapidly decline.—B. J. Newton, in Oventon Herald.

Capt. Prince Succumbs at Last.

After a heroic struggle, Capt. Prince, the gentleman who fell on the stand here during the Fair, died on Monday night, after lingering since July 29. His body was shipped to Wheeling, W. Va., after services at the Henderson House, accompanied by Mrs. Prince and daughter, who have been here since the accident. We were the first to reach the Captain when he fell, and heard him predict his death with firmness, and despite the fact that there was little apparent reason at the time for such forebodings, as he was perfectly rational and recovered. He had never admitted he would recover. His physician, Dr. Gibson, says death resulted from a ruptured kidney and dislocation of the spinal column. Simply his back was broken by the fall of eight feet backward upon his head and shoulder. The accident caused wide-spread regret, and his stricken family are assured of the sympathy of this community. Deceased was 55 years old, a steamborn man, and leaves a large fortune.

A Horrible Accident.

Milton Kimbrell, a farmer of Brookstown, aged 36, met with a peculiar and terrible accident on Monday which may cost him his life. He was enroute home with a two-horse wagon-load of shingles, and when going down a rough road two miles from town the horses took fright, the lurch throwing Kimbrell astride the lines which were tied to a bunch of shingles. He dangled helplessly and the wheel ran upon his leg above the knee, and with his limb under the wheel the team dragged him twenty yards, his leg serving as a "chock" to the wheel. The team left the wheel the moment it was under the wheel, upon Kimbrell's leg, to which he was able to tell a little boy accompanying him to run to town for a doctor. Some time after two negro men came along and pulled the wagon of the man, and he was laid in the shade to await the arrival of Dr. Gibson. The latter found the poor man's leg mangled to a pulp, and thinks the amputation will be necessary to save his life.

William A. Owsley Dies in Chicago.

Mr. William A. Owsley, who in the early '70s was a well-known Louisville newspaper man, being engaged on the morning Ledger and other journals, died in Chicago recently. During his career in the newspaper field Mr. Owsley was very active and was always on the alert for something that would interest the reading public. He was sixty years old, and related to the families of his name in Boyle and Garrard counties. His wife who survives him, was formerly a Miss Towle, of Frankfort.

Masonry to be Dissolved.

Some weeks ago Rev. Simpson Ely, a minister at Kirksville, Mo., made an attack on Masonry through the columns of the Christian Standard, published at Cincinnati, in which the order was arraigned on twenty six specific charges. He sent a marked copy of the paper to President John Aug. Williams, of Harrodsburg, throwing down the gauntlet to him. A correspondence ensued and a discussion of the question was decided upon between the two. The discussion will be a dignified one, setting forth the conflicting views on a subject which concerns a great many people, and a two-column article from each participant will appear weekly for eight issues in the Christian Standard and the Chicago Cynosure, a paper devoted to anti-sectarian society.

Rev. Ely is a distinguished preacher and is known for his missionary zeal and advocacy of social and political reform. President Williams is widely known through his presidency of Daughters' College and among Masons as one of their brightest members, having been Grand Lecturer of the State and is fully capable of upholding his side of the issue.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

Editor of The Dispatch in Town.

Hon. B. F. Enloe, editor of the Louisville Dispatch, enroute to Eastern Kentucky, paid a visit to Richmond last Friday and stopped with Hon. J. B. McCreary, who served in Congress with Mr. Enloe when the latter represented a Tennessee district. Gov. McCreary's office was thronged with callers who came to meet the distinguished visitor, and in the evening Mr. Enloe took tea at Gov. McCreary's home, when a number of gentlemen called. Col. Enloe is a tall, handsome man, in the prime of life, and is as agreeable in conversation as he is entertaining and instructive in the columns of the Dispatch. He made a fine impression upon all who met him and impressed them as one eminently fitted to mould public opinion upon all the vital questions of the day. He, like Waterson, is a native of Tennessee, and like him has served with distinction in the Congress of the United States, and daily combats and confutes the arguments of the "gold bug" either by superior reasoning, patriotism, and fidelity to Democracy, or by reprinting Waterson's utterances and writing of "72" showing the glaring inconsistency of his position to-day upon the subject of finance. Thus out of his own mouth is the Dispatch converting the distinguished renegade.

Col. Enloe was much pleased with Richmond and with the support accorded the newspaper by Madison county. He already has a large number of readers that the Courier Journal and only asks that the Democratic Kentucky give their paper proper encouragement to insure its permanent success.

Carbuncles

Appeared Each Season Until Hood's Was Purified With Hood's Sarsaparilla—An Indolent Ulcer.

"For several years I was troubled with carbuncles on my left side and my back. They would disappear in winter and re-appear the next summer. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and have never had any carbuncles since. My little son had a fever and an indolent ulcer appeared on his left limb and spread half way around it. Our physician recommended a blood purifier and I gave the boy Hood's Sarsaparilla with gratifying results." A. G. B. JAMES, Polkville, Miss.

"I have been a great sufferer from muscular rheumatism and in October began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. I continued its use until January when I could go about as well as any one and I have had no acute pains since." I. W. MCKINIC, Grand Isle, Louisiana.

A Show Truly Moral.

"The Great John Robinson and Franklin Bros' Enormous Shows combined" are announced to appear at Richmond in all their vast entirety, on Friday, August 27, and for one day only, giving two complete performances, afternoon and evening. All of our exchanges speak in the highest terms of this great amusement enterprise, and the many tough "hang-on's" so frequently found with large shows, are made conspicuous by their absence. There is not a game of chance of any kind permitted on or around the grounds. All the attractions are genuine, and there is not a loud or profane word spoken.

It is a wonderful sight to see the wonderful "horseless carriage" in trial tests of speed at every performance and in the great double parade. The three rings and elevated stages are all going at one time, with entirely different acts. Performers picked from the best of the world afford, and there is no more than four score of them, whose combined salaries would more than equal twice over the entire expenses of the every day circus. The daily free street parade is a mass of glittering magnificence, containing "scenes from all nations," numerous open dens of rare wild beasts, twelve kinds of music, herds of elephants and the finest imported horses ever seen with a tented amusement enterprise. The coming of this, the world's biggest amusement, is cause for a "regal" holiday in every city it visits, and it is worth coming a day's travel to see.
