THE Climax is advocating Democratic doctrine right along—"Economy in public expenditures." Stay on your own side, neighbor. Was ever the Republican party known to leave a surplus behind it?

Now they are talking of Grover Cleveland for United States Senator from New Jersey. What will we hear next?—Pantagraph.

That Wm. Jennings Bryan will be the next President of the United States.

THE Climax has gone daft on the subject of the Republican administration—Pantagraph.

It is a rotten potato, but we are only holding it up as a specimen of Republican government. If it smells bad, just burn a rag.

ONE reason, a great cause, indeed, for much of the discontent in this land, is the inequality of taxation. So long as wealthy individuals and corporations are allowed to stand on a different footing from the small property owners and the great tax-paying, wage-earning class, so long will the title of socialist opinion which is sweeping over the minds of citizens who suffer these oppressions and who have lost all faith in the power of appealing to corrupt officials to do justice between the opulent and greedy and the poor and oppressed.

THERE is a wrong somewhere—a wrong which stinketh to the heavens, and it needs to be corrected.—Pantagraph.

Again let the accuser answer his insane charge: "The people have grown tired of their services, however good and faithful such might have been during their long reign."

If the small office-holders, such as County Sheriff, Jailor, Clerks, etc., are to have a life tenure, why not the Governor and other State officials, too?—Pantagraph.

It is only a question of honesty and competency. Had the Republican State administration exhibited these traits we should not expect to see a clean sweep and a turning out of the rascals at the next election.

EXPECTIONATION in public places is in its most rampant and all-detrimental to the public health. It is doubtless unesthetic, and properly revolting to most persons. But then there are other annoyances. There is the Pantagraph, for instance, which is making this community very tired slobbering over with an air of public morality and rectitude. Throes ashes over it and shoved it out.

THERE is not any good reason why Republicans should not take a hopeful view of a life tenure, why not November as they deserve to.—Pantagraph.

Let the Pantagraph reply to itself: "The Pantagraph is willing, quite willing, to give credit to whom credit is due and freely takes this opportunity of speaking well of the present Democratic county candidates now before the people."

MR. WILLIAM F. SCHOOBER, a former attaché of the Climax, until recently editor of the Morehead Advertiser, has been nominated by the Republicans for Representative from Rowan and Bath counties. He married Miss Hacker, of this city, and has made a brave struggle in the little mountain city against hard times and ill health so that if the district must have a Republican legislator we know of no man in that section better equipped for the position.

SPORADIC and hysterical outbursts, such as the Pantagraph has been making of late, calling hard names and insulting the public, as that pseudo political purist has been guilty of recently, are not going to enrage the taxpayers of Richmond to turn over the government of this municipality to the party that is not competent to conduct the feeble minded and insane asylum of Kentucky, much less the government of this grand old Commonwealth.

THE Climax has ceased blowing its bugle for Bryan and free silver. What a terrible thing it must be to have a man use one's mouth.—Pantagraph.

Why neighbor, don't think, because we paused last week to castigate you for your diarrhetic assault upon us, that we have forsaken Bryan or free silver, whose friends we are and whose battles we shall fight right along until they triumph. But speaking of manure: Go get yourself one, and stop your braying.

Of those colored scoundrels who succeed in doing nothing good can be said. They are too trifling, sorry and contemptible for decent people to contemplate. The apex in the jungle of Africa is superior to them. They are without honor, without character.—Pantagraph.

The foregoing is an awful indictment of the Negro by one of its masters, who, when he can no longer hold the poor brute in political captivity compares them to the ape, and casts them out. Shame on such ingratitude.

"The Louisville Dispatch" will be a corpse within thirty days." That was the kind of argument put up recently by a young Mr. Rose, traveling solicitor for the Louisville Post. We do not know whether the young man believed what he said or not, but we know that he found out that there were three other corpses in this town at least the Post, Times and Courier-Journal. The Dispatch is not only not dying but has a growing circulation and is the only daily in Louisville making money out of its subscription list.

THE Pantagraph is sick, very sick. The last two times it has shown itself has made it evident to all who saw it. Speculation is freely indulged in by both friend and foe as to the nature of its illness. The diagnosis has been made, so we are informed, and positively ascertained. It is called by the physicians Raber.

The cause of the trouble is assigned to overdo excitement and expectation, followed by sudden depression and blasted hopes. The registration in Richmond on the 5th inst. is ascribed as the immediate cause.

THE Democrats here are charged by the Pantagraph with buying the negro floaters to prevent them from registering. Bad as this seems, it is not comparable with the act of Gov. Bradley in pardoning convicts so that they might register and vote the Republican ticket. It happened in Winchester last week, when twenty men were pardoned. It happened in Richmond. Seems to us our friend E. Gum Parrish pronounced the pardon when the negro's vote was challenged. This happened at last year's registration. But it didn't work. And yet talk about Republican reform. Phew!

GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS achieved an overwhelming victory for silver in the Massachusetts Democratic State Convention last week. Moreover he was given the nomination of his party for Governor without one dissenting vote.

The platform, as adopted, contains the following: We, the Democrats of Massachusetts, in convention assembled, reaffirm our allegiance to the great principles of Democracy as enunciated in the party's national convention at Chicago; and we take special pleasure in recording our appreciation and indorsements of the splendid campaign waged in behalf of the people's rights by their intrepid champion, who stands in merit and esteem with the historic leaders of the Democracy, William Jennings Bryan.

The Democratic party opposes the attempt to fasten on the country gold monometallism, and demands the re-nomination of silver at the ratio of gold to silver. The demand for silver is so enormous and the demand for gold so reduced that the two would meet and remain at parity and the paralyzing battle of the standards would cease and the world enter upon a period of assured prosperity.

COBB, said Mrs. Williams, whenever you see one of these fellows coming around saying he wants to work for nothing, watch out; 'oek the smoke'—house. Persons that are worth anything to anyone won't give their time for nothing.

THE Republican candidates for City Council of Richmond want a job without pay. Apply Bill Arps' maxim.

THE attention of the Pantagraph is directed to these items:

Talk of Auditor Stone's son, Will Stone, becoming Insurance Commissioner. Coalbridge's successor, develops the interesting fact that a younger son, James Stone, is now Deputy Insurance Commissioner and has been drawing a salary supposed to have been coming to the Hon. E. T. Burnett.—Courier-Journal.

This is Republican blessedness. Burnard drew two salaries a long time and perhaps is "sub rosa" doing it yet. Secretary of State Finley was drawing $1,000 more than he was entitled to until Judge Cantrell called him down last week. There is too much crookedness worked off the Republican officials. Poor old Kentucky!—Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.

Under Judge Cantrell's decision in the salary case of Secretary of State Finley it is believed the Treasurer will also lose the salary he was paid as he enjoys as Treasurer of the Insurance Bureau.—Courier-Journal.

He ought to lose it, because he renders no service for which he should be paid that sum. The Commissioner should be made to take care of the fund and to account for it.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.

IN its overmastering desire to get at the bottom of the Pantagraph is jumping on everybody not its way of thinking, including the negroes whom it accuses of nameless crimes and brutish propensities.

As the Pantagraph, in the next breath exonerates the Democrats from dishonesty, and compliments their administration of affairs, no attention will be paid to its ill-tempered assaults. Here we wish to pause a moment to explain that according to modern ethics, as observed in the offices of great secular newspapers, it is not considered essential that any critic should keep strictly to truth. In some sense, a dweller in the abbey of Theleme. The editor of the Pantagraph is a great critic. He possesses many of the earmarks that gave emphasis to the deliverances of Fadenson and his style resembles the pellucid tenderness of the brook that wanders at will through summer meadows. For this reason—because it is a great critic—we are not astonished to find him declaring:

"The verdict at the polls next November ought to be such as will exonerate these traitors, that all the money and all the titles in this country cannot buy the honor and integrity of our beloved Richmond."

Great balls of atmosphere! Think of it. All the titles and the wealth, etc., cannot debauch the suffrage of our beloved Richmond! Well, who said it could?

LOCAL. General Cassius M. Clay is Cincinnati.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of October 5, contained the following notice concerning General Clay, who is in that city undergoing treatment for a cataract of the eye, which has been giving him considerable trouble:

General Cassius Marcellus Clay, of White Hall, Madison county, Ky., one of America's most distinguished and remarkable men, the close friend of Abraham Lincoln and the Ambassador from this country to Russia under three Administrations, is at the Grand, to have a cataract removed from his eye by a noted oculist of this city. General Clay will be 86 years of age the 19th of this month, but his stature of 6 feet 11 inches is still erect. His hair and beard are white as winter snow, but his cheeks are as ruddy as an autumn apple, and, aside from the ailment of his eye, he says his health is perfect and he is without a constitutional defect. General Clay, it will be remembered, married two or three years ago a pretty rural lassie only 15 years of age, whom he afterward joined to see in the same country together at his handsome country seat, White Hall. The mansion is surrounded by the finest forest in Kentucky, embracing every variety of tree indigenous to the soil of the state, and many varieties from foreign climes. Around this superb setting sweeps a delightful domain of the fairest and most fertile blue grass lands, over which breeze the highest breed flock of Southdown sheep on this country. General Clay has always been fond of nature in all its varied forms, and takes a keen interest in horticulture and agriculture, and to his constant attention to these pursuits, in which he is a recognized authority, he attributes much of his unimpaired health and intellect.

"I have injured my eyes from excessive reading," said he, "having much time on my hands. I have been an omnivorous reader since my return from Russia. I keep abreast of the times, always looking to the future and never back. I am not afflicting with any party, but have my country's welfare at heart. I believe that this Government should immediately intervene and establish Cuban independence by force of arms, if necessary. The idea of an ete ete old tyrannical monarchy like Spain persecuting a people on this continent of republics is preposterous and horrible, and should not be free tolerated a day longer. I am not in favor of annexing Cuba or Hawaii, but let them be free republics, and Sumner should be the same. We have such a large foreign population now that we can well do without any more. Canada will eventually come to us of her own volition. We should be prepared to meet England. She is fortified around us now, and with Spain in Cuba all their guns are pointed at us and all they have got to do is to say 'Fire!' Yes, I negotiated the purchase of Alaska while Minister to

Liver and Stomach Troubles—Too Weak to Work—How Able to Do All Her Household Work.

"I was under the care of a physician for two years and he was treating me for stomach and liver troubles and female difficulties, but I only grew worse under his treatment. I was so weak I could do hardly any work. I was at last induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills and these medicines have done me so much good that I now weigh 112 pounds and am able to do all my household work. I firmly believe I should have been in my grave today if it had not been for Hood's Sarsaparilla. My little girl was afflicted with phthisis. I gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and it has relieved her."

Russia, and the price as near as I remember was $7,200,000, or about that. The Emperor presented that money to some of his indentured nobles and court favorites. I know then that there was gold in Alaska as reports of it had come to St. Petersburg but the Russian nobility were too indolent to look after it. Besides that, the vast quantities of seal skins and salmon, the finest on earth, we have got from that country, and the bargain I made for our Government is incalculable."

Harvey Helm a Clergyman! The Jessamine journal says of a former popular student of C. U.:

"The Interior-Journal publishes this week cuts of the Democratic nominees in Lincoln for county offices and a handsome set of men would be hard to find. If they are not speeders they certainly betray their looks. Mr. Harvey Helm, candidate for county attorney, has the appearance of a clergyman—and one of those regular old times shouting Methodists at that."

Not much clergy about Helm, but voice! O, my! He can laugh louder than any Methodist preacher in this circuit.

Registration. The Democrats are in high glow over the results of last Tuesday's registration, while the Republicans are congratulating in so far as Republicanism, their inevitable doom, which awaits them in November. The 3 wards of the city show a Democratic majority of 1,000. The Republican majority of last year, 6, a gain of 139. There were 334 registrations, out of which 192 were Republicans, 147 Republicans, 15 National Democrats, 5 independent and 32 non-affiliating. The following is the city's vote by wards:

Table with 2 columns: Party and Votes. Total registration in city: 354. Democrats: 116. Republicans: 192. National Democrats: 15. Independent: 5. Non-affiliating: 32.

Confederate Re-Union. HEADQUARTERS 3d BRIGADE, RICHMOND, KY., Oct. 11, '97. COMRADES—As the commander of this brigade, it is my duty and pleasure to call your attention to the approaching re-union of the 11th Kentucky Cavalry C. S. A., on Thursday, Oct. 14. What is contemplated by a re-union is what most effectually serves to keep in the breasts of the old soldier love and reverence for the principles for which he fought, and the memory of comrades who bore arms with him in the heat of battle.

This re-union is to bring all survivors of the war together that they may recount the "Good Old Days."

A greeting, a jest or story, an incident recalled, a "God bless you" to the old boys, a looking up of old comrades, stretching under the shadow of the trees, recalling the air of old songs will be to you all a pleasure.

Confederate Veterans everywhere are invited to be present. We will gather under the shade of the forest trees promptly at 10 a. m. The order of exercises will be as follows:

- 1. Line up in front of stand, and welcome by the General Commanding.
- 2. Address by Lieut. Col. J. B. McCreary.
- 3. Dixie, by the Confederate Glee Club.
- 4. Address by Captain John H. Leathers.
- 5. Music by band.
- 6. Address by Col. Tucker, "My Boys."
- 7. Plantation Songs.
- 8. Address by Rev. G. W. Young.
- 9. Short address by 3 or 4 of Veterans.
- 10. Dinner.
- 11. Afternoon devoted to songs, music and war incidents, etc.

It is expected that every one who was interested in the Confederacy will bring baskets of food, so we may have a regular picnic dinner. We want to make this a pleasant and profitable gathering. The old soldiers will report to the Adj. General and have their names enrolled. It is our wish to have every old soldier's name for membership in one of the Confederate camps here. Fraternally, J. M. POYNTZ, Brig. Gen.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.
