HON. JOHN B. CHENAULT.

In our last issue appeared the announcement of Hon. John B. Chenault, of Madison county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Auditor of Kentucky, but the authority for same was received too late to make editorial comment at that time. A lifetime acquaintanceship not only with John Chenault himself, but with almost his entire family, qualifies us to speak intelligently of the man and his ancestors. Descended from one of the oldest, best and most highly respected families in Kentucky—a people who for years have been noted for their high order of intelligence, strict integrity, open hospitality and pure democracy, John B. Chenault is a worthy scion of his race—and a man who would honor the position should he be nominated and elected Auditor of Kentucky. In the prime of a vigorous young manhood, of fine presence and affable manner, known to be thoroughly competent for the discharge of the duties of the position he seeks, and a Democrat without guile, it is not surprising that after a candidacy of only a few weeks it is already conceded that the man who beats him for the nomination will be the next Auditor of our State. Mr. Chenault is chairman of the Madison County Democratic Committee and was during the memorable Presidential campaign of 1896, and to his tireless efforts is due to a great measure the large vote polled for Bryan in Madison county. Knowing him as we do, and for so long, it gives us pleasure to say to the Democrats of Kentucky that in our opinion they can do no better than to name as their candidate for Auditor this deserving young Madison county Democrat—and if they do so, to victory he will surely carry their banner in November, 1899.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.

Hon. John B. Chenault, of Richmond, candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Auditor, stopped off here Sunday on his way to Mt. Sterling, renewing old acquaintances and making new ones. Mr. Chenault is a good politician, a splendid gentleman and made a favorable impression with the people he met here.—Winchester Sun.

MR. CHENAULT'S CHANCES GROW BRIGHTER AND BRIGHTER.

Hon. John B. Chenault, of Richmond, Ky., is in this city. Mr. Chenault is a candidate for State Auditor, subject to the action of the Democratic party. He is a rising young man and has done service in the ranks of his party in the past, and is said to possess ample qualifications for the position to which he aspires. Mr. Chenault, notwithstanding he is a banker, is known as an ardent free silver man, upon which fact we heartily recommend him to the Democratic voters in this neck of the woods. The Gleaner would be pleased to see him receive the nomination for Auditor.—Henderson Gleaner.

MR. JOHN B. CHENAULT, of Madison county, was in the city Monday. He is a candidate for the nomination for State Auditor and will secure the support of this county. Mr. Chenault's pedigree as a Democrat is all O. K. He is a young man. A well posted young man on politics, capable and not an unscrupulous politician. At present he is Chairman of county committee. Mr. Chenault has many relatives and friends in this county and will undoubtedly get the instructions of Montgomery.—M. Sterling Advocate.

R. C. O. BENJAMIN, of Lexington, the colored candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress, don't intend to be ignored by his party. He says he means business, and serves this notice:

"If I am dealt with fairly in the convention and am defeated, I pledge myself to support the nominee, whoever he may be. If by any chicanery or slight of hand trick I am not given a fair show, I shall take the field independently and show the white Republicans of the Seventh Congressional District how insignificant is their vote."

So far not a single Republican paper in the district has yet made any mention of the candidacy of the colored brother.

THE Democrats demanded an "income tax" as a war revenue measure. The Republicans denied this to the people, but taxed everything used by the laboring man.—Winchester Democrat.

THE Grand Jury of the Franklin Circuit Court returned indictments against the various coal dealers of Franklin on the ground of collusion or formation of a trust to fix the prices for the sale of coal.

His many friends here hoped that Dr. G. W. Young, in the event that he becomes field secretary of the Kentucky Local Option Committee would make Cynthiana his home, but the CLIMAX states that he will continue to reside in Richmond.—Cynthiana Democrat.

AT Eminence Circuit Judge Carroll handed down a decision that no building and loan association has the right to make an assignment. He set aside the assignment of the Eminence Building and Loan Association and ordered the case referred to the receiver of the court.

THE handsome editor of the Cynthiana Democrat had nine offers of marriage on the following announcement last week.

"The Democrat offers a special premium of $50 for the handsomest and most charming old maid between the ages of 30 and 45 years who appears at the Street Fair. The winner is to become the bride of the editor and promptly return the $50. The entries are to assemble at the Star Grocery on Friday morning at 11 o'clock, where they will be entertained by Messrs. Busch, Walker, Blair and Monson until the editor arrives and makes his selection. Nothing and nothing allowed."

JUDGE CARROLL has rendered a decision in favor of the Louisville Dispatch in a suit to compel the State Auditor to pay for the publication of the official proceedings of the legislature. This was the first suit ever brought in the State to compel an official to pay such a bill, and it's dollars to cents that had the money been going to the Courier Journal or Louisville Commercial, no suit would have been necessary to get the money. Besides, the Auditor has established a reputation for resorting to the courts with State auditors, but it is not yet recorded that he has ever been sustained in a single contention.—Winchester Sun.

HON. JOHN HENRY WILSON says his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge proves that the Democratic cry of fraud in the mountains is not to be discredited.—Courier Journal.

It matters not what John Henry Wilson says; every man who has watched the course of affairs in the mountains knows that the Democrats have been defrauded fearfully in several of the counties where the Republicans have entire control of the machinery, and it would have been worse than criminal had the Democrats stood idly by and let it be continued. That's what makes the Goebel law all right. If we are caught cheating under it, send us to the penitentiary.—Carlisle Mercury.

THE next Congress will be Republican that is, if the people of this country can be bought up, and that is the present plan of the leaders of the administration, who have a fabulous sum at hand to delude the suffrage and prevent the election of a Democratic Congress that would surely turn the search-light on the late maladministration of our war. A dispatch from Vanceburg says: "This morning a prominent Republican boasted that the administration was backing Judge Pugh for Congress, and that $15,000 was being furnished him on which to make his race to insure victory. The professional are consequently jubilant."

The idea is to dump sufficient money in every doubtful district to insure a Republican majority in the next house. Democrats, be up and doing, organize, and come to the polls to kill by your votes this dastardly and openly confessed scheme to thwart the will of the people.

Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, who spent Thursday in conference with Senator Lindsay, has returned to his home in Hart county. While Gen. Buckner's visit is claimed to have been purely social and personal, it is known also that the political situation was discussed by the Senator and the late Vice Presidential nominee on the National Democratic ticket.

Though Senator Lindsay is close-mouthed on the subject, his friends say that he has practically left the National or Gold Democratic organization, and desires to get back into the fold of the regular organization. When asked several days ago if he would make speeches for Hobson in the Third Appellate District, Senator Lindsay said he was very much interested in Hobson's success, but that he hasn't yet been invited to appear on the stump as the exponent of Democracy.

Gen. Buckner did not outline his future political course, but it is understood he also regards the Palmer and Buckner party as a dead organization politically.

THE Republican party is getting widely apart from the imperialistic notion. The comments of the "Iowa State Register," which we believe is General Clarkson's paper, and is the leading journal of its party in the State, are to the point. He thinks that if we are to hold on to all the flag has floated over Iowa will be called on for two regiments, and as there will be no volunteers to go to Manila or Cuba, a draft may be necessary. The "Register" asks: "Shall Iowa resort to the draft or will the Iowa expansionists come forward and enlist to the extent of whatever troops may be necessary from this State for garrison duty in the most deadly climates in the world, to thus give the practical proof that patriotism influences their howls for annexation? We do not believe that any American citizen should be compelled to serve in garrison duty in those deadly climates, and certainly those who are clamorous for annexation of all the disease cursed islands should prove their good faith by enlisting for the garrison duty necessary to 'hold all we have captured.'"

MR. BRUTUS J. CLAY, the Republican member of the Election Commissioners of Madison county (the others are Messrs. Jno. B. Clendinning and W. J. Langford) recently gave out an interview on the new Election Bill. If the other counties in the State are represented by such firm and fair gentlemen as Mr. Clay his party need fear nothing from the Goebel Bill. Mr. Clay will have two associates on the commission who will join with him, in seeing that exact justice is meted out and we commend Mr. Clay's advice to respect the new law and give it a trial.

"Though I am a Republican," said Col. Clay, "I think it is quite likely that the Democrats will come out ahead in the November elections in Kentucky, as they have under the Goebel election law, all the voting machinery in their hands, and it is fair to assume that they will make use of their advantage. All parties, as experience shows, utilize every circumstance in their favor, and I do not know that one is any better than another in this respect. The law ought, however, to be repealed, as it is unfair and partial. Still as long as it is on the statute books, it should be respected; the safest way to get rid of an obnoxious law is to strictly enforce it."

CORRESPONDENCE.

VALLEY VIEW

Mrs. G. A. Roy has returned from a pleasant stay of a few days with relatives at Indianapolis, Ind.

Wesley Kidwell, of Clinton, county, is visiting relatives near here.

C. W. Sanders and wife celebrated the first anniversary of their daughter, May Ince Sanders, Tuesday September 20. About a dozen tots were present, enlivening the occasion with solo duets that particularly belong to the baby kingdom.

The protracted meeting at Bethel continues with large congregations at every services.

Is justice meted out to all the same? Does she have her favorites on which to bestow unbridled liberty? The writer knew a man about three years ago, whether in the right, or in the wrong, who was taken by the strong arm of the law and incarcerated for a misdemeanor which has been done several times in this section the past year with greater violation of the law than the first committed. To be plain, party or parties have brought whiskey in packages into this community, tapped same and issued it out to any and all that came and said, "my name is on the paper for half gallon." How long is this flagrant violation to go on? In conjunction with the above I have been reliably informed that some party right under the dome of a church house the past week has sold wine to the youth who attended church. Intoxication followed, drunken, debauched, they would enter the house where the work of God was being proclaimed. Shame. A supreme duty rests upon the people of a community that allows such to bring reproach upon the church in a christian community. Where is our law! Who administers justice?

Miss Mary Jones, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Jones, and Mr. J. H. Sallee were married at the home of the brides parents last Wednesday, Rev. O. J. Young officiating.
